NUMBERS IN THE BIBLE

It does not take a Masters Degree in Biblical Studies to see that "numbers" loom very big in the Bible. The sacred writers clearly utilized numbers to convey deeper truths and give us intriguing images to help us better understand the grandeur of the Biblical message. We know as Catholics that the Bible is not looked at solely on a literary level, but metaphorically as well. These numbers were definitely used by the writers for a purpose. They also did not intend them literally.

One excellent example is the number "40". It is used often in the Bible to convey a journey or a trying ordeal. We have 40 days of rain with Noah, 40 days of temptation by Jesus in the desert, 40 days of the Israelites wandering in the desert, and 40 days that the prophet Jonah prophesied in Nineveh. The number 40 conveys not just trial, but also consecration. The ordeal or trial also blesses the one who undergoes it. The number "12" also has great meaning. It connotes perfect government, and is considered the number of the Church. Israel was founded as a nation from the 12 sons of Jacob (the 12 tribes of Israel), there were 12 apostles as spiritual successors to the 12 tribes. The New Jerusalem in the Book of Revelation also has 12 gates, and Jesus was 12 years old when he was found in the temple teaching the scribes.

"7" is the number conveying spiritual perfection, fullness and completion. It is the number of the Covenant and the Holy Spirit. God rested on the 7th day. There are 7 gifts of the Holy Spirit. And, throughout the Book of Revelation, which is God's eternal victory, 7 is utilized an amazing 55 times: from the 7 churches, 7 lampstands, 7 seals, 7 horns, 7 golden bowls, 7 plagues, etc! Clearly St. John's vision in Revelation is allowing us the knowledge that God's victory is complete. Another perfect number is "3". 3 indicates something of importance in God's plan of salvation. There are, of course, 3 persons in the Trinity, 3 Magi, 3 angels appearing to Abraham, 3 Patriarchs, 3 sons of Noah from whom humanity descended, and the fact that Jesus lay in the tomb for 3 days.

Some you may wish to look up for yourselves include: "2"-the number of division and difference, "6"-an imperfect number because it falls one short of "7" (think the number of the beast in Revelation being 6-6-6, "10"-another perfect number depicting divine order, and "11"-another imperfect number connoting disorganization. A good example of the non-literal interpretation is the number 144,000. This number is used in the Book of Revelation to refer to those heavenly souls marked with the "seal of the living God". From ancient times, scholars have interpreted this number as reflecting the symbolic perfection of redeemed man--12 times 12 to the cube of 10. All of these numbers are fun to explore, and can be very insightful in helping understand a Biblical passage. Now, do not get me started on the catch of 153 fish in the Gospel of John!

We have LBC classes for preschoolers at the Saturday 5 pm Mass, Sunday 8:30, 10:30, and 12:15 Masses. Please take your preschool downstairs to room 102 starting 15 minutes before Mass. Exception-Saturday 5pm preschool class is dismissed with the K-3 children at Mass.

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

The wonderful daily devotional Words of Grace offers a really great insight into loving our neighbor “as” ourselves. Cynthia Bourgeault writes in today’s entry that it’s not that we love others as much as we love ourselves, but that there is so much in the other person that IS ourselves, too. The “other” is really part of us too. We love our neighbor “as ourselves” because we are all connected, and making that connection is what makes being human so challenging, and so rich.

Think of your favorite books. What is it about them that touches you? We treasure our books, carrying them around with us from move to move, from childhood to the nursing home. I think it’s the friends we met there, both protagonists and antagonists, who strike a chord with our own, perhaps unconscious, connection with our deepest selves.

It gets complicated, of course, when the “neighbor” is someone abhorrent to us. How can we see any connection between ourselves and the mass murderer, the pedophile, the conniving co-worker, or even the porch pirate caught on our doorbell camera grabbing packages minutes after they arrive?

I don’t know. I’ve heard respected theologians teach that “there but for the grace of God” go any of us. Jesus, as always, understood it best when, from the cross, he asked his Father to forgive his murderers because they didn’t know what they were doing.

There have been countless times when others loved us, even when we didn’t know what we were doing. Remember them now. Pray for them now. They loved us “as” themselves, as “part of” themselves. Oh, what a gift to be part of the human family.

Who am I presently working on loving “as myself”?

OUTREACH - Your Stewardship (time, talent, treasure) In Action

STEWARDSHIP OF YOUR TITHE

Your Tithing continues to enable Spirit of Christ to be Stewards by supporting so many and varied ways we can bring the Gospel to our community and the world. The following organizations have received grant money from Spirit of Christ:

Hope House of Colorado

hopehouseofcolorado.org 303-429-1012

-Hope House of Colorado empowers parenting teen moms to strive for personal and economic self-sufficiency and to understand their significance in God's sight, resulting in a healthy future for them and for their children. Funds will be used to continue expanding self-sufficiency programs for at-risk teen moms- specifically for GED and College & Career support, Parenting and Healthy Relationships programs, and faith-based initiatives to help teen moms realize that God loves them and has a plan for them. Our goal in 2021 is to serve 250 teen moms and their children.

Help with Homeless Ministry - Information Meeting Nov. 7 at 5 pm. You are invited to learn about joining us in feeding the homeless this winter during severe weather events. Volunteers from Spirit of Christ, St. Joan of Arc, and Cornerstone Church of God will provide the evening meal for 65 homeless guests who are sheltering in three local motels on severe weather nights. In partnership with Severe Weather Shelter Network, we are responsible for 10 weeks from October through April. We need many groups and individuals to help with this.

Please come to the information meeting at Cornerstone Church of God, Sunday, November 7, at 5 pm.

Come in the front door on the corner of 57th and Yarrow and go downstairs to the right. They have a full kitchen available, but most volunteers find it easier to prepare food at home. We can talk about all the details and answer your questions. For more information, please contact Diane Hildebrand, 360-903-2891 (leave a message), hildebranddiane@yahoo.com.

Fair Trade means the people who produced the product you are buying have been paid a livable wage. It means they are not exploited in the process of production or any other way.

Fair Trade products will be available for sale after the 5:00 Mass on November 27th, and after the Sunday Masses on November 28th, (except the 5:00 Mass.) If you wish to pay by credit card or have your order ready for pick up, please order online by Thursday, November 11th. Thank you for your support.
