Proclaim a year of the Lord's favor!

Dear Parishioners, greetings to you all on this Third Sunday of Advent. We thank God for this wonderful season of grace. The whole month of December is a month of blessing for us Catholics. In this short time of Advent, we are privileged to celebrate the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, patroness of the United States, and the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the entire America continent. The Virgen is the most important figure of Advent. May she protect us.

As Christmas approaches, how appropriate it is for all of us to proclaim a year of the Lord's favor. When I read today's First Reading, I recognized God's prophetic and symbolic language that was being spoken through the great Prophet Isaiah.

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because the Lord has anointed Me." In these Words, we hear those of the Lord Jesus who was sent by God the Father for the salvation of mankind.

The Heavenly Father sent His only begotten Son, Jesus to bring the good news about the coming of the eternal Kingdom. Through Christ, the invisible Kingdom of God was about to be instituted on earth and in Heaven.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, today's heavenly message through the reading of the Holy Scriptures is one of servitude. We are called upon to proclaim a year of the Lord's favor. In a few days, Christmas Day will come upon us. Christmas Day is a special day that commemorates a year of the Lord's favor.

May we all prepare ourselves accordingly so that on Christmas Day, we may celebrate with great joy and righteousness a year of the Lord's favor.

Fr. Rafael

"Rejoice: the Lord is nigh." As Christmas draws near, the Church emphasizes the joy which should be in our hearts over all that the birth of our Savior means for us. The great joy of Christians is to see the day drawing nigh when the Lord will come again in His glory to lead them into His kingdom. The oft-repeated Veni ("Come") of Advent is an echo not only of the prophets but also of the conclusion of the Apocalypse of St. John: "Come, Lord Jesus," the last words of the New Testament.

Today is known as Gaudete Sunday. The term Gaudete refers to the first word of the Entrance Antiphon, "Rejoice". Rose vestments are worn to emphasize our joy that Christmas is near, and we also light the rose candle on our Advent wreath.

Every Day Stewardship

Reflection: All of the people in today's readings – the prophet Isaiah, the Virgin Mary, St. Paul, St. John the Baptist – seemed to understand clearly and rejoice in what God was calling them to be and to do. Do I?

Pensamientos Sobre la Corresponsabilidad

Reflexión: Todas las personas en las lecturas de hoy - el profeta Isaías, la Virgen María, San Pablo, San Juan Bautista - parecían entender claramente y se alegraban en lo que Dios les llamaba a ser y hacer. ¿Lo hago?
