"And who is my neighbour?" The question to ask in our hearts is, "Towards who must I show love, care, compassion or forgiveness?" In others words, "Towards who must I show unconditional friendship?" To display unconditional friendship towards someone, we must stop dulling our senses. Rather than just seeing a potential act of charity towards others, we must be moved to act in words and actions.

As an unsigned cheque is of no value to us, charity without action towards our neighbors is also of no value. It does not accumulate treasures in Heaven.

Many are the needs of our neighbors. Who is my neighbor? It is the one who needs my friendship, especially those who have not received it as of yet!

The Lord God commanded us to observe His commandments and decrees with all our heart and all our soul. That includes to loves our neighbor. That commandment of Jesus is not too hard. It is not out of our reach, in Heaven or beyond the sea. Our neighbors are all around us. Our obligations consist of raising our children in the faith, providing for the homeless, feeding the hungry, helping the refugees and the immigrants, tending to the seniors, adopting the orphans, defending those who are persecuted, bringing the Gospel to the prisoners, reaching out to the prostitutes, etc... These are our neighbors, my neighbors, your neighbors.

What we do for them, we do for the Lord Jesus. By reaching out to those in need, we reach out to Jesus. By refusing to extend our friendship to those in need, we are withholding our friendship from Jesus.

My brothers and sisters, this week, let each and every one of us review the level of our spiritual relationship with our neighbors.

Are we doing what Jesus wants us to do or are we doing what we want to do? By the grace of God, if the necessity is there, let us reach out to our neighbors in need by extending our friendship as children of God.

What Jesus Doesn't Say

"If Jesus wanted us to (fill in the blank), he would have said so."

We hear this argument applied to every controversial topic under the sun — and even some not-so-controversial topics, too. Whenever someone is trying to make a case for a decision they have already made, they call in Jesus' scriptural silence on the matter as their expert, unimpeachable witness.

And sure, there's much Jesus doesn't talk about in the Gospels. But by this logic, we would have to assume that Jesus doesn't care, for instance, if we drive well over the speed limit (he doesn't discuss cars and highways in the Bible) or what we do online (he never mentions the Internet or websites at all!), when we know that certainly is just not the case.

Like the scholar of the Jewish law who challenges Jesus to define who exactly his "neighbor" is, we can argue semantics all we want. But if we rest in prayer and look deep into our hearts, we know what path we need to take, and it's usually not the easy one.

I find that I do this plenty in ways that are far more subtle. I lament that the situation facing me is not sufficiently "black and white." I become frustrated by the shades of moral grey and toss up my hands, claiming I don't know what the right answer is, insisting that I can't be blamed for the ramifications of whatever decision I make.

What I need to be doing in these situations is asking God for His guidance, even if it makes me nervous. I need to be like the scholar. He was brave enough to ask, even though I think he knew he wouldn't particularly like the answer. Let's strive for that same courage.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

School Spotlight: Alfredo

A huge thanks to our custodian, Alfredo Marquez for the outstanding work he does at our school. From cleaning the bathrooms, to mopping the floor to washing windows daily, Alfredo does it all with a positive attitude and work ethic. No matter what the task, Alfredo is a Team player and willing to help out wherever needed. This summer he's been working hard painting the trim around the door frames, touching up walls, making minor repairs and shampooing carpet. We are so blessed to have him as part of our School Team. Thank you, Alfredo, for all of your service. Your hard work is noticed by all of our staff and school families. Keep up the great work!

Laura Plazola, hard at work getting ready for the new school year! Thanks for your service!
