A Special Message from the Family of Juan Jiron:
Juan Jiron's daughters would like to express our sincere gratitude to all that helped with his funeral services. We realize how much more difficult COVID makes a celebration of life. Special thanks to Monsignor Jerome, Deacon's Greg Romero and John Archuleta. Deacons Pete Garcia and Reuben Roybal for taking communion to Juan the previous year while he was recovering from pneumonia. Thank you to Maria Robinson for her office assistance and Donna Martinez's great help. Grandson Estevan Lujan and son-in-law Sean Ewy for digging the grave; Sean for his beautiful words of remembrance. We appreciate the members of the community for your prayers and love on behalf of our father, Juan. Nuestra Senora de Guadalupe del Valle de Pojoaque was the Parish he prayed in all his life, the Juan Diego Chapel the last years of his life; when it became to difficult for him to enter the main church and certainly once COVID made it unable for him to attend weekly. He continued to pray each day as a shut-in and adored his Parish and prayed for all until his last day. God's blessings to you.
-The Jiron Family

Spiritual Communion:
A spiritual communion can be of value to anyone who desires a deeper union with Christ. It can be made at any time of the day or night. It is especially appropriate for those who find themselves unable to physically receive the Eucharist. For example, those who are not yet Catholic, those who have been away from the church for a long time and who have not yet made a good confession, those who are living in a state of serious sin, as well as those who are sick or homebound.
How does one make a spiritual Communion? Simply by desiring it. One formal prayer is "O Jesus, I turn toward the holy tabernacle where you live hidden for love of me. I Love You, O my God. I cannot receive you in Holy Communion. Come nevertheless and visit me with your grace. Come spiritually into my heart. Purify it. Sanctify it. Render it like unto your own." One need not use a formal prayer, however. A simple "Lord Jesus. Come into my heart" is sufficient, as is imagining Jesus coming into ones heart. As with any other spiritual habit, the more one does it, the easier it will become. There is no limit to the number of times we can ask Jesus to meet us. He desires to be with us.

Receiving Holy Communion (New Directive from Archbishop): Communion will be given by a Deacon or an Acolyte after the final blessing and Mass has ended. The Deacon or Acolyte will proceed to the back of the Church for the distribution of Communion. Please watch for a Mayordomo or Usher to direct you from exiting your pew starting at the back of the church. Once you receive the communion in your hand you will walk approx. 6 feet to the entrance of the Church and face the Altar (look for blue tape markings) then you will lift your mask from the bottom up and reverently consume the Body of Christ. Then proceed out to your car quietly maintaining reverence.
Please maintain social distancing of six feet throughout the distribution of Communion. Please note that gloves may not be worn while receiving the Body of Christ.

The new Missalettes for Lent and Holy Week (Feb. 17-April 10) are now available for pickup during office hours. Visit the Office window to get yours!
