Greetings my brothers and sisters in Christ.

How pleased the Lord God must be to see this beautiful gathering of His children who hunger for spiritual food that comes from the message of the Gospel.

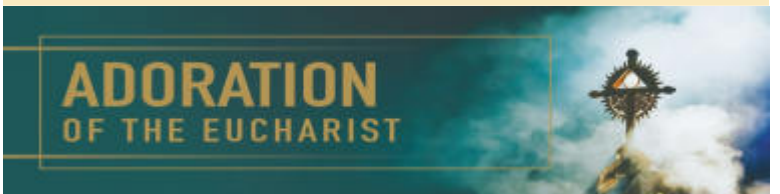

During today's Gospel Reading, we heard of the persistent blind man who said to Jesus, "My Teacher, let me see again." What does it mean to see? Is there not physical and spiritual sight? While physical sight is desirable, spiritual sight is an absolute necessity for our salvation!

When one has spiritual sight, he speaks up against the evils of the world, the falsehoods that are infiltrating the Church. Concerned with the salvation of all his brothers and sisters, he points out the errors that oppose Catholic teachings. And he does not run after false teachings because of supernatural manifestations that surround them, nor read material associated with false teachings. Why? Because such material corrupts the soul, places doubts in the mind and finally corrupts the heart of the individual.

This week, we should all assess our status in the eyes of the Church. Are we all living as faithful Catholics should be living? Or are we embracing false teachings that endanger our faith? Do we have spiritual sight or are we spiritually blind?

I pray that today's Word of God will touch the heart of those who have been spiritually blind so they will find the strength in Christ to walk away from what destroys the faith. And I ask all my brothers and sisters in Christ to join their prayers with mine this week for the grace of God to shine on those in need so their eyes may be opened and remain opened.

Fr. Rafael
