Formation for the Permanent Diaconate:

If you have been thinking about giving preparation for the Permanent Diaconate a try, the time to check this out is HERE! We will be beginning a new Discernment Group this September, 2021. We will begin with a much less formal process we are calling "Discernment Year One". If you have ever thought about becoming a Deacon but thought, "Not now", or "Maybe Later", this process might be just right for you. We will be holding eight monthly Saturday sessions in Sept, Oct, Nov, Dec, Feb, Mar, April, and May. If you are even MILDLY interested, or just want information about who a deacon is and what a deacon does, these sessions are for YOU. There will be no pressure to continue on to "Discernment Year Two" unless you are beginning to feel a call from God that diaconate might be for you and your family. It is during Year Two that the formal application process must be fully completed no later than January 15, 2023. We hope to offer these Saturday sessions in Durango, Alamosa, Grand Junction, and Pueblo. We may combine locations during Year One if we cannot maintain a group of at least five couples in each location. If you are interested, or simply want to know more about being a deacon, why not check this out! All you need to do is drop an email to dleetch@dioceseofpueblo.org, smspm2@aol.com, jerry-mleblanc@gmail.com, or deaconmike@gunnisoncatholic.org and we will supply the information you need to get started! The places and dates of the "Discernment Year One" gatherings will be available soon!

STEWARDSHIP CORNER (Saints who practiced Stewardship)

Saint John Neumann

St. John Neumann was born in Bohemia in 1811 and came to the United States where he was ordained a priest in 1836. Four years later he became a Redemptorist and at age forty-one, he was ordained Bishop of Philadelphia. Gifted in languages he could hear confessions in at least six languages including Spanish, French, Italian, and Dutch. As bishop, he worked tirelessly to establish parochial schools being the first to organize a diocesan Catholic school system. In his eight years as bishop, he increased the number of Catholic grammar schools in his diocese from two to 100. St. John Neumann's good stewardship of his gifts and position of influence as Bishop -- and resulting in the evangelization of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

St. Ephrem

St. Ephrem was a deacon. He was born in Nisibis, Mesopotamia early in the 4th century. The Roman Catholic Church honors Saint Ephrem of Syria, a deacon, hermit, and Doctor of the Church.

He had a prolific pen and used his poetic gift with words to preach against the heresies of his day. He took upon himself the special task of opposing the many false doctrines rampant at his time, always remaining a true and forceful defender of the Catholic Church. Spreading faith through song, he wrote hymns against the heretics of his day taking songs of the heretical groups and using their melodies to compose hymns embodying orthodox doctrine. Ephrem became one of the first to introduce song into the Church's public worship as a means of instruction for the faithful. His songs taught doctrine to people who had no formal education, and earned him the nickname, "the harp of the Holy Spirit." Ephrem used the gifts given to him tirelessly for the good of the Church.

He was declared a Doctor of the Church in the Catholic Church in 1920. He was canonized by Pope Benedict XV on October 5, 1920. His feast day is celebrated on 28 January and on the Saturday of the Venerable Fathers.
