3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

SACRED HEART CHURCH   OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP   HOLY ROSARY CHAPEL

Dear Believers,

Today we hear the beginning of the gospel Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21. We hear from eyewitnesses of the stories of Jesus, our ancestors in faith. In the beginning of Luke's commentary, Jesus goes back to his homeland and back into the synagogue to pray and to read on the Sabbath.

The scroll from Isaiah from which Jesus reads is, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

Imagine this scene for those who first saw Jesus and heard his voice in the synagogue. They had no idea what was to come, how he would embody those words, how he would become the message in his death and resurrection. Imagine how their hearts must have burned with hope and longing for the coming of the Messiah. In his eyes, they saw hope manifest.

Of course, the gospel is written many years after the events of Jesus' ministry and life. So, the gospel sets up what is to come in the story. Jesus becomes this promise. He is the Anointed One. He is the freedom we have all longed for in our lives.

In the opening weeks of a new church year, perhaps we can learn to listen to the scriptures in a new way. In the Mass, when the gospel is proclaimed, it becomes the Real Presence of Jesus. This Real Presence forms us as individuals and as a church community. It is so important to our lives of faith that we listen to the Word. The Liturgical Year and the gospel proclamation at each Mass both teach us how to live in the world and how to become hungry for God, how to need God and how to serve our neighbor.

I ask you to consider reading the gospels and all the scriptures before Mass. We can't understand the gospel from only hearing it at Mass. We must become familiar with the images, the stories, the characters, the overall arch of the story of Jesus' passion, death, and resurrection, to enter more fully into the Mass. The Real Presence of Jesus in the Mass is in the gospel proclamation, in the elements of bread and wine which becomes his Body and Blood, and in the lives of the baptized people in the pews. Read the stories, open the scriptures, and enter the scene of how the characters interact. After all, we become what we celebrate at Mass; we become the Body of Christ on earth.

The scriptures help us understand the person of Jesus Christ. I always use the example of the Good Shepherd. We can memorize Psalm 23. However, we need to have a relationship with the Shepherd. There is a difference in memorizing a story and fully knowing the Shepherd in our lives. We can hear the gospel, but it will make no difference until we know the person of Jesus Christ.

As we begin hearing the Gospel of Luke in the opening Sundays of Ordinary Time, we also know that Luke is writing for his community that is poor. He desires to lift them up in the story of Jesus. He desires healing for their lives. In this context, the opening scene of Luke's Gospel is so important. We too, come to Mass not just for our own benefit, but to pray for the world, the poor, the prisoner, the hungry, those whose lives are the result of unjust systems.

We should all take to heart the closing line of today's gospel, "Today, this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

God give you peace,
Fr. Ron Raab, CSC, Pastor

Capital Campaign Update

Our Restore Our Heart Capital Campaign progresses as we continue construction on the future St. Andre House. We have collected $781,090 to go towards our $1.2 million goal, however only 26% of parishioner households have participated in the campaign. If you have not contributed to the campaign, please prayerfully consider making a contribution. Any contribution will be gratefully accepted.

We have made online giving even easier by creating a QR code to scan with your smart phone. You can also give on our website www.sacredheartcos.org or in the collection basket at Mass. Please be sure to mark your donation as "Restore Our Heart Campaign." Thank you for your support!

Reflection

"Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!" (Nehemiah 8:10)

What a wonderful sentence! Rejoicing in the Lord is a source of strength!

The context of this passage is that the people of Israel have returned to Jerusalem after decades of Exile in Babylon. They are rebuilding the city and the temple of the Lord. But then they discover a Book of the Law that had been lost to them for many years, and so Ezra reads this book aloud to the people.

Many of them are distraught, worrying that because they had not known about the law of God for so long, they would therefore suffer for having neglected it.

But Ezra and Nehemiah see it differently. Instead of the people feeling bad because they had been living in sin for so long, it would be better for them to rejoice now that they knew the truth and had returned to God!

This is why the sacrament of Confession is not a time for anxiety and fear, but for rejoicing. Sinners are told they are forgiven, the lost are found, and all are called back to God's love.

Whenever we find that we are prepared to let go of our burden of guilt, we are then made ready to accept God's love and live in God's joy! The story of Christ's resurrection and redemption teaches us to long for our future rather than to worry about our past!

Rejoicing in the Lord is a source of our strength! Acknowledging a God who loves us is reason to be glad!

—Fr. Randy Rentner, CSC, Associate Pastor

*The sacrament of Confession is available every Saturday at 9 am at Sacred Heart Church or by appointment.

Would you like to share what you have done with Fr. Ron's art that you purchased from the art sale? Send a picture (and even a short description of why you purchased that specific piece) to communications@sacredheartcos.org.

What are parishioners doing with Fr. Ron's art from the art sale??

Sacred Heart Parishioner Judy Datar purchased one of Fr. Ron's paintings from the Art Sale as a surprise Christmas gift for her husband.

"The painting hangs in the hallway above a basket of now dried up flowers that I've received from my sons over the years. How special is that!"

Coffee & Donut Ministry Help!

We are in dire need of volunteers to help serve Coffee & Donuts after the Sunday 7:30 am Mass at Sacred Heart. We need more volunteers to keep this ministry going. If you are able to volunteer, please email Grace at communications@sacredheartcos.org.

Special THANKS to parishioner Nick DiDomenico who has volunteered to fill vacant shifts to keep this ministry running. We appreciate your help!

Parking Alert!

We understand that with the construction in our parking lot, at times it has been difficult to find a parking spot, especially for Sunday Mass. However, we must be courteous to our neighbors and surrounding businesses. Please DO NOT PARK in the Outside the Bread Box parking lot or in front of their business, especially on Sundays. (They are located directly across from the church on Colorado Ave.) They are open on Sundays and want Sacred Heart parishioners to know that they will tow cars that do not belong to their patrons. Thank you!

Parish Life

Spiritual Growth Group (SGG) - The Fruit!

Thank you to all who attended the first SGG meeting on Jan. 15. As the co-leaders of the group, we felt blessed to experience the movement of the Holy Spirit in each of the participants and to have been able to structure a time for spiritual growth. Many comments expressed a thirst for more. We are excited to be on the journey to satisfy that thirst with living water and the fire of God's love. Our next encounter will be a continuation and deepening of what was experienced in our initial meeting.

Twenty-nine parishioners met to explore the depth of their intimacy with God and how it might be intensified. The meeting kicked off with prayer and a short teaching on what a Catholic life on fire would look like in a perfect world, what it means to "BE," and the purpose of a spiritual life. Entering prayer together and reflecting on the question,

"What would you want Jesus to do for you in your spiritual life?" participants shared their deep desire for Jesus to help them overcome obstacles in their prayer lives and spiritual journeys. They also expressed a yearning to grow in their ability to experience more deeply the extravagant love God has for each of us.

When discussing the next gathering, some quipped they would like to convene every day or every week. Clearly this group has a gift of humor.

Our next meeting will be on Saturday, Feb. 12 from 9-10:30 am in Room 5 of the Parish Center. If you have the desire to enter more deeply into God's love for you, please join us. In the spirit of St. Ignatius, there is mucho more!

Good and Gracious Lord: We ask that you stir into flame our relationship with you and each other. Grow us in the fire of your love to hear and act on your call to intimacy and discernment that leads to anointed service and prophetic voices in our community. We pray this in the name of Jesus. Amen

In Christ, Patty Degen and Brian Krutka, Co-Leaders of SGG and Sacred Heart Parishioners

"This is core to my vision for our future. We need the spiritual awareness and discernment that also leads to service and a prophetic voice in our community." — Fr. Ron Raab, CSC
