PROFILE OF A SAINT

Imagine a young man in his early teens, a typical teenager. He enjoys Pokemon, playing video games on his PlayStation, making videos, and playing soccer. Sounds sort of typical of many of our fine young Catholic boys (and girls). But, I also need to add: his devotion to the Eucharist was paramount in his life. Many of you know I am describing a young Italian named Carlo Acutis. Carlo was born May 3, 1991 in London. Shortly after his birth, his family returned to their home area near Milan in northern Italy. Carlo grew up in what many would consider a normal family. His parents worked, he went to school, and they lived in the modern world.

At the time of the reception of his first Communion in 1998, his intense devotion to the Eucharist began to be shown. His mother remembers that when he was little, he could not pass a church without stopping in to greet Jesus in the tabernacle. At the time, his parents were not regular church-goers, but Carlo's practice changed their practice. Carlo lived a very normal life, with the Eucharist as the center. He limited his video game time to one hour a week so that games would not distract his mind to worry solely about temporal things. In the early 2000's, the Internet was becoming more popular. At a young age, Carlo mastered the skills of technology surrounding the Internet. He saw the potential of the worldwide web for bringing good to society. He even served the Vatican's Pontifical Academy of the Martyrs in setting up their website. He then built his own website investigating Eucharistic miracles. This came from his personal and intense devotion to the Eucharist. Carlo realized that (in these miracles) we are walking with Christ, but we are also walking each other home (his words).

In October of 2006, Carlo fell ill at the age of 15. He was eventually diagnosed with acute leukemia. He offered his subsequent sufferings for the Church. He quoted St. Therese of Lisieux, "It's true, I suffer a great deal-but do I suffer well?" In his truly original character, he suffered well. He was proud of being himself, the one whom God created, devoted to Him. One quote of his is, "All people are born as originals, but many people die as photocopies". On his death-bed, he told his mother, "I am happy to die because I have lived my life without wasting a minute on those things which do not please God."

Carlo died on October 12, 2006 (age 15). As his story was told and became known, devotion to him spread. In 2009, an oratory was established to him in St. Mary Major Basilica, where his body now rests. He was declared Venerable in 2018, and he was beatified by Pope Francis on October 10, 2020. He was a member of the millennial generation, and could be the first saint from that generation to be canonized. He has come to be referred to as the "Patron Saint of the Internet". His feast day is celebrated on Oct. 12 in Milan and Assisi. You can access his work on CarloAcutis.com, the official website dedicated to his canonization. Saints come in all shapes, sizes, and ages!

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

It's only in Luke's gospel that Jesus lifts his heart up to the Lord In the Garden, and is in such agony that that his sweat became like drops of blood falling on the ground (22:44).

I notice that Jesus keeps going back to his sleeping friends, begging them to pray that they would not be put to the test.

I never thought of it before this year, but I think the reason they could sleep while their Rabbi was in agony was that they didn't realize what was soon going to happen. They may have had some intuition about something happening at Passover, but even as late as this event they still didn't realize what his "kingdom" meant. They were waiting for him to bring the kingdom of God, which, in spite of all the ways he tried to dissuade them, they still thought meant finally calling down fire from heaven and bringing the Romans to their knees.

He knew, of course, that it was not for this that he came into the world. Earthly kingdoms come and go. He was establishing the kingdom in our hearts, and thus in all history. But our dear Jesus begged God that the cup of suffering would pass over him. He was so terrified--and who wouldn't be?--that his sweat became blood. Oh, Jesus, we weep with you.

The Ukrainians are in the hearts of all of us on this Palm/Passion Sunday. We've wept with them as we watched them saying goodbye at train stations. We've prayed fervently, begging God to take the cup of war away from them.

How will it all end? We lift our hearts up to the Lord

At what times in your life have you begged God to take the cup away from you?

OUTREACH - Your Stewardship (time, talent, treasure) In Action

STEWARDSHIP OF YOUR TITHE

Your Tithing continues to enable Spirit of Christ to be Stewards by supporting so many and varied ways we can bring the Gospel to our community and the world. The following organization has received grant money from Spirit of Christ:

The Gathering Place tgpdenver.org 303-321-4198

The Gathering Place is a community of safety and hope where positive relationships, choice, and essential resources transform lives. With the grant funds, The Gathering Place will ensure our members will still have a safe, clean place to go for a warm meal and access to food pantries to gather nutritious food for themselves and their families. The Spirit of Christ Catholic Community's support will not only ensure that the food program can continue, but that members are in turn able to pursue opportunities to advance their education, improve their job readiness, and remain stably housed through the pandemic.

Fair Trade, aka Alternative Trade, thrives on a respectful and fair relationship between Producer Partners, Alternative Traders and Citizen Consumers. The natural almonds we sell come from a small family orchard in California. The Burroughs family wanted to certify their almonds as organic, but this was difficult due to high cost of certification and instability of market pricing. Equal Exchange supported their transition by buying their almonds at above market price, even before they could be sold as organic. Now, the farm is fully certified organic. One thing they did was to refurbish old cotton wagons into mobile chicken coops. They can relocate the coops around the orchard where the chickens can graze on grasses and fertilize the trees. We will be selling Fair Trade products on April 23/24. You are important to the Alternative Trade model!!! To pay by credit card or order ahead of time, please have your online order in by midnight, April 11.

The Migrant workers are arriving for the growing season and SOC Migrant Ministry is again sponsoring a drive to assist them and their families. We are grateful for these dedicated workers who provide fresh fruit, vegetables and other items for our tables, at tremendous personal sacrifice.

We are asking you to please bring NEW or CLEAN, VERY GENTLY USED items from the following:

- Long sleeve shirts
- Hoodie sweatshirts
- Bandanas
- White cotton socks
- Work gloves
- Flip flops or Crocs
- Baseball caps or straw hats

Parishioners may leave their donations in the designated bins located in the gathering space before or after all the Masses the weekends of April 23/24, and April 30/May 1, as well as anytime throughout those two weeks. Your generous help with this drive is very much appreciated. Thank you!

COMMUNITY Table

The "Table" serves northern Jefferson County. Beyond food, we offer programs to stabilize lives and provide a hand up. Please continue to support our efforts by dropping food off in the box in the Gathering Space during office hours or before Mass.

Our Stewardship Statement

We, the family of Spirit of Christ Catholic Community, believe stewardship is our grateful and obedient response to God's redeeming love. We recognize that all creation is placed in our trust by God. We acknowledge that our ability to respond faithfully to God's love is empowered by the Holy Spirit. Stewardship requires responsible return to God from our resources of time, talent and treasure. We further acknowledge that we are called to live out this response individually and in community.

We, the Funding Committee of Outreach, through prayerful discernment, believe our responsibility and accountability for the distribution of the parish tithe is based on furthering Catholic values and empowering people to meet their most basic needs. Our charitable giving is focused on providing direct support to promote, nurture and sustain the spiritual, physical, mental, emotional well-being of the people. Percentage distribution of the parish tithe is 15% of the Parish Offertory.

We rely on the gifts of the offertory to fund the programs for our parish family.

Any fees charged by our ministries for programs or tickets sold for parish sponsored events are to cover the cost of the program materials or the cost of the event only, with no profit margin. What we do with the 15% from your tithe:

- provide emergency financial support to our parishioners in need
- Allocate and distribute funds to the Second Collections
- Fund our Outreach ministries (see back page)
- Through the grant process and vetting, give funds to sustainable non-profit organizations.
