Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord - April 14, 2019 / Domingo de Ramos - 14 de abril del 2019

As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. — Lk 19:36, 37b

Scriptures from the Lectionary for Palm Sunday, 1988, 1970 CCD

Conforme iba avanzando [Jesús], la gente tapizaba el camino con sus mantos, y la multitud de discípulos, entusiasmados, se pusieron a alabar a Dios a gritos por todos los prodigios que habían visto. — Lc 19, 36, 37

Legend of the Donkey's Cross

A poor farmer near Jerusalem owned a donkey far too small to do much work at all. He felt that he couldn't afford to feed a worthless animal like this, one that could do him no good whatsoever, so at the supper table he told his family that he was going to kill the donkey.

His children, who loved the little donkey, begged him to sell it rather than harm it. But the farmer said, "It's wrong to sell an animal that can't do a good day's work."

Then his oldest daughter suggested, "Father, tie the donkey to a tree on the road to town, and say whoever wants it may take it for nothing." And the next morning, that's what the farmer did.

Soon, two men approached and asked if they could have the donkey. "It can carry almost nothing," the farmer warned them.

"Jesus of Nazareth has need of it," replied one of the men. The farmer couldn't imagine what a great teacher would want with such a worthless donkey, but he handed it over.

The men took the animal to Jesus, who stroked the grateful donkey's face and then mounted it and rode away. So it was on the day we call Palm Sunday, Jesus led his followers into the city of Jerusalem riding on the back of a small, common donkey.

The donkey so loved his gentle master that he later followed him to Calvary. Grief-stricken by the sight of Jesus on the cross, the donkey turned away but couldn't leave. It was then that the shadow of the cross fell upon the shoulders and back of the donkey, and there it stayed. All donkeys have borne the sign of the cross on their backs since that very day.

SMCS would like to recognize an extremely talented 1st grade student, Brooklyn Mascarenas. Brooklyn has been signing since she was 3 years old, during which time her dad encouraged her to learn the National Anthem. Over the past few years Brooklyn has been working with our Music Director, Mrs. TerMeer, to not only perfect the vocals of the song, but to also learn the importance and meaning behind the National Anthem.

After practicing in front of family members, she was later asked to sing for the Grantsville Baseball opening ceremonies, which took place on April 13th.

Brooklyn's hard work, dedication, and passion for singing have paid off!! With the help of her parents, she recorded a video that was submitted to the Salt Lake Bees. Based on her video audition, she was selected and on Wednesday, April 24, 2019, Brooklyn will sing the National Anthem at the Bees baseball game.

We are so proud of Brooklyn and cannot wait to hear you sing at the upcoming game! Congratulations on this accomplishment.
