WHAT I HAVE LEARNED THIS YEAR

The end of the year and the Christmas season has always been for me a time of reflection. It is a time of looking back at the past year, and noting the hopeful growth, the challenges faced, and the lessons learned. This is especially challenging this most "unusual" of years! But, I believe I have learned a few things. First, "flexibility is essential". This has been true especially for us at Spirit of Christ as we adjust to new public health directives and county/state protocols on nearly a daily basis. Getting locked into a routine has not been the answer. With the help of a terrific staff, we have been able to manage this "obstacle course" year in a manageable way. Another lesson learned is "communication is everything". Thank goodness for Flocknotes! This medium has allowed us to communicate changes and actions to you very quickly. Thanks to Patti Hayes, our excellent Director of Communications for keeping all of this balanced, and in a way which is not overwhelming. Thanks also to our Office Staff for fielding more phone calls than you can count, but always doing so with care and helpfulness. On a more spiritual level, I have always heard that "patience is a virtue". This has been driven home this year. I thank all of you for your patience and trust. During this time of Advent, as we journey with Mary in prayer, I pray that she may always show us this virtue and how it truly forms us into a community of the faithful, both with the Trinity and each other.

Lastly, a lesson which is constantly being visited to me is that "hope" is God's great gift to his people. Hope is always realized for those who trust in God. We have been called to be people of hope during this past year. The hope realized in the birth of Christ at Christmas, the gift of the Incarnation, will surely be realized as well in the year to come. God bless you all this Christmas, and know of my constant and daily prayer for you all, your families, your faith and your hope. Peace to people of good will!

For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 89)

Fourth Sunday of Advent

There are so many things I long for each of you this Christmas. Here are a few:

I want you to be visited by an angel. I want you to know that you have found favor with God. I want you to feel so strengthened and empowered by God's nearness that you could walk the same ninety miles that Mary walked, just to tell someone you love that God has broken through.

I want you, like the shepherds keeping watch that night, to have moments of wonder. I hope that you are astonished by God's power to heal, to console, to bring life from death, and yes, to set hosts of angels in the sky who have probably been standing watch there from the beginning of time, waiting for you to notice their song.

I want you, like Mary, to hold closely in your heart every moment when God did something astonishing and bewildering and soul-soaring. And especially when those moments come to you through encounters with people who don't look or live like you, remember how smelly and rough those shepherds must have seemed to the Holy Family. I want you, like St. Joseph, to love the people you love so faithfully and fiercely that they know one thing for sure, that you are their safe place to land even when everything and everyone is against them.

I want you, like the Child Jesus, to be brave if you are placed in unfamiliar and frightening situations this year. In the beginning was the Light. It shines in the darkness. And that darkness shall never overcome you.

How will you, like Mary, let God astonish you?

STEWARDSHIP OF YOUR TITHE

The gift of generosity

This holiday season, we thank everyone who has supported Spirit of Christ this past year with their time, talent and financial contributions. If you need a convenient way to make regular offerings or if you plan to make an additional gift before the end of the year, we encourage you to look into our electronic giving option. As the pace of life speeds up, especially around the holidays, you may find electronic giving a most welcome way to make contributions. Visit our website (www.spiritofchrist.org) for more information. Just a reminder, year-end donations must be received in the parish office by 12/31 or postmarked by that date in order to qualify as 2020 donations, according to IRS rules.
