

*The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph
December 26, 2021*

*“After three days,
they found him
in the temple...”*

Dear Followers of Jesus,

Today's gospel, Luke 2:41-52, illustrates a parent's worst fear, a missing child. With much miscommunication, Jesus stayed behind to preach in the temple without the knowledge of his parents, Mary and Joseph. We can all imagine the fear that ran through the minds and bodies of Mary and Joseph as they searched diligently for Jesus in the caravan.

Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the temple. Jesus does not seem concerned that his parents are frantic. This gospel begins to outline his death and resurrection, even though he is still a youth. First, he is lost and then his parents find him after three days. This refers to his passion, death, and resurrection. After three days, he becomes a new person. Well, we see this visibly in the temple where he is preaching and answering questions. In other words, his real identity emerges, his place among the leaders of faith. He was lost but now is found among those who hear his message of peace.

How ironic that as we celebrate the Incarnation during the Christmas season, today in the gospel the real presence of Jesus is already lost. Jesus asks his parents, "Why are you looking for me?" Jesus assumes that his parents would know that he is in the temple doing the work of the Father. I want to hold on to this question because so often I do not fully understand why I search for him. This question from a youth is a deep question for all people, no matter our age. It is also a question that in the Christmas season is essential for our spiritual growth, "Why are you looking for me?"

We need to be honest about why we search for Christ, the person of Jesus. We cannot live the mystery of our lives apart from Jesus. He is our hope when we are lost, when we get caught in personal sin, heartache, and ill will. He is our direction when we believe we have all the answers, when we are confident that we can do life on our own. Jesus is our creative life even when we feel lost in our jobs or unimportant in our families. Jesus is the place we rest when we are tired and emptied from beating ourselves up when things just do not go the way we planned. We pursue Jesus because he desires us; we already belong to him.

I wonder how we would answer the question Jesus poses to his parents? I desire with all my heart to find my way to his side, to his creative love for our world and for me. This Christmas season is just another step in our awkward search for Jesus, of being lost and found. Yet, Jesus makes a home within us. We already have what we desire, the love God has for each of us. Christmas is creating a home within our hearts to find that Jesus is not lost, but living among us today in all that we do.

The gospel tells us that Mary, the mother of Jesus, held all these things in her heart. She pondered the mystery of his sorrows as well as his goodness. I hold on to the life of Jesus in this Christmas season within my heart, as I know we all long to do. For the mystery of the Incarnation is teaching us still how to love and how to live together. We seek the Holy Family since we find our home in such a mystery.

God give you peace,

What are parishioners doing with Fr. Ron's art from the art sale??

Parishioner Mary Ellen White said "I was captivated by this woman's expressive eyes. I was told she is Afghani and part of a series called "Remember the Women." The piece Mary Ellen purchased from the art sale now hangs proudly above her mantle.

Regarding the piece, Fr. Ron said: "The United States withdrew from Afghanistan in August 2021. This is one of three versions I painted of the women who carry so much pain, loss, and grief of their families in this historic transition. The women are threatened the most; they lack education, human rights, and the ability to have a voice in the government that remains in Afghanistan. This image was a practice in watercolor to capture the older women who carry much in their hearts. It is a reminder to pray for the women of the world who bear the brunt of holding families together and carrying generational grief within their hearts."

Reflection

The “discovery” of America in 1492 has been caught up in much controversy in recent years. Objections are justly made that many people had been living in what has since been called the “New World” for centuries before Columbus arrived, so nothing was really “discovered.”

Yes, that’s true. The native peoples didn’t see themselves as either “new” or in need of discovery. And yet to Europeans, the event remains a moment of great discovery nonetheless, because these lands and peoples were new to them. Discovery can be a matter of perception.

Being lost, the opposite of being discovered, presents a similar situation. Mary and Joseph lost track of Jesus after their visit to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover. They were worried and concerned about him. They didn’t know where he was. That’s what lost means.

But Jesus himself never sensed that he was lost. Even as a child, he knew where he was. He was in the temple of the Lord God Almighty, and that was exactly where he wanted to be, in the presence of the One whom he knew to be his Father in Heaven. When you are where you want to be, you can never be lost.

Sometimes, however, the reverse can be true. On bad days, when difficulties strike, when sadness overwhelms us, we ourselves can certainly feel lost, alone, or afraid. We can perceive ourselves to be isolated or even abandoned by God’s love. Yet, because of Jesus, we can never be truly lost. That same God whom Jesus sought in the temple is always present to us in the person of Christ Himself.

As members of the Church, we are the Body of Christ, we are members of His family. Although we may at times perceive ourselves to be distant from God, we are never alone. Feeling lost is merely a matter of misperception. God -with-Us, Emmanuel, is always by our side, even when we can’t sense Him. Our faith helps us “discover” that truth.

Parish Life

Fundraising for Saint André House

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I am deeply humbled by your response to remodeling the former rectory. I am so grateful for the funds raised so far in our campaign. This is the next step to our continuing to update our parish buildings in preparation for our 100th Anniversary. I am very excited about finishing this project. The building should be finished by March 2022.

I realize not all of you can contribute to this project. It has been quite a year. Amid a worldwide pandemic, there are so many loose ends to our next phases of life, school, and family relationships. However, I am so pleased that you have trusted us in this pandemic to provide a safe place for worship and education. I am so grateful to see so many people returning to Masses on the weekends. Thank you for being here at our parish.

As we have said, the reason for the remodel is that the building has not been used for its intended purpose for 25 years. I can't continue to justify not caring for our goods, our resources, and our buildings here on this block. Many may not know that it would have been too expensive to demolish the old rectory and build something new because of the water issues along Colorado Ave. I am happy to keep the historical building which will now provide handicap accessible restrooms and extra meeting space. Currently on Sunday mornings, our Faith Formation is cramped in the Parish Center. With the addition of the Saint André House, we will have some room in the new building for coffee and donuts and two classrooms upstairs. I am sure when the building is finished, we will have to adjust our use of the building. We will take one step at a time and experiment to find the best combinations of use for the Parish Center and for Saint André House.

People have also asked why I don't live there. Over 25 years ago, the parish decided not to have the priests on site. The building is too exposed and unsafe for people to live there. At night, the grounds become littered with needles, bottles, and folks sleeping around our buildings. I am very aware that our neighbors need a place to sleep. I felt it would be too much for priests to live in the old rectory. We would never have privacy if a light was on at night. Also, I don't think it is good for our Holy Cross community life to live so close to where we work. We are on call 24 hours a day; we also need so time to rest.

When I arrived here as pastor in 2013, there were no obvious signs or mention of the Congregation of Holy Cross at the parish. It was not in the bulletin and there were no images on the walls. Since I arrived, I have tried to introduce you to the spirituality of our religious community, Holy Cross. We now have a Cross and Anchor in the church lobby and a first-class relic of Saint André Bessette in the new altar. And now, one of our buildings will reflect the name of Saint André Bessette. He is the first saint in our religious community. His spirituality of prayer and service, I pray, will continue to teach us at Sacred Heart how to include the example of Saint André in our own lives of prayer.

Saint André House. I love the name and even more the spirituality of service his name stands for in our community. We will continue to strive to extend God's love beyond our parish block. The pandemic has limited some of our outreach services, but we shall prevail.

Our fundraising efforts will end in February 2022. Thank you for all you have offered this project. I am deeply grateful. Now, we need to continue our efforts. The costs have fluctuated because of code issues and the availability of goods. I know you are as confident as I am that this project will be for our common good. It will be such a great complement to our restored church. I have tried my best to restore our buildings. I want this community to last more than just 100 years. There is more to come. I can't wait.

Please, if you have not yet contributed to the restoration of Saint André House, please do so. Please know of my prayer for you as we grow, change, develop and pray. I am so happy to be your pastor as we continue to move through the pandemic and the upkeep of our community and its buildings.

Blessings to you all in this Christmas season,
Fr. Ron Raab, CSC, Pastor
