The Most Holy Trinity | June 12, 2022

pastor's note

The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity is our entrance from the Easter Season to the major part of our yearly liturgical experience. This present season will take us to Sunday, November 27, when we will begin the season of Advent. And it begins with what has always been called a mystery of our faith. How one God can in fact consist of three distinct persons is in no way a simple truth. It nonetheless is good for us to reflect upon for several reasons.

The one that I would ask you to spend time with this week has to do with two factors. The first is the understanding that we are all made in the image and likeness of God. That signifies that our very nature is in no small way a reflection of the God who created us. And if that God is a God in constant relationship—the Father with the Son, the Son with the Father—and both with the Holy Spirit, then it bears reason that we are all meant to live our lives in constant, perpetual, loving and live-giving relational experience. Us with our God and with one another. And our relationships with one another should be a loving, selfless and intense expression of our love for God.

This explains why we are called to be mindful of those who fill our lives. We are to witness our awareness of God in our lives to them. And we are to look for the face of God in them as best we can. Thus we go to confession with such sins as unforgiveness, gossiping about and to others, not praying for family and friends and so forth. These actions are not worthy of the image of a God who loves us infinitely.

Next weekend we will celebrate the yearly Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. The Lord's gift to us of being present in the Blessed Sacrament and giving us the ability to receive Him, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity, when we come to Communion. As we have in past years, besides the celebrations at the Sunday Masses, there will be a special Corpus Christi procession with the Blessed Sacrament following the Sunday evening Mass. We will process around the parish grounds, stopping to pray and bless the overview of the metro area, the school, our youth center and the parish as a whole. The event will culminate with an ice cream social on the patio outside the Padre. Plan now to come and join in the festive prayerful experience and invite family and friends too.

Next weekend will also be my final weekend as your pastor celebrating at the parish Masses. I will say more about my gratitude and appreciation to God for bringing me into the midst of this wonderful parish family in the coming bulletins. But I know that the emotion and experience of the moment may make my words and expression less than adequate in many ways next Sunday. So I want to say now, thank you to one and all for your faith that you have lived and shown to me over these years. Thanks for your prayers and support for me and all the priests and deacons as we have endeavored to serve you. And thanks be to God for giving us the grace to share our faith journey over the course of these last eight years. I am truly blessed by that grace.

As I and other priests prepare for a change in our setting and assignment in the coming weeks, I would encourage you to keep the priests in your prayers. I have said many times over the years, we priests pray for you daily. At the same time we count on your prayers for us to be good shepherds, faithful witnesses and wise and holy leaders within our faith communities. Be sure you are praying now for Fr. Randy Dollins and Fr. Chris Marbury who will be coming into this faith family in just a couple weeks. May the blessings of Almighty God fill them and enable them to carry out the call they receive in your midst.

— Msgr. Tom

a reflection on today's readings

Grow as a Disciple

St. Paul gives us four words to live by, “Hope does not disappoint.” Today, as we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded of the source of our hope—God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit—described by Pope Francis as “a communion of love.” As St. Paul writes, “the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.” This doesn’t mean our lives won’t be without difficulties, but St. Paul is assuring us that we do not face them alone. As Jesus tells the disciples in today’s Gospel, “when He comes, the Spirit of truth, He will guide you to all truth.” As we move into our week and whatever the near future holds, we can rest assured the Holy Spirit will guide us and strengthen us.

Go Evangelize

It’s graduation season! When my oldest son received his college diploma last weekend, I felt overwhelmed with gratitude and excitement for what lies ahead for him. As is the case for many students, his path to a degree was not straight (nor was it paved with straight A’s). Yet here he was, receiving his degree and planning to start a job in a field he loves just two days later. The worries I felt during his high school and early college days dissipated, replaced with a sense of gratitude and hope. This experience and others like it remind me to bring my worries and concerns to prayer, knowing that Jesus walks beside me and those I love. We can witness to our faith by offering to pray for others facing uncertainties and challenges, and by sharing how we have experienced “peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.”

Pray

Pray the Sign of the Cross, reflecting on the love of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. How have we experienced that love and how can we share it?
