Covid Information: Masks are strongly encouraged at masses and reconciliation. Please remember masks are required at the 4 pm Saturday and 11:30 am Sunday mass. Please share the sign of peace with a wave or other gesture for those outside your household. We continue to request that those desiring to receive communion on the tongue would do so at the end of the communion procession. Thank you for your continued prayerfulness, patience, and charity in these days!

Hospital Visits: At the moment the hospital is not allowing priests in for hospital visits. We do have technological means to help family members such as phone or Zoom. However, Memorial Hospital of Sweetwater does allow priests to visit for end life situations. Please contact the parish office if your loved one is in need of a priest and we will see how we can best assist them.

SCM Church Organ: As we begin to bring music back to our celebrations, we have found that our organ is in need of refurbishing. With environmental swings of dryness, blowing snow, and heavy rains coupled with the inactivity over the last 18 months we have found the organ to be inoperable.

The age of the organ (almost 100 years old) requires special knowledge to refurbish. We are working to get an evaluation and estimate of the extent of needed repairs.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly.

While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. - Lk 9:29-31

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS

Local businesses and sponsors that advertise on bulletins need you now more than ever before. Please encourage and remind others to show their support during this time.

The Gift of Lent

The Season of Lent is a gift from God

1. Clip the Lenten Regulations out of the bulletin and tack them in a prominent place for all in the household to know what is to be observed.
2. Suggested reading is the Gospel of Mark. Let's set the goal that by the end of Lent, all of us will have read the Gospel of Mark. It is the first and shortest of the Gospels. It opens with, "The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God". Great way to start, but Mark's Gospel has no ending. Two endings have been tacked on but you can tell they do not fit. The absence of an ending is intentional. Each of us is to write our own ending, but not our own Gospel. During this Lent read the Gospel of Mark from the beginning through chapter 15 verse 8. As you read pray to be transformed by the words and converted. Then on Easter Sunday, begin writing your ending with verse 9 saying what you want to say as the lead line for your conclusion to the Gospel of Mark.
3. Think of the one person among your acquaintances you will directly invite back to regular church attendance and participation. It could be family, a relative, a co-worker, a friend, a spouse, etc.
4. Daily Mass is a great Lenten practice. If you cannot attend daily, pick one day when the applied intention is for a family member or friend and attend on that day to pray for him/her.
5. Almsgiving is a traditional Lenten practice. You could bring a non-perishable food item for the poor, given out from Loaves & Fishes Soup Kitchen & Pantry the first weekend of the month. These are weekends when we also take financial offerings for the poor.
6. Stations of the Cross and Benediction are favorite devotions.

The Way of the Cross is celebrated in English at 6 pm, SCM Church and in Spanish 7pm at SCM Church on Fridays.

7. Emphasize family prayer. These can be simple prayers before going to bed such as, with family holding hands, "Heavenly Father keep us in your love so that we may awaken in the morning refreshed for another day in your company. Amen." Do something daily with the family.

WorldWide Marriage Encounter Experience: Do you ever see yourself as grateful that you are still married? You made it past the 7-year itch? Or a 25-year milestone? Do you still see the Face of God in the spouse you married? The Marriage Encounter Experience is an opportunity to "transfigure" your marriage. Be dazzled by your spouse and receive blessings as countless as the stars over Abraham's head. Trust the process and this gift of our Church. Welcome to the Historic Elk Mountain Hotel, April 22-24. To register or for information on other Experiences check our website: wwme.org or call: (307)-298-0617.

Mass Attendance: We have asked Hospitality Ministers to count attendance at Mass at every weekend Mass so we are able to evaluate our needs for Masses. You may want to use these numbers because you'd like a bit more elbow room or perhaps you'd like to see more people in one place... so here you go, weekly attendance counts!
