Prepare the way of the Lord!

SACREDHEART CHURCH OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP HOLY ROSARY CHAPEL

Dear Believers in the Messiah,

John the Baptist is one of my favorite personalities in the gospel next to his cousin Jesus. I am drawn to John because he knows entirely who he is in the story of the Christ. Even when he was in the womb, he danced in recognition that he was in the presence of the Savior. John grew up close to the earth and close to the realization that the world needs salvation. He spent his life pointing into the direction of Christ Jesus and calling people to ready their lives for his promise of salvation.

Today's gospel, Luke 3:1-6, breaks through the silence of the desert so we may listen to the strong and bold words of John the Baptist. Again, the gospel is not about a cozy, domestic longing for the baby Jesus. Somehow, we are afraid to look at Christmas differently from the warm fires of family life. Christmas is not about domestic bliss; it is about the realization that the Word of God moves mountains, changes the directions of streams, and makes winding roads straight. In other words, there is nothing in our lives that cannot be redeemed, loved, and forgiven. This is the journey for us, to open wide our hearts even when we are filled with fear. We seek the glory of God becoming flesh within the world.

John is in the desert in today's gospel. The wasteland is an important image in the gospels. Here's why. The coming of Christ reestablishes the full presence of God. This abundant love is viewed in the original image of life in the Garden of Eden. In other words, the desert, which is devoid of lush green and flowing water, will become the second garden of life in the resurrection of Christ Jesus. So, John shakes us all up by saying that we must be prepared in the desert for something new to happen. Valleys will be filled in and rough roads made smooth. Lush green will become our home, an image of eternal life.

This image of desert is also about the human heart. There will be no sin or anxiety that will not be forgiven or made new in Christ Jesus. John has quite the task in Advent. He is bold, earthy, strong, and sure in his declaration that every human heart must wait for God. We all experience this dry wasteland at some point in our lives. We all know how sin, division and heartache can shrink or decay the potential of life. Our hearts in Advent are laid bare for love to enter to make them whole.

Our prayer during the Advent season must be inclusive and expansive. We are to pray for all the ways our hearts become withered and small. We are to take the voice of the weak seriously and to walk among the bewildered and the poor with unbelievable hope.

In this Year of Grace 2022, our parish will celebrate 100 years on July 16, 2022. I ask you to pray for our three communities, Sacred Heart, Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Manitou Springs, and Holy Rosary in Cascade. We will mark a century of prayer and service in this year, but we can only continue with your generosity, your commitment, and your joy. I am so grateful for this time of celebration and renewal.

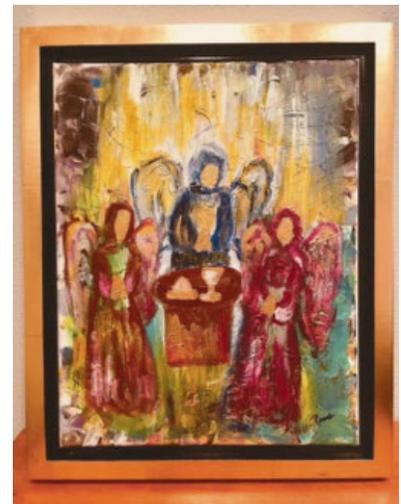

Come, Lord Jesus, Come!

God give you peace,
Fr. Ron Raab, CSC, Pastor

Would you like to share what you have done with Fr. Ron's art that you purchased from the art sale? Send a picture (and even a short description of why you purchased that specific piece) to communications@sacredheartcos.org.

What are parishioners doing with Fr. Ron's art from the art sale??

Parishioner Jim Rothlisberger framed the art he purchased from the art sale in a beautiful floating frame of gold painted wood. Thank you for sharing Jim!

Reflection

"I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus." (Philippians 1:6)

This line from the Letter to the Philippians is familiar to all Catholic priests, brothers, and sisters. It is part of the liturgy which is read at ordinations and professions of religious vows: May God who has begun this good work in you bring it to completion!

It's a powerful line, and it can also be prayed whenever Christians begin something new and important in their lives, whether a marriage, the birth of a child, or a new job or major undertaking.

The prayer says several important things. First, it invokes God. It is always good to acknowledge God in everything we do, especially if we are taking on a new role or beginning a new project.

Second, the prayer claims that the task before us, the new role being taken on is a "good work." The prayer is a blessing on whatever it is that we are planning to do.

Third, we admit through this prayer that whatever good we attempt to do, we aren't able to do anything on our own. We understand instead that God is working God's own Will through us.

Finally, the prayer asks that God help us to finish what God has already started. We ask for the strength and endurance to follow through with what we have begun on God's behalf. Or, rather, with what God has begun through us.

And, whatever it is that we attempt to do, whatever it is that we initiate on God's behalf, our prayer can continue as it does in Scripture:

"And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more..." (Philippians 1:9)

—Fr. Randy Rentner, CSC, Associate Pastor

Sharing during the holidays

Food Pantry

Our Food Pantry Ministry is strong and serving more people than ever. I am blessed to be working with all of our volunteers. Please know you are appreciated.

For Thanksgiving the Food Pantry distributed 46 Thanksgiving bags in addition to the regular food bags and ready-to-eat bags for the unsheltered. The Thanksgiving bags included turkey, many of which were donated. Every bag was given out. Counting all household members and our unsheltered neighbors, a total of 149 people benefited from the Sacred Heart Food Pantry on Nov. 18 & 22.

After the Thanksgiving bags were distributed, a Food Pantry guest came back to say thank you for all that we (Sacred Heart Parish) do. He was very happy he was going to be able to have a Thanksgiving dinner and wanted to share his gratitude.

Sincerest thanks to all of our parishioners who help support our Food Pantry through food donations and monetary contributions. Blessings to you all and thank you for supporting this wonderful ministry.
