Second Sunday of Lent - March 8, 2020

Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma - 8 de marzo del 2020

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." — Mt 17:4-5

Entonces Pedro le dijo a Jesús: "Señor, ¡qué bueno sería quedarnos aquí! Si quieres, haremos aquí tres chozas, una para ti, otra para Moisés y otra para Elías". Cuando aún estaba hablando, una nube luminosa los cubrió y de ella salió una voz que decía: "Este es mi Hijo muy amado, en quien tengo puestas mis complacencias; escúchenlo". — Mt 17, 4-5

When Does Mass Begin?

People have often asked me when Holy Mass begins. Is it at the Entrance Hymn? Is it when we come into the Church? Is it at the Sign of the Cross that the people and priest make together? Well, I firmly believe that Holy Mass actually begins when we are at home preparing to leave for Holy Mass. Our frame of mind and heart is very important. Are we screaming up the stairs to the children, "Get your fannies down here or we'll be late again?" or to our spouses: "Hurry up, you're always so slow, what's the matter with you?" Or maybe we have plans after Mass and all our thoughts are on the dinner or preparation for the afternoon when we get home, or going out for breakfast right after Mass.

Holy Mass begins with us at home, preparing to meet Jesus in the Holy Mass, in all the wonderful and holy prayers, the Holy Scriptures where God speaks to us, the hymns, the homily that helps us understand and gives us explanations and direction, bringing the gifts up to the Holy Altar, which includes the very Gift of ourselves to God and placing our love for God and everyone else on the Holy Altar of Sacrifice. It is kneeling at the Holy Consecration and adoring Jesus present to us in that tiny little Host! It is coming forward to receive Jesus with a pure heart and mind and soul, focusing on the Lord, welcoming Him into us – Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. It is coming back to our seats thanking God (the very word "Eucharist" means "Thanksgiving"), knowing that we are now living and breathing Tabernacles of the Lord and that we now bring Jesus to everyone we meet and everywhere we go! The Holy Mass is timeless. We enter a bit of Eternity in every Holy Mass.

There is no need whatsoever to bring a watch to Mass and look at it. There is no need to have a cell phone in the Church with us, none whatsoever. One hour with God, with no distractions. Such beauty! Such peace! United in Holy Prayer with all our sisters and brothers in the Lord, with the priest in Persona Christi. We adore, we are One with God in so special a way.

Reflection: God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we may have to struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness, and greed. Yet God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful."

Reflexión: Dios nos llama a todos a dejar atrás nuestras viejas costumbres y a seguirlo, confiando completamente en Él. Algunas de las viejas costumbres que tendremos que luchar por dejar atrás podrían ser el materialismo, el egoísmo y la codicia. Sin embargo, Dios promete mostrarnos una nueva tierra y una mejor manera de vivir. Recuerda lo que dijo Santa Teresa de Calcuta: "Dios no nos llama a tener éxito, Dios nos llama a ser fieles".

My Dear Brothers and Sisters!

Called with a sacred calling.

Looking in front of me, what do I see?
I see the Lord's children gathered in a community of faith to celebrate the Second Sunday of Lent. Our Christian gathering, one of thousands taking place around the world today, is a perfect example of how God's grace is working through each and every one of us to merge as one Body.

Today's first reading from the Book of Genesis involves the divine call of Abraham to become the spiritual father of God's people. Abraham's appearance in history marked a new era. In the seventy-fifth year of Abraham, God intervened in the course of history, reforming his future to embrace his Divine Plan of salvation through faith in Jesus Christ.

God promised Abram that from him He would make a great nation, that He would bless him and make his name great so that Abram would be a blessing to many. As we learn from St. Paul Letter to the Romans, in Abraham the promise was fulfilled that he would become the father of many nations. Abraham was the first of many to be made righteous not by the law, but by the righteousness of faith.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, today's three readings remind us that the Heavenly Father sent his only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, to save us through the grace and mercy of a loving God who never abandoned us to sin and death. Before we were created, the Lord God called us with a holy calling. Through Christ, He showed us the way, the truth and the life.

May God bless you, and please continue praying for me,

Fr. Rafael
