All registered households yet to make a financial gift to Living and Giving in Christ annual diocesan appeal have been sent a letter and envelope.

Please join me in making a sacrificial, proportionate, and planned gift for the good work of our diocese. Our parish goal is $128,218. As of September 1st we have a deficit of $21,756. Thank you to the 230 households, 25% of registered households, who have made a financial commitment. Imagine if 100% of households made a sacrificial, proportionate, and planned gift!

Caring Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: Do you like to visit with other people? Have you received the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and Eucharist and if married, in a marriage recognized by the Church? Would you consider being a Caring Minister who visits the sick and homebound in our parish? A background check, safe environment, and training will be provided. For more information contact Sister Therese at 406-850-3648 or Maria in the Parish Office.

Veterans: Are you a veteran struggling with the recent events in Afghanistan? Please reach out to someone in the parish whom you trust for assistance. The Veterans Administration has a 24-hour crisis line: 1-800-273-8255, press 1. We are grateful for your service; we value you as a member of our community; and we pray for your healing. You are not alone!

Marriage Preparation and Accompaniment: The Church believes strongly in the Sacrament of Marriage and desires to assist couples in their preparation so they may live well this remarkable gift of God's saving grace. Those of you living the Sacrament of Marriage know there are challenges, difficulties, roadblocks, and hurdles prior to celebrating the Sacrament and most certainly after the wedding. As part of Vision 2030, the diocese desires to prepare couples well for this extraordinary gift. As Church, we also need to accompany couples in those early years of marriage, assist struggling couples, and invite those in civil marriages to seek convalidation.

September 14-16 clergy and lay leaders will gather via Zoom for ongoing formation in this critical area of life. We need married couples to join me and Fr. Linh for this important gathering. As married couples you have much to offer couples preparing for marriage. Is God calling you to this important ministry of accompaniment? Remember, we receive much more than we give! Please call Fr. Carl for more details.

Memorial Service for Aborted Children at Olivet Cemetery: On Saturday, September 18th, pro-life Americans throughout the country will gather at the gravesites of aborted babies and other memorial sites dedicated in their honor for the ninth annual National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children. Solemn vigils will be held at these sites to commemorate the more than 60 million children who have lost their lives to legal abortion since 1973, and to remind our society of the humanity of the unborn child. Please join us for the memorial service in our community:

National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children Saturday, September 18, 2021 at 10:00 am, Olivet Cemetery at the memorial by the columbarium. For more information contact Tom Jacobson at tlj@bestprop.com or 307-701-1111.

Together let us remember the victims of abortion and pray for a final end to this injustice in our land during the National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children.

Thoughts of the Pastor...

If someone asked you to describe your spouse, best friend, or sibling, how would you respond? Would you begin by telling the questioner their age, physical characteristics, employment, etc.? These descriptors will say something of your knowledge of the person. But, do they really describe who this person is that you care for and love? More than likely the questioner, if genuinely interested, wants to know more significant information such as, their personality, their interests, where do they find joy, what gives them life, what are they passionate about.

Each person in our lives will forever be a mystery, even our spouse of forty or fifty years. There will certainly be characteristics, habits, and attributes that will remain more or less constant in their life. But, to say, "I have him or her figured out," is not only a mistake, but a disregard for the complexity and mystery of each human person.

Today's Gospel has an important identity question proposed by Jesus. He has been with his disciples for some time now. They have heard his teaching, witnessed his miracles, eaten meals, walked dusty roads, shared laughter and tears. But do they know him? "Who do you say that I am?," is one of the most penetrating questions asked by Jesus. In the eighth chapter of Mark, Jesus asks Peter this most important and personal question. Peter's response is instructive, "You are the Christ." Christ is a title meaning anointed one. Jesus was truly sent by God for a particular mission and Peter understands, at least to a point.

Peter, although answering correctly, is quickly rebuked by Jesus. Peter fails to appreciate the particular salvific act of Jesus' death as part of Jesus' mission. It would take more time for Peter to appreciate the depth of Jesus' identity. That is true for us as well. Time spent with Jesus Christ in private and public prayer gives us the necessary time to grow in our gratitude and appreciation for and curiosity and understanding of who Jesus is for us, individually and collectively.

To know facts regarding the historical Jesus or even dogmas regarding him are important. But this intellectual knowledge does not make us a disciple. An atheist can know the same facts. A disciple has an intimate, ongoing, life-forming, and dynamic relationship with Jesus, the Christ. So, as Peter was asked, so are we, "Who do you say that I am?"

Fr. Carl

Everyday Stewardship

Can You Walk the Walk? I've met and talked with enough people to feel confident that if you polled 100 fallen-away Catholics about why they didn't want anything to do with the Church, the term "accountability" would pop up in almost all of their answers.

And to be fair, a lack of accountability isn't just a Catholic problem. Talking the talk but not walking the walk has been a shortcoming handed down throughout the ages, across all creeds and nationalities.

Loving our neighbor, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, feeding the poor - it all sounds fantastic, especially when we're the ones saying it. But the doing - well, that's a different story, isn't it? We would do well to remember that Christ calls one of his best friends "Satan" when Peter tries to convince Jesus to stray from his destiny.

Have you ever been called Satan by one of your good buddies? I'll bet it's not a great feeling. But think about what Peter was doing. He had just said, "You are the Christ." And now, mere moments later, he's saying: "Don't say these things. Don't say you're going to suffer. Don't say you'll be killed."

He was telling Christ to squander what the Lord had given him. He was telling him that having faith was fine, but being faithful? It's just a little too hard. God has a destiny for you, too, and He's asking you to be open to it. Maybe it's not in your comfort zone. Maybe you don't think you can do it.

Lord, give us faith — but help us, also, to do the work.
