19th Sunday in Ordinary Time - August 9, 2020
Décimo Noveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
9 de Agosto del 2020

Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"

Entonces le dijo Pedro: "Señor, si eres tú, mandame ir a ti caminando sobre el agua". Jesús le contestó: "Ven". Pedro bajó de la barca y comenzó a caminar sobre el agua hacia Jesús, pero al sentir la fuerza del viento, se sintió temblar, comenzó a hundirse y gritó: "Señor, Señor!"

Congratulations Confirmandi!

To our Confirmandi who completed their initiation into the Catholic Church on Friday, July 31: We pray you will discover the gifts God has blessed you with, along with your vocation, as you grow in our parish family.

Greetings to all my brothers and sisters in Christ!

All three readings today's share a common denominator. During the first reading from the First Book of Kings, we heard that Elijah had gone to a cave at Horeb, the mountain of God, where he stayed for 40 days. Why was Elijah in the cave? He was hiding there because Jezebel, Ahab's wife, had sent a messenger to inform him of her intention to kill him.

During the second reading, we heard how Saint Paul was saddened by Israel's unbelief and rejection of the Lord. Expressing the great love that he had for his own countrymen, Paul was willing to undergo the worst possible fate, being separated from Christ, if that could save those he loved.

During the reading from the Gospel of Matthew, we heard that when St. Peter started walking on the water towards Jesus, he became frightened and started to sink. Consequently, he called out to Jesus, "Lord, save me!" This is the common denominator! "Lord, save me!"

They all called on the Lord to save them. Our ancestors called upon the Lord to save them. Our grandparents called upon the Lord to save them. Our parents called upon the Lord to save them. And most of us will call upon the Lord to save us if we have not done so already.

Next time, when an affliction crosses our path, rather than saying, "Lord, save me!", we should consider saying, "Lord, what do you want me to learn from this cross?" Then, once we have learned the spiritual lesson that the Heavenly Father allowed to be placed before us, having understood why the finger of God has touched our lives, the affliction should disappear. Having been strengthened in Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit, we can then continue in our spiritual growth. We will be ready to welcome the next affliction to learn the next lesson so we can all become great saints on earth as we will be in Heaven.

Fr. Rafael

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary August 15

Roman Catholics believe the doctrine of the Assumption, which teaches that at the end of her life, Mary, the mother of Christ, was taken body and soul (i.e. both physically and spiritually) into heaven to live with her son Jesus Christ for ever.

Human beings have to wait until the end of time for their bodily resurrection, but Mary's body was able to go straight to heaven because her soul hadn't been tainted by original sin.

Catholics celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary on August 15, this year is not a holy day of obligation.
