It is given so we may blossom in Jesus!

Today's readings echo a wise message of spiritual investment. The good Lord Jesus invested in us, his chosen children. He expects to reap something in return. Anyone involved in business knows that money management emphasizes the importance of getting something in return for your original investment. If the business cannot show a profit, it is a loser. And losers are abandoned in favour of better business opportunities that promise profit.

Today's reading from the Gospel of Matthew includes two stories. The first reminds us of the need to be watchful at all time. The second, the parable of the talents, informs us as to why we must persevere in our living faith, why we must be fruitful in all our thoughts, our words and our actions.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, let us consider ourselves very privileged by God's grace to be aware of the danger of those who neglect their gifts. Let us always thank the Lord for the gift of the Holy Scriptures that remind us from time to time of the reward that awaits those who persevere in their living faith in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. For it is through Christ that we have our assurance that we will not be counted among those who have failed to acknowledge the spiritual gifts they have received through the goodness of the Lord God Almighty.

May the Lord bless you dear families and our country,

Fr. Rafael

And Now November 20, 2020

“Master, you give me five talents. Now, I have made five more.”
 His master said to him, “Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master’s joy.”

“Después de mucho tiempo regresó aquel hombre y llamó a cuentas a sus servidores. Se acercó el que había recibido cinco talentos y les presentó otros cinco, diciendo: ‘Señor, cinco talentos me dejaste; aquí tienes otro cinco, que con ellos he ganado’ ”.

Every Day Stewardship

Reflection: “Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities.” - Matthew 25:21

God calls us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn’t want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, use them wisely and be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us.

Pensamientos Sobre la Corresponsabilidad

Reflexión: "Por lo tanto, permanezcan despiertos, porque no saben ni el día ni la hora". - Mateo 25:13
