Get to know Jesus through the eyes of those chosen by Him to be his disciples. The first season of the crowd funded series, The Chosen, will be offered here at the Cathedral. Join others in considering what it was & is to be ‘chosen’ for a relationship with Jesus. The presentations will be held in the Church. We plan to show the episodes to established groups 3 times weekly: Monday evening, 6pm (starts June 7) Tuesday morning 9am; & Tuesday evening, 6pm. (Starting May 25th). Each presentation will be followed by discussion. Timeframe - approximately 90 minutes. Space is limited. Call Janeel to reserve your spot at one of the specified times. See you there! The Easter Season Continues! Alleluia!
Let us celebrate all 50 days! Alleluia!!

“Remain in my love,” and, “I call you friends,” are powerful words that are found in John’s Gospel. Most of us probably have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open up new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship are things that can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put a great deal of care into preserving, deepening and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship with each other that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our “failures in love.” In doing so, we assume that human beings are the ones responsible for love, its success and also its failure. While our weakness, emotional composition and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love’s author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus is able to call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. It was having an intimate experience of God’s love and friendship that propelled St. Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth and open up avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to world’s problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to creation and heal many wounds. Once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life really is, we discover joy. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends who are eager to become our friends as well: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share. ©LPi

Susan Vogt Marriage Moment. “Beloved, let us love one another because love is of God.” (1 John 4:7) Sounds simple, but anyone married even a short time knows that love can be a challenge when two wills conflict. Just for today, pretend you are God trying to love your spouse selflessly.

Let us take time today to offer a prayer of gratitude to God in thanksgiving for all those who have loved us with a Mother’s love and nurtured us in faith! And, may we find a way to pay it forward, allowing God to love through us.

The Holy Spirit, alive in you. Pray Galatians Ch. 5: 22ff. Watch Bishop Barron’s brief talk on love and the fruits of the Holy Spirit. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1INut0Gi09Q>
