into the man's ears*

Dear Believers,

In Mark 7:31-37, we pray this day with the deaf man who was healed by Jesus. Jesus took him away from the crowd, put his fingers in the man's ears, spat, touched his tongue and looked to heaven and asked the Father to open his ears, his voice, and his soul.

Jesus declared, "Ephphatha!" which means, "Be opened!"

In Mark's gospel, Jesus tells the man not to tell anyone about the healing. This is a device in Mark's text to move the reader along to the end of the story. We still listen to him. We still long to have Jesus touch us and to open us to his healing presence, discovering the beauty and tenderness of his presence. In our emotional shutdowns, we long to be open.

Jesus' declaration, his prayer of "Be opened!" has echoed through the centuries. It lands in our ears, in our deafness. Jesus' touch of love is for us. In the sacraments of baptism, reconciliation, and Eucharist, Jesus continues to show us the way of being opened to the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Jesus desires to heal us no matter what, no matter our sins, our divisions, our heartaches, our past hurts, or hesitations, or even our resistance.

Be opened. This is in fact, a command of Jesus. It came from his very mouth. I know I need to listen to these two words that invite me into relationship with him. I feel this command in my body. I feel it as I walk on the earth and lift my soul to heaven. I feel it as I encounter people who are bowed down from fear, exclusion, ill health, and turmoil. I feel it as I listen to other people's pain and know that I can never fully understand the pain of another person. Yet, I am being called repeatedly to be open to the gift of the Holy Spirit and the surprise of how people journey through the sacrifices they make for family and community.

Be opened. This line is sacramental. It connects us to the freedom of our baptismal life in Christ. It connects us again to the beauty of the Eucharist, where we find eternal life in the center of our daily lives here on earth. As I ponder this simple line, it may very well be a summation of the Christian life. These two words lead us to the glory of Christ's presence in our encounter with him in our personal prayer and in our communities of faith reaching out to live the mission of the Church on earth. It is a call and a challenge. It demands a physicality of ears, souls, and hearts. It is also a mission and a way of being with other people.

Be opened. Most of all, these two words call us to be in Christ. We cannot live the Christian life without a relationship with Jesus Christ. No matter how hard we try, we cannot produce mercy, tenderness, and compassion without the source of love in our hearts. We will close. We will shutter our hearts. We will look down to the dusty earth only. We will judge others harshly. We will reiterate the name enemy. We will put people in boxes. We will live in exclusion and think others are out to get us. Shut down. Close. Limit. Condemn. These will be the outcomes when we do not take these two words to heart.

Be opened. Jesus' words to us also lead us to truth. We will speak clearly. We will speak the truth that God gives us. Our hearts, our ears, our mouths, our senses will become God's instruments on earth to liberate ourselves and one another. This is the power of God's grace in our lives. Again, we do not forgive or liberate our own lives. When we experience and know his touch, we are set free. All things are possible in Christ. Then, we will be able to hear the voice of Jesus, to sense his presence, to understand his life and ultimately to see his face even here on earth.

Be open. Be open. I want to hear. I want to speak clearly. This is a deep and passionate prayer. This may become the simplest of prayers for you and me this week. I hope you can feel this command in your soul. The Church needs us to hear, to speak, and to love.

They were exceedingly astonished, and they said, "He has done all things well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

God give you peace,
Fr. Ron Raab, CSC, Pastor

Prayer for Labor Day

Creator Lord, the source of all wisdom and purpose, and the blessing of those who labor; be with us in our work to guide and govern our world. Give to all people work that enhances human dignity and bonds us to one another. Give us pride in our work, a fair return for our labor, and joy in knowing that our work finds its source in you; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reflection

The four cardinal virtues of Classical philosophy were temperance, justice, prudence, and fortitude. Early Christian writers accepted these ideas from antiquity, but added the three Theological virtues of faith, hope, and love. Everybody could aspire to practice the cardinal virtues in their lives, but only Christians could obtain the last three, through the grace of God.

Later on, Christians began speaking of the seven capital virtues, and their opposing vices. The list changed a couple times over the years, but before too long, chastity, temperance, charity, diligence, patience, kindness, and humility became the seven capital virtues, and lust, gluttony, greed, sloth, envy, wrath, and pride became the corresponding capital sins.

In today's readings we can see a few of these virtues at work. St. James encourages us to treat the poor as we would treat the rich, making no distinctions between them. That involves kindness, justice, and charity. In Mark's gospel, people approach Jesus to ask for healing. That involves humility and diligence. Isaiah writes that the Lord tell us to be strong and fear not! God will save us! That involves fortitude and patience.

But all of these cardinal and capital virtues are, for us Christians, based on the theological virtues of faith, hope, and love. We treat all people as brothers and sisters in Christ because of our faith. Faith and hope allow us to approach Jesus to ask for what we need. Hope and love allow us to let go of our fears and to embrace the miracles that God can do in our lives.

Our Faith is in Christ, and Salvation is our Hope. Because our God is Love.

“Restore Our Heart” Capital Campaign Update

This week we will explain yet one more tax-advantaged approach for making a donation or multi-year pledge to the Capital Campaign for renovating the former rectory and repairing the parking lot. Making a charitable transfer of shares of stock or a mutual fund to Sacred Heart may especially appeal to those parishioners who have taxable income over $40,000 and have held appreciated investments for one year or longer in a taxable investment account.

Charitable Transfer of Stocks or Mutual Funds – What is it? How do I use it?

Transferring shares of stock or a mutual fund that have gained a lot in value is an attractive option for an individual or couple who wants to donate to “Restore Our Heart – Phase II” and would like to reduce the taxes that would usually be incurred when selling these shares.

Here is the process for making a charitable transfer.

- The donor sends an email notification to Jamie Crane at the diocese (jcrane@diocs.org) or uses the secure diocesan web site www.freewill.com/stocks/diocs indicating they would like to make a transfer. This contact should be made before making the transfer. Information about the name of the stock or fund and the number of shares should be included as well as notification that the donation is going to Sacred Heart for “Restore Our Heart – Phase II.”
- Once the diocese has been notified, the donor directs their financial institution to make the transfer to the diocese's account at Charles Schwab.
- The diocese processes the transfer, sells the shares and then moves the proceeds to Sacred Heart.

Contact Jamie Crane, Director of Development and Planned Giving, Diocese of Colorado Springs at 719-866-6518 if you need help with a transfer.

An example of using a stock transfer for a donation to Restore Our Heart – Phase II

Assume a parishioner bought 500 shares of XYZ Company stock for $5 a share in 2017. She decides to transfer all 500 shares to the Capital Campaign at Sacred Heart. Each XYZ share is now worth $20 per share. She notifies the diocese as outlined above and then instructs her financial institution (Fidelity, Vanguard, etc.) to make the transfer. The diocese receives the shares, sells them and gives the $10,000 in proceeds to Sacred Heart. Based on her income, the parishioner avoids a capital gains tax of 15% on the long term capital gain of $7,500 and is also able to deduct $10,000 as a charitable donation from her tax return if she itemizes deductions.

It's always wise to consult your tax advisor if you have questions.

You can also make a contribution to the project by giving on our online giving platform or on our Ministry One online giving app. Contributions can also be dropped in the collection basket at Mass (be sure to mark them for the Sacred Heart Capital Campaign) or mailed directly to the Sacred Heart Parish Office.

Email & Text Scams: Once again we want to caution all parishioners of fraudulent emails or texts they may receive that appear to be from Fr. Ron, Fr. Randy or the parish. We would never ask for money or gift cards in a text or an email. If you receive a suspicious email or text, call the parish office at 633-8711.

Coffee & Donuts has returned after the 7:30 & 9 am Masses at Sacred Heart Church! All are invited to join us for fellowship in the Parish Center after Mass.

We still need volunteers to help serve coffee and donuts after the 7:30 am Mass. This is a great way to meet people in the parish! To volunteer, email Grace Donnelly at communications@sacredheartcos.org.

OLPH Ramp Project & Wall Update: The ramp and landscaping are done, and all looks great! Insurance covered the rebuilding of the broken wall. And it's finished already! We used the same stonemasons that worked on the grotto and the ramp, and they had some time last week to repair the wall. Construction on the handicap accessible bathroom is moving along. They have begun working on the inside wall of the church to put in a new handicap accessible entrance from the church to the new deck.

We have not yet reached our goal of collecting the remaining $30,000 for this project. Please take advantage of the $45,000 matching grant that we received! Contributions can be dropped in the collection basket at any Mass. Be sure to designate the donation for the "OLPH building fund." You can also give online by designating your donation to the "OLPH Capital Improvements" in our online giving platform or on OLPH's GoFundMe Page <https://gf.me/u/yzsjcm>. Thank you for your support!

Parish Office Hours: The Parish Office is now open on Sunday mornings from 8 am– noon and Monday-Thursday, 8:30 am– 3 pm. The Parish Center is now open for parish groups to meet.

The Food Pantry is open Mondays and Thursdays, noon– 2 pm. The Food Pantry continues to offer only non-perishable food items. Food Pantry services are available to all. No voucher required.

Parish Life

Care for our earth

By: Fr. Ron Raab, CSC

I was raised on Garver Lake in Edwardsburg, Michigan. In 1960, my parents bought a cinderblock cottage on lakefront property. As a child, I thought it was the most beautiful place on earth. As the years went by, we remodeled the cottage into our family home. Garver Lake is 77 acres and 42 feet deep. I learned to notice how the summer storms would catch us off guard. We learned as we water skied that there was only 15 minutes to get back to shore and secure the boat for safety. Tornadoes were a summer staple. Although we learned how to care for the water, sewers dumped into the lake. I learned to watch the water lilies, the movement of the waves when a motorboat passed. I learned to see beauty. We learned how to protect its beauty in school and in real life. My parents taught me to care for things, for what we owned, and for what was God given. After all, the lake was home.

As members of our three-community parish, we come together from various backgrounds, and from various places on this planet we once called home. Home now is where we plant our roots, worship, educate our children, and find ways to make a living. Home is here. Home is the soil here under our feet.

As Sacred Heart celebrates its 100th Anniversary as a parish, it is time for us to explore our care for the earth, the place where we are born, planted, and now raising our next generation. We are being called to live our faith with a prophetic witness to God's care. We can no longer hide our intentions about the earth, about the realities of fires, floods, earthquakes, tornadoes, and unclean water. It is time to listen to Pope Francis and the Church to care for our homeland, the place upon which we have been born, the holy earth.

During these next few months, we will learn more about creating a Creation Care Team at our parish. We will take our cues from "Laudato Si," a document written by Pope Francis in 2015. Some members of the parish have been studying his words since. I want to get back to his call for us to see creation care as part of our spiritual journey.

Pope Francis says in paragraph #231: "Along with the importance of little everyday gestures, social love moves us to devise larger strategies to halt environmental degradation and to encourage a "culture of care" which permeates all of society. When we feel that God is calling us to intervene with others in these social dynamics, we should realize that this too is part of our spirituality, which is an exercise of charity and, as such, matures and sanctifies us."

Our children continue to educate adults. They have been taught about the care of the earth in so many ways. We have catching up to do. From our parish discussions about our future, I want to explore these issues of climate care in many ways. You will hear more from people in the parish about this important topic. I believe this is extremely important in our life as a parish and believers in Christ's redeeming love.

What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up? (#160)

Liturgical Minister Training

Liturgical ministry is an excellent opportunity to fulfill your baptismal call of service to one another. Our liturgies call us to share the talents and gifts God has given each of us. Whether participation is through "behind the scenes" preparation, or through a public role of serving within the Mass, parishioner contributions help our liturgies to be truly life-giving celebrations.

Registered parishioners are welcome to serve in these liturgical ministries: Sacristan, Hospitality, Altar Server (age 9 and older, children and adults), Proclaimer, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC – age 16 or older), Choir and Cantor. We need more Liturgical Ministers at Sacred Heart! Please pray and carefully consider joining one of the ministries.

Training is for new and current ministers (unless noted below) and will take place in Sacred Heart Church.

Tuesday, Oct. 5, 6:30 – 8pm, Hospitality Ministry— greeting, take up/organize offertory collection, bulletins, tidy the church after Mass.

Wednesday, Oct. 6, 6:30 – 8pm, Sacristan training— set up and clean up after Mass.

Tuesday, Oct. 12, 6:30 – 8pm, Altar server training— assist the presider during Mass.

Tuesday, Oct. 19, 6:30 – 8pm, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion- EMHC— assist with distribution of the Body of Christ during Mass. Training for new ministers only.

Tuesday, Oct. 26, 6:30 – 8pm, Proclaimer— proclaim the Old and New Testament scriptures/ lead Universal Prayer during Mass. Training for new ministers only.

Adult Altar Servers and possibly Choir Members (if there is a child in the choir) will be asked to complete a background check and Safe Environment Training, which is all done online with our new volunteer platform Virtus.

To volunteer, contact Sue at 719-633-8711 x102 or sgerlach@sacredheartcos.org.
