For the death which they thought to inflict on Him as dishonor and disgrace has become the glorious monument to death's defeat.

— St. Athanasius

May 5, 2019 | Third Sunday of Easter
Meditating on the Gospel

3rd Sunday of Easter

"Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.'" Peter is a favorite apostle for many people. I wonder if it is because of his flawed, relatable humanity. Today's Gospel takes place after Jesus appears to the disciples and breathes the Holy Spirit upon them. And yet, Peter finds himself returning to his old way of life, to comfortable habits he formed long before following Jesus. Is something still lingering in him? Is something still lingering in us? Lent is over, and we should be rejoicing! But do you feel like you're still holding onto something? Or perhaps you had an excellent Lent. You encountered Jesus in a new way and grew in faith. But as the weeks since Easter have slipped by, some of your newfound devotion has begun to waver. The closeness you felt in your Lenten commitments has given way to humdrum status quo or turn-of-the-season busyness.

"Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter has endured so much in his walk of discipleship! But something is still weighing on him. In today's Gospel, Jesus confirms Peter's devotion three times, a redemption of his earlier threefold denial. The call of the Lord must come again, as if heard anew for the first time. So often, this is the pattern of the Christian life. We discover God and experience a new desire for our faith, but in time, our enthusiasm begins to wane. Perhaps something happens that startles us, or we startle ourselves by a poor decision. Then we discover God anew! Our joy returns...for a while. Even the Apostles were no strangers to the cyclical nature of spiritual growth. Our disappointments or frustrations should not be cause for giving up. Like Peter, we too can recommit and start anew. This Sunday and every day of our lives, Jesus is waiting to say again, "Follow me."

They are an independent private corporation, nonpolitical, nonsectarian and interdenominational. If you would like more information please see their website at birthlinecolorado.org.

“Do you love me?”

John 21

The Lord also asks each one of us, “Do you love me?” How do we show Him we love Him? Do we spend time with Him? Come to the peace and quiet of the Adoration Chapel and sit with Jesus. Here, you will encounter the true, Living Presence of our Risen Lord, veiled in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. He loves you and is waiting for you, longing for you, to visit Him.

Please consider signing up for a regular hour.

We are blessed here at St. Frances Cabrini to have the Adoration Chapel open 24 hours/day, seven days/week. In order for the Chapel to remain open, we need people to commit to an hour. There are a couple of early morning hours available when the chapel is very quiet. Please sign up online at www.sfcparish.org on the Adoration Ministry page.

Open hours: Sun: 10am; Mon: 5am; Tues: 5am & 9am; Thurs: 4pm; Fri: 12am, 1am, 2am, 2pm & 6pm; Sat: 11am & 6pm

Healing Masses at St. Frances Cabrini

The next Healing Mass will be on Mon., May 20th, at 7pm.

This Healing Mass will be offered in reparation for the sins committed by cardinals, bishops, priests and deacons, for all sins committed by clergy and lay people against the commandments of our Lord, as well as to pray for healing for the victims of sin.

God is always with us to heal us and comfort us in our sufferings. These Masses are special opportunities to invite the Holy Spirit to touch you deeply and heal those emotional, physical or spiritual places that are in need of God’s healing graces. Please join us to praise God and be open to how He wishes to work in our lives as we humbly come before Him, who is rich in mercy. If you have any questions, please contact Fr. Adult Faith Formation

The new Catholics who received their Sacraments at Easter Vigil are just beginning their journey of Faith. They have learned together, prayed together and have found support in our community. It is now time for us to welcome them into our lives and ministries in a deeper way. Please don’t hesitate to share your knowledge and love for the Lord with them. Their Catholic classmates are still awaiting Confirmation in May, so please continue to keep in prayer the adults, children and teens preparing for their full initiation into the Church as well.

We cannot serve those seeking the Catholic Faith without a stellar group of educators, guest speakers, catechists and sponsors. Thank you to Karen, Heidi, Al, Adrienne, Mary, Chris, Joe, Tony, Kristen, Savannah, Joe, Deacon Chet and Father John Paul for the gift of their service to our students this year.

For all of you reading this who are wondering if this is the time for you to learn more about the Catholic Faith, now is the time. If you are thinking that this may be the year to finally complete your Confirmation, this is the year. Do not wait to answer God’s call! Make time to contact Joy at 303-953-7766 to find out how our RCIA 2019-2020 class.

What’s in the Kiosk?

In our kiosk in the Gathering Space, there are many books, pamphlets, DVDs and CDs to enrich your faith. One of the CDs is “What’s So Great about Being Catholic?” by Jason Evert. There’s ultimately only one reason to be Catholic: because it’s true. In this outstanding presentation, Jason Evert shows us the beauty and the treasures of the Faith, as revealed through the Saints and Sacraments. Jason has spoken about the Catholic Faith to more than one million people around the world and is the author of more than a dozen books, including Saint John Paul the Great: Pure Faith and If You Really Loved Me. For more information about Lighthouse offerings, please contact Joy at 303-953-7766.

Unplanned: Behind the Scenes on FORMED.org

Go behind the scenes of Unplanned, the inspiring true story of one woman’s journey of transformation. All Abby Johnson ever wanted to do was help women. As one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in the nation, she fought to enact legislation for the cause she so deeply believed in. Until the day she saw something that changed everything, leading Abby to join her former enemies at 40 Days For Life, and become one of the most ardent pro-life speakers in America. This feature includes behind the scene interviews with Abby Johnson, Ashley Bratcher (who plays the role of Abby in the film), the screenplay writers, and more! Discover the many offerings (movies, documentaries, studies, talks, fiction and nonfiction books and more) on Formed for yourself! Go to www.sfcparish.formed.org today and register for free!

Baptism Classes

Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. -CCC 1213

It is a requirement that parents attend a baptism class prior to the baptism of their child so they may be adequately prepared and understand the spiritual obligations. Godparents are welcome and encouraged to attend. Parents are also invited to register in the parish. We celebrate many baptisms in our community, so we recommend contacting us prior to the birth of your child. To register for the class or to schedule your child’s baptism, call Joy at 303-953-7766.
