THE LOOK OF LENT

If we have done our job correctly, you should notice some environmental differences as we move into the Lenten season in our Church. In essence, the whole Church goes on retreat for the forty days of Lent. Within the church community, two groups embark on their Lenten journey: the catechumens who are preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation at Easter and those already baptized who are preparing to renew their baptismal identity at the same time. The liturgical environment for the season finds its inspiration in this spiritual character of the Church's tradition.

Because of the focus on the journey to Easter and its baptismal focus, the Baptismal font becomes a source of reflection during this season. The flowing waters hearken us back to Jesus' own baptism in the Jordan. Our humble baptisms impart our identity as children of God, claimed by Him as His own. This ongoing reality is a source of consolation and strength for us throughout our lives, and especially during the Lenten season. We are happy that we can return to the use of the Baptismal font as a source of blessing for the people as they enter and exit church.

Environmentally, Lenten decoration also calls us to the desert time of Lent. The decorations are simple, not ornate. The altar is simply dressed, and the plants (no flowers) are kept to a minimum. Purple is the dominant color, because of purple's place as a color of mourning, sadness and penitence. This is reflective of the season's spiritual call. Music will also be adapted during the season. There is no Gloria sung, the Mass parts are in the traditional Latin "chant" form, and there is more instrumental music. Instrumentation (i.e. drums, guitars, etc) are also kept to a minimum. One note is that Fr. Chris and Myles, our Music Director will have a Catholic Conversations night on Feb. 24 at 6:00pm focusing on the season of Lent and it's music. Please join us for this.

SAINT OF THE WEEK: St. Polycarp (Feb. 23)

St. Polycarp was a Turkish bishop and martyr. He died about 60 A.D. Polycarp was a disciple of St. John the Apostle. He was a Christian leader in a very pagan world. Upon his arrest in Smyrna, he declared, "For 86 years, I have served Jesus Christ and he has never abandoned me. How could I curse my blessed King and Savior?" His bold declaration of faith still rings true in our Church today.

Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant. (Ps 25)

There will not be a 9Health Fair at Spirit of Christ this spring 2021.

Screenings will be offered at local Qwest Diagnostic Patient Service Centers in our communities. It is a great alternative option and a Qwest Center is located in the Safe-way right across the street from Spirit of Christ. Please visit the 9Health Fair webpage for information about screenings (appointments are required) www.9healthfair.org. We want to thank our volunteers who worked so hard to make the Spirit of Christ location a success year after year. We will miss working together this year! - The Spirit of Christ 9Health Fair Leadership Team

All boys grades 4-9 are invited to join Fr. Adam for a Day of Prayer February 27 from 10 AM to 1 PM. There is no cost, but you must register at spiritofchrist.org. Pray, celebrate Mass, learn about the life and ministry of a priest and ask questions.

Please note the purple books on the counter are for the children. They are not the same as the little black books.

Christian Formation

Catholic Conversations are in the church every Wednesday from 6 PM to 7:15 PM. Please join us in person or if you join the Catholic Conversations group in Flock-note, then you will be emailed a link to watch the live stream.

Great Adventure Bible Study will accept registrations for the class "No Greater Love" until February 22. The class starts March 9 and we need to order the materials. Register online at spiritofchrist.org.

LBC is now meeting again at the following Sunday Masses: 8:30, 10:30, and 12:15. 3 year olds to 3rd Graders will be dismissed from Mass. Contact Bev at bsmith@spiritofchrist.org for any questions.

First Sunday of Lent

Many years ago I was hospitalized several times over the course of five months. Probably the most visceral memory I have of that terrible time is of a recurring dream. The Greeks had it right when they named "Morpheus" (morphine) the god of dreams. If you've ever spent a length of time on morphine I'll bet you've had some awful dreams too.

In this dream I was on an escalator, going down, down. There was no escape, no hope. I remember thinking how odd it was that everyone was on the escalator, everyone was doomed to an eternity of going down without any glimpse of sky or light, and yet we all kept pretending that we didn't realize this.

Through the grace of God and the strength of the prayers of hundreds of people, I recovered. And over time the dream lost its power, so much so that, nearly fourteen years later, I have to work to remember it at all.

But when I think of the Great Flood, the terrible waters covering the earth and all that dwelt upon it, I remember that feeling of going down, down. A catastrophic flood is related in several ancient texts. There seems to be, lodged in our universal collective unconscious, a sense that we are traveling down, down, without hope of rescue.

But, stronger than death, Rescue did arrive, and even the torments of Satan couldn't keep him from us. Such is the fierce love of Jesus. The early Christians imaged the Church as a boat on high seas, keeping us up, up. Jesus commands that boat, of course. Grab on that boat. Grab on to Jesus. He will raise you up.

How will you cling to Jesus this Lent as you exercise a new discipline?
