“Dichosas serán ustedes cuando los injurien, los persigan y digan cosas falsas de ustedes por causa mía. Alegrarse y sentirse de contento, porque su premio será grande en los cielos.” — Mt 5: 10-12

Every November we have a Mass in honor of All Saints. We join with the angels in joyful praise to the Son of God.

The Feast of All Saints underscores two fundamental truths. First, that our basic vocation, our very reason for existence, is holiness of life. Second, that we are a pilgrim people. We have here no lasting home. Our destiny in history is God and his gift of eternal life.

On the heels of All Saints, we remember All Souls. We remember our loved ones who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

Fr. Christopher Gray is pastor of St. Mary of the Assumption Parish in Park City. His article appeared in the Inter Mountain Catholic 2018.

Also remembered are the names written in the Book of Remembrance which will be placed in the sanctuary.

“May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace”. Amen

Reflection: "Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you (falsely) because of me." - Matthew 5:11

We are all at different points on the path to holiness, on getting to Heaven and becoming a saint. Part of the journey is being mocked and ridiculed by others. When this happens, how do you respond? Do you become silent? Do you react in anger or do you react with love? Fortunately, as one Body of Christ, we are united with the saints already in Heaven. Ask your favorite saint for guidance in defending the Faith.

Reflexión: "Bienaventurados ustedes cuando por mi causa los insulten, los persigan y profieran todo tipo de calumnias en su contra (falsamente)". - Mateo 5:11

Todos estamos en diferentes puntos del camino hacia la santidad, para llegar al cielo y convertirnos en santos. Parte del viaje es ser burlado y ridiculizado por otros. Cuando esto sucede, ¿cómo respondes? ¿Te callas? ¿Reaccionas con ira o reacciones con amor? Afortunadamente, como un solo Cuerpo de Cristo, estamos unidos con los santos que ya están en el Cielo. Pídale orientación a su santo favorito para defender tu fe.

Rejoice, your reward is in Heaven!

Brothers and sisters in Christ, this weekend, with joy we celebrate the commemoration of the Feast of All Saints. This feast was instituted in the Eastern Church during the fourth century with the purpose of remembering all the martyrs of the early Church. Gradually, it was developed to include the non-martyrs as well. As such, it can be said that the purpose of this Feast in the Holy Catholic Church serves to commemorate all of our brothers and sisters in Christ, known and unknown, who have passed on to their eternal glory.

This feast also serves to awaken our awareness to the status of our holiness. It reminds us that by the grace of the Heavenly Father, we should continuously strive to be sanctified by the power of the Holy Spirit in Jesus' Holy Name.

On Monday November 2, the Church commands us to remember the faithful departed. In obedience, we do so, praying that when we have departed from this world, others will remember us, pray for us, make sacrifices on our behalf, and most importantly that Holy Masses be celebrated in our name so we may quickly be assured of God's eternal and beatified vision. But for now, let us remember the faithful departed so that what we do in their name may be done in our name when and if we are ever in need of our earthly brothers and sisters in Christ.

As we continue our Christian journey, let us keep in mind that the Kingdom of God belongs to those who carry their crosses, those who persevere in their living faith, to those who fix their eyes on the Lord Jesus. May the Lord strengthen our hearts in holiness that we may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints.

Blessings

Pajama Day - fun and learning.

Middle school students are working to develop their cognitive skills by learning to play chess in Mrs. Whittle's class.

A huge thank you to the Grantsville FFA Chapter and our former students - Teagen, Levi, and Phillip for thinking of Saint Marguerite. Our 2nd & 3rd grade students had a blast and learned so much about the animals.
