Caring Ministry to the Sick and Homebound: Do you like to visit with other people? Have you received the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and Eucharist and if married, in a marriage recognized by the Church? Would you consider being a Caring Minister who visits the sick and homebound in our parish? A background check, safe environment, and training will be provided. For more information contact S. Therese 406-850-3648 or Maria in the office.

Have you noticed someone missing from Sunday Mass or know of someone homebound?

Please invite those you have not seen at Mass to come back. If you know of someone who is unable to come to Mass and is homebound, please call the Parish Office with their name, address, and contact number.

Marriage Accompaniment: Those who live the Sacrament of Marriage are living a vocation of service. Your witness to God's love is a sign to your family, church, and society that God is faithful, dependable, ever present, kind, generous, and forgiving. Are you willing to share your experience, strength, and hope with couples preparing to enter the Sacrament of Marriage? Mentoring is another way your vocation can be lived in service to others. Call Fr. Carl for more information.

SPAM WARNING: Fr. Carl, Fr. Linh and parish staff will never text or email a parishioner to purchase anything for them. Please do not respond to any such solicitations.

Lost & Found: We have a Lost & Found Basket in the vestibule on the white tables. If you have found an item at the Church please put it in the basket or give it to the ushers. If you are missing something, please check the basket!

The Annual Financial Report for 2020-2021 is available at the back of church or at the parish office.

Synod 2021 - 2023: Our parish will come together soon to pray together and talk about "how well we are walking together as Church." This week, pray with Acts 2:42-47 and examine how responsibility and power are lived in the Church, as well as the structures by which they are managed. Consider any distorted practices that are not rooted in the Gospel. Remember to record your thoughts in a journal.

St. Mary's Catholic School News

Office Hours: Monday - Friday, 7:45 am to 3:15 pm. If you have any questions, please call 307-638-9268.

We at St. Mary's Catholic School are committed to offering a quality Catholic school education rooted in our Catholic faith with a rigorous academic program. With that goal in mind, we are engaging Meitler, a national Catholic school planning firm, to assist us in conducting a growth and sustainability study. Meitler has 50 years of national experience in research and planning of this nature, specifically with Catholic schools.

As part of our study, we are conducting market research survey. The purpose of the survey is to conduct market research to clearly understand the perceptions of parents of young children and parishioners in our local Catholic community. Your individual responses will be confidential. Please respond to the survey even if you do not have children, plan to enroll, or not enroll your children at our school.

The Survey is available for you to complete beginning Monday, November 29th. Thank you in advance for your cooperation and assistance. We look forward to hearing from you!

After more than 17 years caring for the church and rectory here at Holy Trinity, Donna Ellis is retiring! Whether she was mopping a bathroom, preparing a meal or tending to our retired priests, she has been a caring presence with a smile for those she encountered. Thank you Donna for your grace and long years of service! Her helper in recent years, Rose Murtha, is also stepping down. Thank you to Rose for all the hours you volunteered helping Donna at the church. Both of you have been a blessing here.

Veterans: Are you a veteran struggling with the recent events in Afghanistan? Please reach out to someone in the parish whom you trust for assistance. The Veterans Administration has a 24-hour crisis line: 1-800-273-8255, press 1. We are grateful for your service; we value you as a member of our community; and we pray for your healing. You are not alone!

WARNING: Please check to make sure there is a glass votive candle holder available before you purchase a candle. DO NOT PLACE LIT CANDLES IN BETWEEN CANDLE HOLDERS! This creates a fire hazard.

Mother Cabrini Hall is available to rent with a limit of 50 people. Contact Linda Robbins at 307-638-9580.

Thoughts of the Pastor...

The gospel proclaims that in Jesus the reigning presence of God comes among us in the flesh. Rather than Jesus being put on trial by Pilate, it is the Roman governor who is put on trial by the eloquent Word who stands before him bound as a prisoner. "Are you the King of the Jews?" asks Pilate, understanding kingship as political, with possibly religious implications, and therefore wary of any claim that could be a challenge to absolute Roman authority. Jesus replies with a question that seeks to confront Pilate with his own personal commitment as opposed to what "others" tell him about Jesus. The issue is no longer Jesus's guilt or innocence, but whether Pilate will respond to the truth of Jesus's kingship. Three times Jesus speaks of what his kingdom is not. It is not of this world in the sense that it neither takes its origin from here, nor is it an earthly kingdom that would be a rival to Caesar and Roman imperialism. But it does belong in this world and its followers do have a role to play in human affairs of justice. Like Jesus, his followers are not power brokers or mercenaries defending their own "kingdoms" of political or religious power; violence, exploitation, and opportunism have no part in the following of Jesus.

"Then you are a king?" pushes Pilate, and Jesus responds to what Pilate has called him by speaking of what his power really is: the power of the truth John proclaimed in the Prologue: "And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth." The life, death, and resurrection of Jesus testify to this truth, and all who listen to Jesus and commit themselves to his wisdom will belong to the truth and to his kingdom. Pilate can make no sense of this. His world is more concerned with illusions of grandeur than with truth.

On this day we all stand not before Pilate but with him, to be interrogated by Christ the King. What power do we seek and how would we like to get it? Do we excuse ourselves of manipulating and exploiting others for the sake of safeguarding our own status or progress? How often do we strike out with a violent word or cutting silence? In Dante's Inferno the icy heart of hell was kept for those who undermined the human community of truth: the liars, the fraudulent, the flatterers, the forgers, and worst of all the traitors. Do we belong to the community of truth that listens to and follows Jesus, proclaiming him as King, not only of the universe, but of our lives as well?

Fr. Carl

Everyday Stewardship

Long Live the King: Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself "Laird So-and-so." Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee.

My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their "king," but most of us have those we think of as "our people."

Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition.

We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends.

There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.
