Padre's Corner

Dear family,

Anyone can enjoy a powerful scene in a movie, play or in a book. But a moment in a good story is made even more meaningful when we know some of the context and pay attention to the details. The "story" of the Gospel and how it impacts our lives is made more relevant and powerful when we realize exactly what is happening. To give you an example, look at today's Gospel passage. We all know about the miracle of turning water into wine at the wedding at Cana. What you may not know is that the very jugs which Jesus chose to use to hold this wine were used for the washing of people's feet! In other words, Jesus is not requesting to use the finest china of the household. Without saying a word, this is a reminder that God uses the very darkest and dingiest depths of our humanity to consecrate and transform by his divinity. That is what He seeks to do with you! Let Him transform you wholly, even in area of your heart that are not the prettiest.

In His Joy, Fr. Daniel
