FROM FR. DANIEL

Dear friends,

Today's Word is about the Word. A Word that is not simply a good word of teaching, edification, or motivation. It is a Word that, when solemnly proclaimed at Church as Ezra and Jesus did, becomes an event, and is fulfilled in our hearing. A Word that is penetrating and alive. A Word that is a Person.

Often, we may feel great fascination for those extraordinary and rare experiences of saints who hear a voice telling them what to do, or revealing mystical secrets. While that admiration is good, we cannot forget that we also hear his voice, every time his Word is proclaimed at Mass. It is different in form than the voices heard by mystics or what the first disciples heard. But it is not different in substance: the Lord speaks his Word, He speaks Himself to us, fulfilling what He proclaims to us each time. We are blessed indeed.

May we always rejoice for the gift of the Word.

With my prayers,

Fr. Daniel
