ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT
Tuesdays 8:00 am - 8:00 pm

*"Know that the LORD is God;
He made us, His we are;
His people, the flock He tends."*

— Psalm 100:3

Today, the Fourth Sunday of Easter, is also known as Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus refers to us, His followers, as His sheep in today's Gospel reading. Let us pray that we may always follow our Good Shepherd, truly present for us in the Blessed Sacrament. Adoration is available to all every Tuesday and on First Fridays from 8 AM to 8 PM.

This week, we have need of an adorer at 1 PM, 2 PM, and 5 PM. You can access the sign up by clicking on any Tuesday Adoration event on the calendar on our website.

Congratulations to our Cosgriff and Religious Education students who received their First Holy Communion last Sunday, May 4th!

Bible Bits

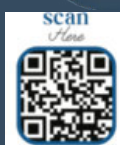

May 11, 2025:

The First Reading for the Fourth Sunday of Easter is Acts 13:14, 43-52. It excludes verses 16-41, wherein we are told the Apostle Paul is preaching to the Jews gathered in the synagogue of Antioch of Pisidia. Paul says the Church is actually the fulfillment of Pharisaic Judaism — that it's the logical conclusion of being a Jew. Paul always preached to the Jews first, and then to the Gentiles (e.g. Acts 24:10-21 and 26:2-23). When he preached the Gospel, his words were favorably received, and so he was invited to return on the next Sabbath to preach more; but via word of mouth, a large number of Gentiles from the city were also attracted, and that was very upsetting to the Jews. So, they exhibited hostility to Paul and others in his company. The Apostle says to the Jews (verse 46), "since you reject [God's word]...we now turn to the Gentiles." Whether Jew or Gentile, according to verse 48, "All who were destined for eternal life came to believe."

Are you or someone you know interested in learning more about the Catholic Church?

Initiation of Adults (RCIA/OCIA) meets Tuesdays at 7:00 pm in the Vaughan Center.

This Week's Topic: Liturgy

The word "liturgy" comes from a Greek word meaning "public service." This week, Chris Huntzinger, our parish Director of Liturgy, will present a deeper look at the Mass, the primary public prayer of the Catholic Church.

If you or someone you know have been considering learning more about Catholicism or thinking about joining the Church, come check out the initiation process at St. Ambrose! The process is ongoing, and we have both in-person and virtual options for participation. For more information and to be added to our RCIA mailing list, contact Sarah Maland at 801-485-9324 or by e-mail at stambrosehbbc@gmail.com.

Safe Environment Codes of Conduct DID YOU KNOW? The Diocese of Salt Lake City has established Codes of Conduct for adults and youth minors, which require all priests, seminarians, deacons, religious, educators, employees, and volunteers who work or volunteer at diocesan parishes, schools, or organizations to exhibit the highest ethical standards, accountability, personal integrity, and appropriate conduct and boundaries when working with minors and vulnerable adults. The Codes of Conduct are intended to promote responsible behavior and Christian values while creating a nurturing and safe environment. For further information, visit <https://www.dioslc.org/offices/office-of-safe-environment>.
