A HEARTFELT THANK YOU FROM US ALL (AND A WELCOME)

Sadly, I have to announce the departure of our Music Director, Myles Ogea. His decision to leave is a private matter. Please keep Myles and his family in your prayers. We have been blessed these past four years with his rare talent for music in many forms and manners. He has enhanced our liturgy with prayerful song, and been an excellent leader for our Music program. I speak for us all in thanking him for blessing our lives with one of God's greatest gifts, the gift of music. I would also like to announce to you our new Music Director. Ron Marinelli has served in this capacity in several parishes in our Archdiocese, and he has assisted at a liturgy or two at Spirit of Christ over the years. His experience and expertise with regard to music and liturgy will assist us all in true worship and prayer at the Eucharist. Please welcome Ron as he settles into his new responsibilities.

THIS COULD BE YOU

As we enter into a new parish "catechetical" year, we are endeavoring this year to grow in knowledge and love of the saints. This will truly be a year to engage and be engaged by the "cloud of witnesses" who are the women and men of faith who surround us. There will be a variety of opportunities this year to learn from their lives and grow closer to them in prayer. Each week, there will be a "Saint of the Week". There will be a short video on our website with various members of our parish staff introducing us to these saints. A prayer will be provided as well to allow you and your family to pray along at home with the saints. A new saint will be noted each Sunday, and continue for the following week. Keep your eye on the bulletin, in the special section entitled "This Could be You", and the parish website for the weekly video. Our library will also have materials available to check out about these saints. As Pope John Paul II said, "When you are looking to build your faith, look to the saints!".

This could be
YOU!

May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives. (Ps 128)

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time—Oct. 3

First: Genesis 2: 18-24
Psalm: Psalms 128: 1-2, 3, 4-5, 6
Second: Hebrews 2: 9-11

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time—Oct. 10

First Reading: Wisdom 7: 7-11

Second Reading: Hebrews 4: 12-13
Gospel: Mark 10: 17-30

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

My friend Eileen Love died recently. I hoped to write about her sometime in the next three years, when an appropriate scripture text revealed itself, but it happened already, just a month after her death, with today's scriptures about marriage. I'm glad. I've been wanting to remember her to you.

Eileen and Mike loved each other, and for that reason they left their fathers and mothers, and, clinging to each other, left Long Island for upstart, 1970s Denver. They brought four kind, smart Love sons into the world there. Things got even better when these sons married their warm and brilliant wives. But, of course, Eileen's Love Life went into its highest gear when the adorable, enchanting grandkids started coming (the seventh of whom will no doubt have been born by the time you read this).

Her funny, heartbroken siblings spoke at her services, their New York accents bringing the Irish ancestors right into room. Eileen had a deeply intuitive connection with these ancestors, the great-grandparents who taught their children the faith, which was then passed to their children's children. Before she ever knew she was sick, she published her stunning memoir, In the Shadow of the Cedar, about her mother's family.

Like olive plants around the table, she could imagine all the children of all the people in her family, going back several generations.

I commend her to you now as we consider these readings. Whether married, single, or a vowed Religious, we all had a mother and a father. Pray for them today. And pray for whom-ever it was who brought you to the faith. And may the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

How can we honor all our families who came before us?
