

The poor widow put in two small coins

*32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 7, 2021*

Sacred Heart Church
Our Lady of Perpetual Help
Holy Rosary Chapel

Dear Believers,

Mark 12:38-44 invites us to examine our pretentious behavior. So often we use religion as a way of thwarting power over people. We make the regulations of the Church difficult so we can justify our own place in authority. The Church, however, is meant for so much more. It is an instrument to allow us to know our need for God, to explore our deepest humanity, to witness to God's eternal presence right here among us.

The image that Mark's gospel uses is that of the treasury. We understand money is power. So, he uses this image of power to reveal the real power of God's presence in our lives. He uses the powerless widow as a juxtaposition to human power of pride and self-sufficiency. Her life of powerlessness is key to our unity with God. Her life as a widow becomes richness in this text. As a widow, she cannot own land. She is without all of society's benefits of marriage that would stabilize her life for her financial future.

The widow drops coins in the treasury. Her two coins teach us many things here. She realized her value comes from God. Two coins was a lot of money for her, in fact, it was all she had. Money was valuable to her, yet she knew of the value of her life in God. She gave from her need. The value of her giving was worth more than the value of what wealthy people offered.

We are to give more than money back to God. We are to give back all that God has given us. We are to acknowledge every gift, every talent, and every desire of our souls. We give back to God because God gives us life. God also gives us the promise of life for all eternity. Such a wonderful gift.

The gospel cautions us not to go around with pretentious actions, clothing, and places of honor. We cannot live in God and claim our earthly pride. Our lives of faith are meant to reveal a deep humility in all that we possess, in our hearts and in our actions. It is easier to know the rules and regulations of the Church than to be the humble witnesses that God desires of us, allowing us to be servants of the mystery we celebrate.

Faith is not meant to make us look good. It is not a place where we lift our pride and pretentious actions to show others we belong. Instead, we give to God from our deepest humility, from our incredible need for God's redeeming love and mercy. There needs to be a place for God to work within us. This place is the treasury of our hearts that always knows God's value and love. Our hearts become a vessel for our conversion, to know a deep and lasting place for God to work within us.

Our treasure lies within us. This is the place of encounter, of mystery. We belong in the treasury of God's willingness to be among the broken, the fragile and the marginalized. What a treasure indeed.

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

God give you peace,
Fr. Ron Raab, CSC, Pastor

Remembering Our Dead

November is the time of year that we remember and pray for our beloved dead. However, there are many ways that we as a parish remember our dead, not just in November, but throughout the whole year.

When a long-time parishioner dies, an email is sent to many of our Holy Cross priests who have served in our three communities here in Colorado since 1984. In response, our Holy Cross priests offer Masses and prayers for our deceased and their family members.

Sacred Heart Parish also offers an "Obituary Page" on our website. This page gives up to date information on the funerals of the deceased, photos and a video of a funeral if one was requested by the family. Visit www.sacredheartcos.org, click on the Parish Life tab at the top of the page, funerals, obituaries.

Our "Meals of Compassion Ministry" offers a meal upon request to the family and friends of the deceased after a funeral at our parish. We would like to resume this ministry, however we need volunteers who are willing to set up, serve and clean up after a meal. Funerals are on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 10 am. To volunteer, email Grace at communications@sacredheartcos.org.

Adult Faith Formation: Join us in Room 4 of the Parish Center from 10:15—11:15 am each Sunday for Adult Faith Formation. This Sunday Sacred Heart Parishioner Ken Krall is leading us on the topic of Cosmology, an exploration of faith and the universe! On Nov. 14, Fr. Randy will pick up our discussion of Scripture with the patriarchs (Genesis 12-50). All are welcome.

Any adult wishing to become Catholic or learn more about the Catholic faith is invited to participate in RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults), Tuesday evenings, 6:30-8 pm in Room 4 of the Parish Center.

Children's Faith Formation for grades K-6 is on Sundays, 10:10-11:25 am in the Parish Center.

Confirmation Classes (grades 7 & 8) and Youth Ministry is on Wednesdays, 6-7:30 pm in the Parish Center.

Westside CARES' Resource Room has a critical need for men's underwear, boxers or briefs, to give to our neighbors in need. Our parish is collecting men's underwear. Please drop off donations at the Parish Center Office or at Mass. New packaged underwear only please. Thank you for your support!

Holy Rosary News: We're over a quarter of the way there to our $38,000 goal for a new boiler, which will be installed this week. We continue to collect donations. Please make checks out to the Holy Rosary Building Fund.

OLPH News: Our next Community Meeting will be at 3:30 pm on Sunday, Nov. 21. We will have much to discuss, including our Christmas preparations.

The Art of Faith– Part 1

By: Fr. Ron Raab, CSC

In these past couple of weeks, I have donated nearly 200 original pieces of art for a fundraiser for the remodeling of the former rectory to be called, "Saint André House." During the event on the weekend of October 23/24, many people asked me what it was like to let go of the originals. Parishioners thanked me for being vulnerable enough to send my art into the world. They also wanted to know more about my art, the history of my art at Sacred Heart, and why I began painting.

When I arrived at the parish in 2013, Lisa Lundquist was offering art workshops for our Holy Cross novices. She asked me for space in the Parish Center because there was a large class of novices, and she was running out space in her home. I offered her space with one request, that I wanted to be part of the workshop as well.

Lisa was very sensitive to my desire to paint. She pondered how to start with me. Lisa knew that I carried a great amount of grief to my new assignment from Portland where I had served people in poverty. The transition into being a pastor in Colorado was not easy. Lisa decided to use that grief as a doorway into my creativity.

Lisa prepared two sheets of paper taped to a wall, dabbed some black paint on a Styrofoam plate, poured water into a cup, and washed out a brush. She brought me into the room and sat me down. She asked me to describe one of the people I missed from Portland. I described with words a woman who had been abused as a child, with curly hair, thick glasses, and who served as a janitor in a nursing home. I told her that she did not like herself, that the abuse had scarred her for life. Lisa took the brush, dipped it in water and paint and approached the white paper. In less than two minutes the woman appeared on the wall, with thick glasses, head downcast, holding a mop in her hand next to a bucket. I stared at the image and wept. Lisa had captured the woman perfectly in acrylic.

Lisa then asked me to describe a second person. I described a young man who lived in a tent in the woods in Portland. He, too, had been abused as a child, and could not keep a job. He had been received into the Church at an Easter Vigil. He always sat in the last row of our chapel with his arms over the back pew, wearing a baseball cap. Lisa handed me the brush with black paint and told me to paint him. I approached the white paper and in a couple of minutes an image of this man appeared. I dropped the brush in the water, stood back from the two images and cried my eyes out. I wept in grief. I wept in hope that they both would find what they needed.

Lisa then looked at me and said, "See, everything you need is inside of you. All you need is to paint." I go back to her words often. As I look back now, what is inside of me is my desire to see the face of Jesus Christ. I have painted my way into a deeper communion with Jesus, exploring my heart's desire to encounter him, to hear his voice, and to see him not just at the end of time, but here every day.
