THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

MAY HIS LOVE BE WITH US, ALWAYS

Gospel Meditation: Jesus Shares His Inheritance with Us By: Fr. Jarrod Waugh, CSC, Pastor

The readings and prayers for, and even leading up to, the Solemnity of the Ascension take pains to point out that Jesus promised that he was not deserting his disciples by his going to his Father's house. It is also helpful to recall that in the Incarnation, when the Son took flesh in Mary's womb and became Man, it is NOT the case that the Son stopped being united with (we could also say, or stopped "dwelling with") his Father. The Incarnation did not separate the Son from the Father—this is impossible. The Persons of the Trinity cannot be separated. And yet, Jesus does use language that speaks about how he is going to the Father's house, how he is going ahead of us, how he will be in his Father's Glory, etc. So if the Son didn't LEAVE the Father, how can he RETURN to the Father?

One of the keys to understanding this mystery is to think about Jesus' humanity. Where is Jesus' body? He is present Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Eucharist, to be sure, but that isn't his physical body—it's his Body made truly present in a sacramental way. It's truly his Body, but it isn't his kneecap. Jesus, in his Ascension, took his humanity into the eternal godhead. This is why the Church says that our Redemption was an even greater miracle than our original creation. Before the Fall, Adam and Eve had communion with God—they walked and conversed with God in the garden in the cool of the day. Jesus' Passion and Resurrection does not simply reset us to that—granted amazingly—original state of affairs. Instead, our salvation in Jesus opens up the way for human beings who have been united to Jesus via the Sacraments, and who therefore have become parts of the Body of Christ, the Church, to follow him. Jesus blazes the trail with his own humanity into the heart of the Blessed Trinity in eternity. The Eternal Son could never be separated from the Eternal Father, but after the Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension—and once the Holy Spirit comes with power to fill the hearts and lives of Jesus' Body on earth, the Church, the Son HAS opened up the way for us, his brothers and sisters, to also enter into the heart of the Trinity.

This helps us to understand, especially after the new English translation of the Mass that came out in 2010, why there is so much language about "inheritance" and being "heirs" in the prayers. This is talking about Jesus sharing with us what is rightly his as the Son. The Son shares everything with his Father, and the Son wants to share everything he has with us. As St. John's Gospel says over and over again "I am in the Father, and the Father is in me, and I AM IN YOU." Jesus desires to share everything he has with the family he won by the shedding of his Blood on the Cross. The Son shares his relationship with the Father and the Holy Spirit with his Body on earth, the Church. When the disciples watch Jesus Ascend, in his Body, to the Right Hand of the Father, Jesus is, in a sense, opening up the gates of heaven so that we, once we are filled with the Spirit, can follow him into the perfect love, truth, and beauty of the Holy Trinity itself.

Next Sunday, May 28 is "Bring your own coffee mug" Sunday for coffee and donuts after the 7:30 & 9 am Masses at Sacred Heart. Parishioners are encouraged to bring their own coffee mug to reduce waste and save money. It is one small way that we can help care for our common home.

Creation Care Corner

Celebrating the Anniversary of Pope Francis' transformational encyclical, Laudato Si'

"Care for Creation" and Laudato Si' (Part I)

- The Pope's encyclical, Laudato Si', is a text of landmark significance in Catholic Social Teaching.
- Pope Francis, like his thirteenth-century namesake, calls the earth our "common home," which is like our sister.
- But we are damaging this familial relationship as we seriously degrade the environment. In so doing, we are damaging our relationship with other humans, particularly those least equipped to adjust to the changing environment: the poor and future generations.
- The Pope encourages people to examine and change their lifestyles through sound ecological virtues, greater simplicity, and less focus on material things.
- Pope Francis extends an "urgent challenge to protect our common home ... to bring the whole human family together to seek a sustainable and integral development, for we know that things can change."
- By taking personal action and reducing excessive consumption and waste in our lives, we can meet our obligation to reduce our impact on the environment while creating a sustainable future for generations to follow.

Reflection

"It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority." (Acts 1:7)

In our first reading today, we hear the nearly last words of Jesus on Earth before he ascended into the heavens. Just before promising that the Holy Spirit would soon come down upon the apostles (celebrated next week at Pentecost), Jesus told us about the limits of what we are to know about God's Kingdom.

We won't know the times and seasons! Now, we do know that God will ultimately be victorious, that all things will be gathered into one. But we will not know how or when this comes about.

This is humbling, knowing that there is a limit to what we will understand about God's Kingdom, no matter how strong our faith, no matter how deep our commitment to Christ. We will just have to accept in faith those things that we cannot know for certain.

But this news is also empowering! Imagine that we knew how the world will end and when God has planned to have the Son return to earth. Imagine if Jesus had told the apostles, "Well, I'll return in about two thousand years. Mind the store for now, and then I'll be back to wrap things up!" Where would our faith be? What would be our motivation for spreading the gospel message, or for even listening to it ourselves?

If we were certain of the "end of times," we could simply sit back and await God's move. Instead, Jesus tells us that it is our responsibility to build up the kingdom of God.

This prayer, attributed to St. Theresa of Avila challenges us to build the kingdom of God now in our life time, and not to simply wait for God:

*Christ has no body now on earth but yours; no hands but yours; no feet but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which the compassion of Christ must look out on the world.
Yours are the feet with which He is to go about doing good.
Yours are the hands with which He is to bless His people.*

We may not know when, but we do know how God has decided to bring about the Kingdom of God ... through us!

—Fr. Randy Rentner, CSC, Associate Pastor

This weekend, May 20 & 21, our parish will be visited by Fr. Richard Migodela, OSB, a Mission Priest from St. Maurus Abbey in Hanga, Tanzania. There will be a special second collection this weekend for the mission. The regularly scheduled second collection for the Catholic Communications Campaign will be taken up next weekend, May 27 & 28. Thank you for your support of our Catholic Missions!

St. Maurus' Hanga Abbey is a vibrant Benedictine community in Southern Tanzania. Founded in 1957 by the late Fr. Ebehard Spiess OSB, Hanga Abbey was created to allow the Tanzanian population to live in the spirit of St. Benedict. Over fifty years later, the original mission of the Abbey lives on as the Hanga community continues to grow and promote Benedictine values while remaining rooted in African culture.

Like all other Benedictine monasteries, their motto is "Ora et Labora," literally meaning "Pray and Work" (or "Sala na Kazi" in Kiswahili). As a part of their missionary work for the Catholic Church, they engage themselves in social development and humanitarian services, from the local village to the world at large.

By living in accordance with the Rule of St. Benedict, they also pride themselves in the hospitality and humility that they extend to their many guests and visitors. They thank God for the opportunity to share their community with you and encourage you to browse through the website and, if interested, they gladly invite you to visit them in Hanga.

Erika Maria Somers

I couldn't have asked for a better mother and role model. She was a friend to all she met. Her smile brightened every room she entered. She loved and cherished her family and friends.

Eric Somers, Sacred Heart Parishioner

Josephine Garcilaso Munoz, 1924-2016

Our mom Josephine was born in Larkspur, Colorado. She was number six of nine children. Josephine married our dad, Robert Munoz, in 1946. She raised seven children. Mama's strength came from her unfailing faith in God, which she shared with us. She has left a legacy to her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and now great great grandchildren. She will remain in our hearts forever, and I see her in my remaining siblings. May her soul rest in peace.

Mary LaBrecque, Sacred Heart Parishioner

Ida Madrid, June 19, 1928– September 10, 2020

My mom was born and raised in Rawlins, Wyoming. She gave birth to four children in under five years! Once we were all in school, she worked as a nurse's aide and then as head unit clerk at the local hospital. We were all baptized and confirmed but did not attend Mass as a family though she was raised Catholic and had it in her blood.

I remember many special memories growing up and feel we drew closer as adults. Mass became more important to her and dad along with the rosary. I thank our Blessed Mother for helping her.

I love and miss you mom, very much!

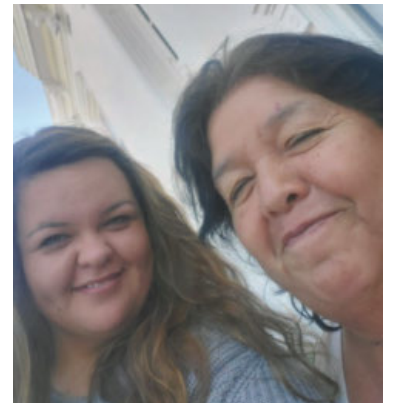

Vicki Medina, Sacred Heart Parishioner

Anita Stelter

My Mother, Anita Stelter, who gave me the best of her life, who cherished my secrets and my sorrows, who taught me to love, who taught me to pray, my Mother in Heaven, God Bless her today.

We are accepting parishioner tributes to their own mothers and grandmothers, living and deceased, to be published in the bulletin for one more week. You can share a photo (optional), a name, or a few words that describe your mother or what she has taught you. Send tributes to communications@sacredheartcos.org and they will be published in the bulletin. We hope you have enjoyed reading these beautiful tributes.

Thank you for your participation!

Territory Days in Old Colorado City is next weekend, Saturday, May 27– Monday, May 29. During this time, our Knights of Columbus will host their annual Territory Days parking lot fundraiser, charging for parking to those attending the event. It is their biggest fundraiser of the year. They will reserve parking for weekend Masses, however, please keep this in mind when attending Mass that weekend.
