

Christ the King

Dear Believers in the Christ,

Today, we celebrate the last Sunday of the Church's liturgical year. Christ the King is the conclusion of our celebrations of Jesus Christ. This solemnity concludes with the message of Jesus that in the end, we will know him, be with him in paradise, and find our home in his dying and rising.

I love this feast. It opens my heart because in the end, everything will be all right. In the end, redemption will be revealed for us, for the Church, and for each person. I cling to that. As a pastor, I ache for Jesus the King to love every person in every situation under heaven. There are days where I do not know where to turn except to the King of the Universe, to Jesus who died and rose for us and who waits for us in heaven.

Jesus becomes king then, of not only wayward folks, but of all the issues in life that seem unredeemable. Jesus takes to his heart our children who live in violence and chaos. Jesus is king over migrants and servants even when we are made think otherwise. Jesus forgives us and our enemies. Imagine that scenario. Jesus is king over our fear. He heals those addicted to cocaine and heroin. He is shepherd to all people who on this side of the grave cannot help themselves. Jesus is king who tends to the mentally ill. He is healer over those with throat cancer who will finally sing his praise.

He is the one who welcomes everyone around the table in the Kingdom, especially those who have never felt welcomed at their family table. Jesus is the kind-one who will bring all who have been abused into new and vital healing relationships. He will bring home the ones who fret and worry, those who are too stubborn to believe on earth, and those who cannot wait to get out of prison. Jesus the King is the servant for all people.

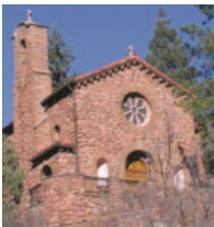

In today's gospel, John 18: 33b-37, Jesus is before Pilate. Their conversation about whether he is a king reveals heavenly grace amid earthly power. In the closing sentence of this passage, Jesus says, "Everyone who belongs to the truth, listens to my voice."

The redeeming love of Jesus is still being revealed. The truth Jesus speaks of his authority is within our hearts. Listening to such truth can be intimidating. We may resist listening to him. We may want to find our path only in our pretense and self-sufficiency; we may want to listen only to our own ability to build our own kingdom. Jesus reveals to us in his suffering that he desires to be with us. He wants us to listen to his life, his scriptures, his examples, and his voice within the human heart. He desires to be our everything, our consolation, our peace, and our way to the Father. He leads us by example. He prepares a place for us in our Father's glory.

We have certainly been through a lot in these past couple of years. As we end this liturgical year, I want to thank all of you for your patience and perseverance. We can't take anything for granted as we have all learned through these years of pandemic. Everything matters. Everyone matters. So now, we look forward to telling the story of Jesus all over again, to claim him in our hearts as if it were the first time, as we look forward to celebrating the longing of our ancestors in the opening weeks of Advent. So, we begin again, all over one more time, next weekend on the First Sunday of Advent.

Thank you for creating our communities. Thank you for living the mystery of Christ Jesus here on earth.

God give you peace,
Fr. Ron Raab, CSC, Pastor

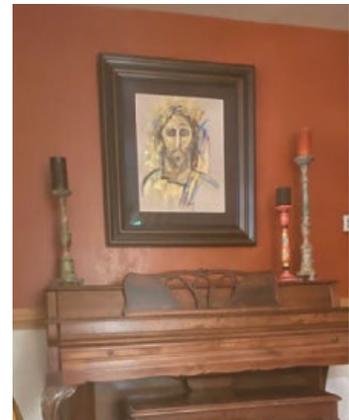

Fundraiser to support Holy Rosary Chapel this weekend! Our little stone-walled chapel is as cold as a crypt! During Mass we huddle in coats and jackets (and its only fall!) because the boiler is kaput!

This weekend, Nov. 20 & 21 after all of the Masses at all three of our churches, we are offering cozy Sacred Heart Parish sweatshirts for a donation to our "Bucks for the Boiler" fund. Thanks for your help and support in keeping us warm!

What are parishioners doing with Fr. Ron's art from the art sale??

Would you like to share what you have done with Fr. Ron's art that you purchased from the art sale? Send a picture (and even a short description of why you purchased that specific piece) to communications@sacredheartcos.org.

Parishioner Judy Datar beautifully framed the art she purchased from the art sale and hung it above her piano.

Reflection

Dominion, glory, and kingship! On this last weekend of the liturgical year, we celebrate Christ as a King!

None of the people who witnessed Jesus being executed just outside of Jerusalem on a cross (with the exception of his mother Mary, who had once had good news announced to her by an angel of God), could possibly have known that Jesus would ever be called a king, the King of Kings in fact. There was no apparent glory as He hung upon the cross, dying. Jesus' tortured body exhibited no power at all, and no dominion seemed under His control.

At the time, the power of Rome seemed invincible. The glory that was Rome seemed unlimited. There was no mere king on the throne, but an emperor of unquestioned authority. But over time Rome decayed, other empires rose and fell, and yet still the dominion, the glory, and the kingship of that crucified man remains forever.

Everything about Jesus' kingship overturned our normal understanding of the word. Everything about Jesus' death has taught us more about how to live our lives. Everything about Jesus' miracles and wonders somehow now seemed even commonplace in light of His promise to us of everlasting life.

Jesus' death and resurrection taught us that dominion and power do not come from being in control, but rather from letting go; that true power comes from doing what is right rather than from using might to do what we want. Glory does not come from accomplishing great things on our own, but from allowing God's greatness to overwhelm us and to work through us. Finally, true kingship and authority arise not from self-aggrandizement or from the subservience of others, but instead from becoming a servant to those most in need.

Christ is our true king, who has transformed the world. We are His people. He has changed us forever.

—Fr. Randy Rentner, CSC, Associate Pastor

Join us this Sunday, Nov. 21 after the 9 am Mass to learn what the Church says about caring for creation and caring for God's peoples in Room 4 in the Parish Center. We will discuss the introduction to the Laudato Si': On Care For Our Common Home, which you can find in soft and hard-cover, or free online at <https://tinyurl.com/v9y2d79c>. Please bring your copy of the encyclical or the introductory chapter to our session.

We'll continue our meetings on Sunday, Dec. 19 and into the New Year. Our plan is to study the encyclical and learn more about the life of Saint Francis and other related topics; become Laudato Si' animators for our parish; and form our Sacred Heart Creation Care Team. Visit our parish website www.sacredheartcos.org and click on the Laudato Si' tab at the top of the page to learn more. All are welcome to join us.

Continuing to remember our beloved dead...

November is called the month of All Souls. More recently, it has been called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed and follows All Saints' Day. These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

The Book of Remembrance continues to be available for the month of November in Sacred Heart Church. Parishioners are encouraged to write the names of their deceased family and friends as we join in prayer for our beloved dead.

All are invited to join us for Advent Vespers at 5 pm at Sacred Heart Church during the four weeks of Advent beginning Sunday, Nov. 28. Each week a parishioner will offer a reflection on the theme "Run forth and meet your Christ" beginning with Sacred Heart Parishioner Cameron Bowsky. Vespers will be live-streamed and a recording will be available on our website.

Giving Trees: Next weekend we will begin collecting financial donations for our Giving Trees. Sacred Heart Church is supporting four local nonprofit organizations: Fostering Hope and Mesa House in Colorado Springs, La Puente in Alamosa, CO and Los Pobres in Avondale, CO. Holy Rosary Chapel is supporting the Bob Telmosse Foundation. OLPH is supporting a local family in need. Please be sure to mark donations with the name of the church and Giving Tree. Thank you for your support!

Men's Retreat: In a world heavily burdened with a pandemic that pressures you to cloister, hide, and withdraw; in a country that demands you take a side, ever divisive and avarice in its desire to label, judge, and point the finger. In a home where responsibilities pile high, demands are unceasing, and the call to be a good son, husband, father, or friend feels more like shackles than a calling.... There's no better time than this to be that which God intended from the very beginning, "men called to courageously come together." Join us for an unforgettable chance to step back, take a deep breath, and listen to the quiet voice of God with other men who share as equally in their struggle as their yearning for strength, courage, and hope in Christ. Jan 7-9 at the John Wesley Ranch Retreat Center. Cost is $95. Return completed registration form and payment to the Parish Office by Dec. 31. Scholarship opportunities are available. Registration forms are available on our website and in the Parish Office.

Any adult wishing to become Catholic or learn more about the Catholic faith is invited to participate in RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults), Tuesday evenings, 6:30-8 pm in Room 4 of the Parish Center.

Just a reminder while you are online shopping this holiday season that Sacred Heart Church is still participating in AmazonSmile, a program operated by Amazon that lets customers purchase Amazon products and give back to charitable organizations of their choice by donating 0.5% of the purchase price of eligible products directly to the charitable organization. Sacred Heart Church is eligible to receive your donations!

Partners in Housing Prayer by Fr. Ron Raab, CSC on their 30th Anniversary on Nov. 11, 2021

Gracious God,
We celebrate this evening with gratefulness.
For thirty years you have
Offered us more than nails and screws,
Plywood and two-by-fours, roofing, and plumbing,
To house our desperate friends.

In the beginning you provided hope
With the gifts of Sister Lucille,
Bishop Hanifen, and the financial
Offerings of hundreds of our benefactors,
Leaders, staff, and board members,
As our foundation,
Steadier than concrete, longer lasting than steel.

You taught us to build walls with tenacity,
And demolish other walls of racism and prejudice,
To open windows to bask in your light
And doorways for new opportunities.
We housed friends who have lived in the cold days
Of winter and the chills of ill health.
We sheltered strangers in hot days of summer,
Bearing on their backs, divorce, job loss, and family despair.

Tonight, we raise a glass in humble awareness
Of our storied sisters and brothers,
Who found food for their families in simple kitchens
and rest and intimacy for their tired bodies in bedrooms,
Provided by the sleepless nights of committees and boards
Who labored hard with our many partners in pursuit of housing.

Tonight, we feast in love of you, O God
For you show us how to welcome the weary
And listen to the silenced poor.
Tonight, may we pursue safety, belonging, and
Hope for our children, so to offer people a voice,
Under the shelter of your protection.

Tonight, we celebrate our commitments once again, so bless us,
And the food that nourishes our bodies, and may we see in each
Others eyes the joy of being under the same roof. We ask your blessing
In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Partners in Housing is an organization in Colorado Springs that provides one year of transitional housing and supportive services to families experiencing homelessness or at imminent risk of becoming homeless with the goal of achieving self-sufficiency.

In the late 1980s, a group of community leaders began researching local needs, and programs in other communities, supporting families who were experiencing homelessness. Among this group was Bishop Richard Hanifen of the Diocese of Colorado Springs and the Executive Director of Catholic Community Services, Sr. Lucille Krippel. Partners in Housing was then started as a program of Catholic Community Services, but quickly was incorporated as a separate, but connected, non-profit in November 1991.

Lost and Found

At one time or another, everyone has lost something. One minute you had it and the next you have no idea where it went. Sometimes not even prayers to St. Anthony can help locate what is missing. I am sure that is how a few of our previous Oblate priests must have felt.

While renovating the old rectory into the future St. André House, the workers have made a few interesting finds during construction.

They found an uncashed offertory check from 1975 from Mr. & Mrs. O'Sullivan from Manitou Springs. (The poor O'Sullivans probably weren't able to balance their checkbook that entire year!)

They also found a unique piece of art tucked behind the old brick fireplace. It depicts Dutch boys dancing in a line (pictured left). We have no idea who it belonged to or where it came from. There is no artist signature and an internet search turned up with nothing like it. We doubt it is worth anything, but the story of the discovery of the art is priceless!

Art found in the old rectory during construction.

We will resume Anointing of the Sick during the 8 am Daily Mass on the first Friday on the month beginning Friday, December 3.
