FLAME OF LOVE PRAYER GROUP

Sunday, November 1, 1:30 p.m., in the Adoration Chapel

This prayer group relies on the Diary of Elizabeth Kindelmann of Budapest, Hungary. We pray the Unity Prayer and The Flame of Love Rosary. Our focus is on the five effects of the Flame of Love: to blind satan, to save the family, to free souls from Purgatory, to save souls, and to convert the World.

From the desk of Father John

When I was attending Mount Angel Seminary, studying for the priesthood, my History Professor, Fr. Blase, a Benedictine Monk of Mount Angel Abbey, pointed out numerous times that in the Middle Ages, communities in Europe preferred to have a Patron Saint of their Parish that had a Feast Day in the Fall, for then they had a justifiable reason to have a harvest celebration. I have never been completely convinced that this is true. But it is interesting to ponder the reason why a Parish has a particular Patron Saint. Googling the process for selecting a Patron Saint of a Parish I found an article that stated the Pastor and the Parishioners propose a Saint based on local devotion, regional heritage, or specific connection to the community, making the request to the local Bishop who accepts it or makes a different choice.

From my own personal knowledge, I agree with the information contained in this article. It is my understanding that the Patron Saint of our Parish, Immaculate Heart of Mary, was chosen by the Archbishop of Santa Fe. St. Patrick the Patron Saint of the Newman Center at New Mexico Tech in Socorro was proposed by the students at New Mexico Tech and was approved by the Archbishop of Santa Fe. At St. Jude Thaddeus Parish in Albuquerque, St. Jude was suggested by Catholic Extension Society which had provided funds to the Parish, the Parishioners in appreciation for the financial help forwarded the suggestion to the Archbishop of Santa Fe and he approved it. It is also my understanding that in the 1800's the Parish in Socorro, New Mexico asked the Bishop to change its Patron Saint from Our Lady of Perpetual Help to San Miguel, this request was granted. From the information that I have shared there are many reasons for the Patron Saint to be chosen for a Parish, but in the end the Parton Saint, like all Saints, provide an example for us to be inspired by as we live our faith daily.

At this point it might be wise to turn to the history of the Feast of All Saints. The Feast of All Saints has its roots in the consecration of the Pantheon in Rome to the Virgin Mary and to all the Martyrs on May 13 in 609, by Pope Saint Boniface IV (550-615). It was Pope Saint Gregory III (unknown-741), in the 8th century who moved the Feast of All Saints to November 1st. In the 9th century the Feast of All Saints became a Holy Day of Obligation with a decree from Pope Gregory IV (unknown-844).

Scholars have speculated that the reason that Pope Gregory III moved the Feast of All Saints from May 13th to November 1st was to provide a Fall Feast Day for all communities in the Catholic Church so that everyone could celebrated the harvest and have one last gathering before Winter sets in. This might seem like an interesting reason to change the date of the feast day. It is important to note that in 8th century Europe, life was very centered on the Church and the celebrations of the Church. Having a Feast Day that all communities could celebrate in the harvest time enables the faithful to gather and celebrate the bounty that God has provided.

It was on November 2, 998 at the Abbey of Cluny in France that the first All Soul's Day was celebrated to remember the priests and brothers of the Abbey that had passed away. Saint Odilo (962-1049) the Abbot of Cluny invited other monasteries to join the Cluny Abbey in celebrating what would become the Feast of All Souls. The celebration was soon adopted in several dioceses in France and spread throughout the western Church. It was accepted by Rome and became a universal Feast by the 14th century.

A legend that relates to the founding of the Feast of All Soul's is provided by Saint Peter Damiani (1007-1072) who wrote Life of St. Odilo. In this book there is an account of a pilgrim returning from the Holy Land who was cast by a storm on a desolate island. A hermit living on the island told him that he had heard demons complaining of the power of the prayers of the faithful, especially the prayers of the monks of Cluny in rescuing their victims. Upon returning home the pilgrim journeyed to the Abbey of Cluny and informed the Abbot Odilo about what the hermit had told him. It was then that Abbot Odilo set November 2nd as a day of intercession on the part of the Abbey of Cluny for all the faithful departed.

For us today in the 21st century we have two feasts that date back to the 7th and 10th centuries that provide us with an opportunity to be inspired by the saints and to pray for the faithful departed. From the very start of both feasts, there was and is a connection to prayer, praying for the intercession of the saints and praying for those who have departed from this world. —Fr. John
