Feast of Pentecost.

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, the 50th day of our Easter season. We just heard in the Book of Acts how the Holy Spirit was given to the followers of Jesus. People from all over the world who were in Jerusalem for the Jewish Festival of Pentecost were surprised to hear someone speaking their own language so far from home.

Soon these followers were able to speak like Jesus did, and they were able to bring healing to those who were sick, like Jesus did. God's breath now gave them new life. It was time for God to be born again, not in one body this time but in a body of believers who would receive the breath of life from their Lord and pass it on to others.

The Church teaches that the Holy Spirit is given to us in our baptism, and this is why Pentecost is one of our baptismal Sundays. This rite of initiation is the beginning of a new life of grace and forgiveness, in which we pray that they will have inquiring and discerning hearts and the gift of joy and wonder in all of God's works.

It also teaches us that each of us have been given a set of gifts by the Spirit, gifts we are to use for the building up of God's church and the transformation of the world with God's love and grace. That means that we are not to hide those gifts under a basket, but to share them with a needy world.

May God empower and renew our faith this day as we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit on this Pentecost.

GOSPEL

God the Father sent the Holy Spirit to take the place of Jesus on earth. When you are at home, in school, or in church, the Holy Spirit helps you learn new words and new skills. He helps you in your studying and praying. The Spirit helps you remember things from last week and last year. The Spirit helps you use this knowledge to lead you to heaven.

PRAYER

Father, I am thankful for the Holy Spirit who helps me learn new things.

LIVING WORD OF GOD

Uniquely Luke

LOOKING AT JESUS THROUGH THE EYES OF THE BELOVED PHYSICIAN

Thirty-five percent of the material in Luke's Gospel is from sources either unknown or unused by the other Gospel writers. Some of our most beloved biblical texts (the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, Zacchaeus, Lazarus and the Rich Man) are among those texts unique to Luke. They offer us a glimpse into the Evangelist's "theological project," what he wants us to know about Jesus. Come walk the Lucan Journey and see his understanding of how the teachings and example of a preacher from a Galilean backwater transformed the center of the greatest empire in the history of the world.
