

SACRED HEART CHURCH OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP HOLY ROSARY CHAPEL

The Epiphany of the Lord

January 2, 2022

We saw his star at its rising...

Dear Believers in Emmanuel,

Today, the Church celebrates the Feast of Epiphany. In Matthew 2:1-12, we overhear the magi asking the question, "Where is the newborn King of the Jews?" Their search for him is our search. Their quest to find the child is our journey in this Christmas season. They laid before the child their gifts. We lay before the Incarnate Word, the gifts already given us, of faith, love and hope within our Church and world. The quest to find the child is deep within our hearts, for we long for him. The search is never over on this side of grave. We constantly ache for God to heal us, to offer us hope, and to convert our hearts in his love.

This week we celebrate the memorial of St. André Bessette. Depending on which country you live, the memorial is celebrated either on January 6 or 7. Brother André is the first saint in the Congregation of Holy Cross. He ministered in Montreal, welcoming the ill and marginalized. Brother André was canonized on October 17, 2010 in Rome by Pope Benedict XVI.

I find Brother André incredibly fascinating. He was a sickly child who was not expected to live. Instead, he died at 91. He grew up illiterate. In the work of the Holy Spirit, he was accepted into the Congregation of Holy Cross that is best known for education. Our religious community really did not know where to assign him. They appointed him porter at their college in Montreal. He stayed in the doorway for over 40 years. He had a great devotion to St. Joseph, especially after his own father died when André was very young. God used that devotion to St. Joseph to heal people as they came to the door.

In the high point of St. André's ministry, he encountered 600 people a day. He would invite them to go to confession or to Mass. He would suggest that people pray to St. Joseph or any form of prayer. He would use oil from a lamp in the chapel to anoint some people in their pain and frustration. He offered people hope when there was little medical care accessible to them. He even told a mother of a very ill child to wash the child in dishwater only to test her faith. That child was completely healed.

St. André slept only one or two hours a night. He spent the night praying for all the people who had come to him during the day. He was a simple man with an amazing life of prayer. He thought of himself as God's little one, as God's little puppy, not only because he was short in stature, but also because he was leading people to God through St. Joseph. St. André never considered himself a healer. When he died on January 6, 1937, over one million people came to his funeral in Montreal.

The Shrine of St. Joseph in Montreal is the largest shrine in the world to honor the foster father of Jesus. The families that had a miraculous healing of a family member financially supported the shrine. Unfortunately, André did not live to see its completion. The shrine continues today, and millions of people still search for healing on that hill.

A first-class relic of St. André Bessette is housed in our altar at Sacred Heart Church. I am so grateful that St. André's presence is in the center of our community in a real way. The relic is a gift from St. Joseph's Oratory in Montreal, Canada.

After the remodeling of the former rectory, we will name that building, "Saint André House." I am delighted that St. André's name will welcome us to socialize and to help our continuing education.

Learn more about St. André Bessette by visiting our website at www.sacredheartcos.org.

Please offer your life, your suffering, to St. André. He will help you pray. He will lead you to God, to the love and miraculous power of Christ Jesus. Pray for the completion of Saint André House. Pray for the weak and the weary, the lost and the desperate.

St. André Bessette, pray for us!

God give you peace,
Fr. Ron Raab, CSC, Pastor

Reflection “Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.” (Isaiah 60:6)

Our first reading from Isaiah tells us of the promise made to the people of Israel after years of Exile in Babylon. This prophecy is later fulfilled at that familiar scene in Bethlehem.

Gold is a gift for kings, an appropriate gift for the Son of David, the promised messiah who is to rule over the people of Israel. Frankincense is an aromatic resin, still used today in churches in the worship of God, so it is a fitting gift for the newly born Son of God. God-Made-Man is given a gift which is exclusively offered to God in prayer, burning incense at the altar.

Yet in Matthew’s gospel today, there were three specific gifts brought to Jesus in Bethlehem: gold, frankincense, and one more. Myrrh is a third gift added to the gold and frankincense that Isaiah had originally mentioned.

Note that Matthew never says that there were specifically “three” wise men. He only mentions the three specific gifts. We’ve just presumed over the years that there were three people, one bringing each of the three gifts. But the gifts, not the wise men, are the most important.

Why was myrrh added to the prophecy of Isaiah concerning the birth of Jesus? The answer is surprising. It’s because myrrh was associated with death! Myrrh was an anointment used for burial. In Mark’s gospel, Jesus on the Cross is given wine mixed with myrrh (Mk. 15:23). John’s gospel tells us that Joseph of Arimathea brought a hundred pounds of myrrh mixed with aloe to embalm Jesus’ body for burial (John 19:39).

How odd to offer a newborn infant myrrh! But how fitting to recognize that Jesus was born so that He could offer up His life for our sakes. Myrrh reminds us even at that first Nativity Scene that this is no ordinary baby, but the agent of our salvation! Myrrh hints of the shadow of the Cross that is present already at the manger in Bethlehem. We remember why it is that Jesus came to be born— so that He might share in our death and promise us eternal life in exchange.

—Fr. Randy Rentner, CSC, Associate Pastor

This Sunday, January 2 is the Epiphany of the Lord

Live the Liturgy, Inspiration for the Week:

Have you ever experienced a time in your life when everything came together and became abundantly clear? You may have been confused about something, in the dark, at a point of doubt, or unclear as to how to act. You may have questioned someone's motivation and found yourself coming to the wrong conclusion. Then out of nowhere, the insight came and reality dawned. You experienced an epiphany of sorts! Today, we celebrate Christ's manifestation to all of the nations of the world. Has it dawned on you yet that Jesus Christ is the answer humanity has been seeking? Jesus is truly the beginning and end of all things and the key to understanding God's presence in every human heart. Once this real Epiphany dawns on us, we can never see God, ourselves, or one another in any other way. The Divine Light illumines everything and connects the dots.

Please pray for our brothers & sisters...
