He started as the girls' basketball coach in 2006 and became the track and field coach the following year. He was the boys' basketball coach for 3 years and helped coach the golf team. Book Club

Who is God? If we want to love God and make Him the center of our lives, we need to be able to answer this question. Join us for our next Book Club series on the book "God, What Every Catholic Should Know" beginning Feb. 2 at 7pm in the social center. This study will help us clean up any misconceptions about God with a focus on the nature of God, the Trinity and the Incarnation. Books will be available the night of class or in the office for $5 each. All are welcome. For questions please contact the office.

Catholic Community Services

Joyce Hansen Hall Food Bank needs volunteers. The food bank needs volunteers to assist in stocking shelves, greeting clients, assisting clients as they pick out groceries and other projects around the food pantry. Flexible volunteer shifts are available Monday to Friday from 8am to 3pm. Please contact Rachel Martin, Volunteer Coordinator, at 801-428-1295 or martin@ccsutah.org for more information.

St. Florence Classes

All are welcome to join St. Florence in Bishop Barron's "The Creed—Light from Light." Classes begin Tuesday, January 18 at 7pm. Please contact Chris Kennedy, 801-949-2026, for more information.

Faith Formation News

Our spiritual life is a series of battles. Every day brings its own challenges—opportunities to do good and temptations to do wrong. Receiving Holy Communion is a source of strength for us. It gives us the grace we need to do battle with evil. It assures us that we can overcome the temptations we encounter. And it also gives us the strength that we need to do the will of God in our lives. Every one of us has a mission from God. If we don't fulfill our mission, it does not get done. The Eucharist empowers us to know and complete our mission every day.
