A YEAR OF REFLECTION

How many of you (older folks) remember where you were when John F. Kennedy was shot? Or, for you somewhat younger folks, when 9-11 occurred? Do you remember when the world "shut down" with the pandemic? I was settled in to watch the Nuggets-Mavericks game on ESPN on Wednesday, March 11, when it was announced that a game was cancelled due to the positive test of an NBA player. By Friday the 13th, we were in a lockdown mode, and now one year later, we have pause to reflect.

We know that God creates everything for the good, and fruit can come forth even from difficult situations. Through our adjustment to limited Mass schedules, online education, the inability to see family and friends as we would like, and the shattering number of deaths our nation has endured, we have grown in many ways. I believe that we are more connected to each other, spending more quality time with loved ones and friends (albeit virtual at times). We have also experienced vulnerability. This helps us to recognize and appreciate our reliance on God and His love. I have heard from people whose faith life has blossomed in the midst of these trials. As we enter Lent, it is very helpful to us to keep this in mind, and reflect it in our prayer.

At the parish, we have done our best to keep a sense of stability and calm, to not allow this pandemic to affect who we truly are, children of God. We have worked to keep everyone as safe as possible, while still affording the opportunity for true and faithful worship and liturgy. I want to thank all of you for your cooperation and good-will at this time. People have looked out for others, a true living out of our call to work for the common good. Ministries, such as Religious Education, Outreach, Small Church Communities, Adult Education and the Knights of Columbus have continued their meetings and ministerial efforts. Again, thank you to all their commitment. As we proceed, we will begin to "open up" (Yay!). We will do so in as safe a manner as possible. We will also communicate the progress toward "normalcy" in a timely manner. Again, all our best this Lent to you and your families. We are Spirit of Christ, we are the children of God. Thank you for living that so faithfully!

SAINT OF THE WEEK: ST. FRANCES OF ROME (March 9)
France of Rome lived in that city, dying in 1440. She was a noblewoman, wife and mother. She was also a woman of tremendous charity, founding an order of lay Benedictine women who served the poorest of the poor of the city. Today, she is the patron saint of motorists. This is because of the fact that her efforts took her all over the city, wherever she was needed.

Lord, you have the words of everlasting life. (Ps 19)

Third Sunday in Lent

I hope that you had the great grace of being made to memorize the Ten Commandments as a child. But in case your brain has had to delete them to make room for the thousands of other things you've needed to stuff in there through the years, take the list out of today's first reading and see how long it takes to commit each one to memory again.

It was easier when we were kids. Our brains were more supple, of course, but, more than that, it was easy to confidently recite commandments we were certainly never going to break. I think of those commandments a lot these days, during tax time. It turns out that a lot of us are willing to break the seventh commandment because, well, we can.

Thou shalt not steal seems like such an obvious command. No society can prosper when there is no deterrence from stealing from each other. Certainly we can all point to government waste, and entitlements we deem immoral. Funding those in our taxes is a bitter pill. In other cases, though, hiding assets is meant to benefit the wealthier member of a divorcing couple, to the detriment of the children of that union.

These past two tax seasons have been particularly appalling as poor, single mothers realize that their "smart, savvy" ex has stolen their stimulus check from them. During the pandemic, the most obvious sin against the seventh commandment has been the number of fraudulent unemployment claims filed---sevenfold the number of authentic claims! Do we not realize that this is theft? We need a "come to Jesus" moment. Thou shalt not steal is not a suggestion. It's an honest-to-God commandment.

Which commandment am I struggling with this Lent?

OUTREACH - Your Stewardship (time, talent, treasure) In Action

STEWARDSHIP OF YOUR TITHE

Your Tithing continues to enable Spirit of Christ to be Stewards by supporting so many and varied ways we can bring the Gospel to our community and the world. The following organization has received grant money from Spirit of Christ.

Mount Saint Vincent msvhome.org 303-458-7220

-In the spirit of the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth, Mount Saint Vincent strengthens the abilities of families and children to emotionally and socially participate in the community, making life better for generations to come. Committed to providing compassionate care, we strive to produce positive life changing results. The grant will be used for clinical treatment for children who suffer from abuse, neglect, or emotional needs.

The Spring 40 Days for Life campaign runs Wednesday, February 17th through Sunday, March 28th. Come join us for this peaceful vigil of prayer across the street from Planned Parenthood. All CDC guidelines will be followed and there is plenty of space for social distancing. You may also sign up for private prayer in your home. Spirit of Christ has adopted Saturday, March 27th. Father Adam will be joining us to celebrate Mass at 11 AM. You may sign up at 40daysforlife.com/denver or for assistance contact socrespectlife@gmail.com and we'd be happy to help.

There are many great outreach opportunities. If you would like to see other ministries here at SOC, then look on our website under ministries or call Silvia in the office. <https://spiritofchrist.org/ministries.html>

Fair Trade, After decades of corporate promises to end child labor in cocoa, there has been very little progress. Some of the largest chocolate companies, including Nestle, Hershey and Godiva, have the worst record. AND exposure to toxic pesticides has increased. Despite chocolate being a $100 billion per year industry, cocoa farmers make less than $1 per day. Fair Trade chocolate guarantees that no child labor was used in the growing and harvesting, and addresses the problems of cocoa farmer poverty, pesticide use and deforestation. You can order Fair Trade chocolate and many other items up until midnight on March 15th for pick up on March 27th. Special note to those parishioners making sack lunches for the homeless shelters, a couple of mini chocolates in the lunch can brighten someone's day and support Fair Trade farmers at the same time.

COMMUNITY Table

The "Table" serves northern Jefferson County. Beyond food, we offer programs to stabilize lives and provide a hand up. Please continue to support our efforts by dropping food off in the Gathering Space during office hours or before Mass.

Items Most Needed: Canned fruit (pears, apple sauce, pineapple, fruit cocktail), peanut butter, pinto beans, cold cereal, spaghetti and pasta, baking items (flour, sugar, cake mix), personal care items (soap, body wash, shampoo)

Thank you for all the donations that have continued to come in from SOC. Community Table is most appreciative.

Provide Hope for a single woman in need with a donated car The single women served by Hands of the Carpenter (Hands) have been hit hard by the COVID-19 pandemic. Many have lost jobs or had their pay/hours cut, while having to figure out how to care for their children. Safe transportation is one way we can help.

Hands accepts and utilizes car donations to support single women striving to maintain employment, care for their families, and achieve self-sufficiency. Any car will be accepted although ones 5-10 year-old are most preferred. For more information regarding this tax-deductible donation opportunity (Federal and Colorado Enterprise Zone) go to www.ehands.org and click on the Donate a Vehicle button. Hands welcomes all who wish to offer support or need assistance. For more information contact Daniel Mondragon at daniel.mondragon@ehands.org.
