HTCCW invites everyone in the parish to a class based on Strength and Balance as we age.

Our instructor, Donna Padilla, is knowledgeable and delightful! The class is open to ladies and gentlemen in the parish and is held every 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month at 2:00 pm in Cabrini Hall and is 60 min or less.

The cost is based on the number of people who attend, in other words the more folks that attend the lower the cost. There is no contract involved and you can attend as much or as little as you would like. Please wear clothes and shoes you feel comfortable in and bring a water bottle. For further information or to sign up, email Della Garibay mdgaribay@aol.com or call Della at 307-631-6945.

Christmas Project:

You still have time to give! Holy Trinity is partnering with the Daughters of Charity to support the Tay Ninh Province in Vietnam. This project will equip children to break the cycle of poverty and illiteracy by enabling children from impoverished rural communities to attend school. If you would like to contribute, please make checks to "Holy Trinity" and put "Christmas Project" on the memo line. Envelopes labeled "Water Project" are also available in the vestibule. Drop donations in the collection basket or bring to the Parish Office by the end of January. All donations and 10% of the Christmas collection will go toward this project. Thank you!

Caring Ministry to the Sick and Homebound:

Do you like to visit with other people? Have you received the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and Eucharist and if married, in a marriage recognized by the Church? Would you consider being a Caring Minister who visits the sick and homebound in our parish? A background check, safe environment, and training will be provided. For more information contact S. Therese 406-850-3648 or Maria in the office.

Have you noticed someone missing from Mass or know of someone homebound?

Please invite those you have not seen at Mass to come back. If you know of someone who is unable to come to Mass and is homebound, please call the Parish Office with their name, address, and contact number.

Synod Listening Sessions: Please plan on attending one of the listening sessions listed below. The purpose of these Synod gathering sessions is to explore and answer this two-part question:

A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, "journeys together". How is this "journeying together" happening today in our local Church? What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our "journeying together"?

Thoughts of the Pastor...

Our second reading today from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians is commonly chosen for weddings, at least the first few verses, concluding with "Love never fails." It is understandable that a reading rich in the imagery of love would grab the attention of a couple preparing for marriage. The important question for the couple is why did they choose this particular reading and what does it mean to them.

In the romance stage of their relationship an engaged couple views their relationship through rose-colored glasses. The faults of the other are minimized and the positive qualities of their fiancée are exaggerated. They truly believe, and thankfully so, that their love for one another will conquer all challenges.

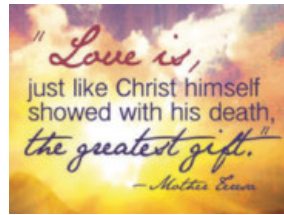

Part of a couple's success in navigating the challenges that inevitably come in life is their understanding of love. For many people in our culture today love is simply a feeling. If only a feeling, what happens to a marriage when one or both parties no longer feels love for the other? It must be an indication that the relationship is no longer alive. It is time to part ways and look for love somewhere else.

That is not what we believe as Catholic Christians. It is not what has been revealed to us in Jesus Christ. Yes, we can and do have feelings of love. They are wonderful to experience. But a feeling cannot be the basis for a marriage. So then, what is love if not just a feeling. Love is a decision.

Whether in marriage, family, or friendship, love is a choice. It is grounded in the self-revelation of God. We see it most clearly in the decision of Jesus Christ to be for humanity through suffering and death. This expresses fully God's love for us. We live this gift when we make choices to be for our spouse, family, and friends, sometimes in spite of how we feel. The decision to love carries us through the various feelings. The Paschal Mystery is lived within us through our day-to-day decisions to love even when it is difficult, painful, and yes, even when it calls for a certain death to self.

Turning our attention back to Paul's letter to the Corinthians, what if we substituted "I" for the word love? I am patient, I am kind. I am not jealous, I am not pompous, I am not inflated, I am not rude, I do not seek my own interests, I am not quick-tempered, I do not brood over injury, I do not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoice with the truth.... This certainly puts a finer point on the invitation to make the decision to love.

Feelings are fickle. They come and they go. The decision to love will lead to the cross. But, that death also leads to Resurrection! As Paul says, "Love never fails." May each of us know this enduring love and be quick to offer it to others. It is the way to heaven.

Everyday Stewardship

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media: "Love is patient, love is kind ..." As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you've probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn't just for newlyweds. It wasn't written for married folks. It's for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It's for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I'm forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn't there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it's never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that's an opportunity to "strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts."

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
