Meditating on the Gospel

2nd Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday

He has you in mind. Do we think about that much? The God of the universe has us in mind, individually as persons and together as one human family. We hear this truth in today’s Gospel story of Thomas. His doubt is likely familiar to us by now. "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.”

Jesus is God. He could have risen any way he wanted. He could have risen perfectly healed, as a further sign of his power over death and suffering. But when Thomas encounters him, we see what Jesus chose. "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." In resurrecting his body, Jesus already has Thomas in mind. Jesus retains his wounds for Thomas, for the disciples, and for all who would doubt the sacrificial power of love. This intentional love of Jesus is echoed by John and his disciples, who authored this Gospel. "Jesus did many other signs...these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ...and that through this belief you may have life in his name.”

From its earliest beginnings, the Church knew the power of sign and story. When they wrote the Gospels, they had us in mind. We are all Thomas from time to time. We need to see the mercy of God lived and real in our lives. This can happen throughout the circumstances of our daily comings and goings. It can also happen through meditating on the Scripture, through placing ourselves in the stories and listening to God’s voice speaking. We don't get to see what the disciples got to see, but we know, through them, that God always has us in mind. As he reminds the disciples, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

We must pray without tiring, for the salvation of mankind does not depend on material success; nor on sciences that cloud the intellect. Neither does it depend on arms and human industries, but on Jesus alone.
- St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday

This Sun., April 28th, we will have a Divine Mercy Prayer Service from 2-3:30pm. Mary Braun-Payne will present a talk on Divine Mercy. There will also be Confessions, Adoration, Benediction and we will pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet together. On April 30, 2000, Pope John Paul II announced that the Second Sunday of Easter would be Divine Mercy Sunday. Our Lord told St. Faustina that on this day, “the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet… Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy. …there must also be acts of mercy, which arise out of love for Me." Please come to the Prayer Service this Sunday to celebrate this feast day that is a “refuge for sinners.” If you would like to learn more, visit www.thedivinemercy.org.

WARNING:
We have been made aware of a SCAM targeting our parishioners. Fr. John Paul will NEVER ask for money or gift cards via email. DO NOT reply to any email of this type that you receive. If you are not sure, you may contact Trudy at 303-953-7769.

2019 Archbishop’s Catholic Appeal

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday and Announcement Weekend for the 2019 Archbishop’s Catholic Appeal. One powerful expression of gratitude to God for His infinite mercy shown to us is by extending mercy to others. Your donation to the Archbishop’s Catholic Appeal will fund archdiocesan ministries that extend mercy, compassion, and assistance to others. Please visit www.archden.org/givetoday to make your gift today or call 303-867-0614.

Congratulations on Last Year’s ACA

Your generosity to last year’s Archbishop’s Catholic Appeal has resulted in a rebate to St. Frances Cabrini in the amount of $12,142, which was used to help serve our parishioners. The appeal rebate occurs when parishes exceed their ACA fundraising goal and receive money back, which they can use to benefit the parish. Thank you for your generosity!

Prayers for our Priests and Changes for This Week

Please pray for our priests and all the priests in the Archdiocese of Denver. They are at the Priest Convocation this week. Because of this, on Tues., Wed. and Thurs. this week, there will not be Mass, there will be Communion Services.

There will be no Confessions on Tues. evening, April 30th.

Please join us every weekday morning, Monday - Friday, at 8:20am in the Church to pray the Rosary. All are welcome!

“...I fear nothing.”

At this time, we have a need for healthy snack bars for children, canned ravioli, canned tuna/chicken, cereal, canned fruit, canned carrots/peas, toilet paper and $10.00 grocery gift cards.

Please be sure to double check expiration dates as we are not able to shelf or distribute expired food. Your continued generosity is greatly appreciated!

Adult Faith Formation
The new Catholics who received their Sacraments at Easter Vigil are just beginning their journey of Faith. They have learned together, prayed together and have found support in our community. It is now time for us to welcome them into our lives and ministries in a deeper way. Please don’t hesitate to share your knowledge and love for the Lord with them. Their Catholic classmates are still awaiting Confirmation in May, so please continue to keep in prayer the adults, children and teens preparing for their full initiation into the Church as well.

We cannot serve those seeking the Catholic Faith without a stellar group of educators, guest speakers, catechists and sponsors. Thank you to Karen, Heidi, Al, Adrienne, Mary, Chris, Joe, Tony, Kristen, Savannah, Joe, Deacon Chet and Father John Paul for the gift of their service to our students this year.

For all of you reading this who are wondering if this is the time for you to learn more about the Catholic Faith, now is the time. If you are thinking that this may be the year to finally complete your Confirmation, this is the year. Do not wait to answer God’s call! Ocean of Mercy on FORMED.org

Filmed on location in more than twenty cities across Poland and the United States, this true story examines and chronicles the phenomenal lives and spiritual legacy of St. Faustina Kowalska, St. Maximilian Kolbe, and Pope St. John Paul II, modern day “Apostles of Mercy.” Through never before seen film footage, rare photographs, and extensive interviews with friends, biographers, and family members, this story journeys across a dramatic visual landscape to document their heroic struggles and herald the message of Divine Mercy to all mankind. Baptism Classes
Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. -CCC 1213

It is a requirement that parents attend a baptism class prior to the baptism of their child so they may be adequately prepared and understand their spiritual obligations. Godparents are welcome and encouraged to attend. Parents are also invited to register in the parish. We celebrate many baptisms in our community, so we recommend contacting us prior to the birth of your child. To register for the class or to schedule your child’s baptism, call Joy at 303-953-7766.
