3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free.

Book Club

Who is God? If we want to love God and make Him the center of our lives, we need to be able to answer this question. Join us for our next Book Club series on the book "God, What Every Catholic Should Know" beginning Feb. 2 at 7pm in the social center. This study will help us clean up any misconceptions about God with a focus on the nature of God, the Trinity and the Incarnation. Books will be available the night of class or in the office for $5 each. All are welcome. For questions please contact the office.

Adorers Needed

Please prayerfully consider making a commitment to spend one hour per week with our Lord at Adoration.

Perhaps you and a friend would like to share the one-hour commitment by each doing just two days a month. Your whole family can be involved by each member doing one day a month. Why not become a substitute? Adoration time is so very precious in the eyes of our Lord and the fruit of your endeavor is abundant blessings!!

Adoration days and times are:

Wed-Thurs-Fri from 9am to 6pm

Please call the office if you are able to help.

Faith Formation News

There is a difference between a Catholic church and churches of other Christian denominations. Jesus Christ is always present in a Catholic church in the Blessed Sacrament that is reserved in the tabernacle. We know that Christ is present when we see a lamp burning near the tabernacle. Night and day, Jesus is always there for us to visit. So many people do not take the opportunity to come and spend time with Jesus outside of Mass. And many don't even come to Mass to receive him in Holy Communion. Both receiving Jesus and coming to pray in his presence give us spiritual fuel. We should stay close to Jesus in the Eucharist and encourage others to do the same.
