Sunday Reflections:

We like to belong. We like to belong to a family, to a parish, to a community. No one is an island, and we need the love, support and friendship of others in our family and community. Not only do we like to belong, we need to belong. It is not good to be alone. It is for our good to belong. When people move into a town you would hear them say that the people made them welcome or you might hear them say that they joined all the clubs and societies to try to get to know the people and they still felt like outsiders. No one wants to feel as an outsider. We all want to belong. Above all we want and need to belong to our family. When we grow up in a happy family we are all set up for life. If the family environment is less than happy it may leave a scar but those scars can be healed. Before the time of Jesus, people called God “Yahweh” because this is the name given to God very often in the Old Testament. It goes back to when Moses saw the bush burning and asked God his name. “I am who I am” was the name God gave himself which became “Yahweh.” In the first reading Moses reminds the people that they belong to God. What God did for them by leading them out of the slavery of Egypt with many miracles, God did not do for any other people. Therefore, Moses asks them to always remember that the Lord is God and to keep His commandments. Then Jesus came and we knew that there were two persons in God. Before Jesus ascended he promised the Holy Spirit who came at Pentecost and then we knew there were three persons in God. God is a trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is the happiest of families. They are totally united in love for each other. The Father loves the Son, and the Son loves the Father. We call this love of the Father for the Son, and the love of the Son for the Father, the Holy Spirit. Jesus taught about us about his Father. He called his Father “Abba.” This is Jesus’ Daddy. In the second reading today, Paul also refers to the Father as Abba, Daddy. Jesus also taught us about the Holy Spirit. He called the Holy Spirit the Counselor or Paraclete; in other words the Holy Spirit is interceding or meditating for us. The Holy Spirit is for us. In the second reading today, Paul said the Spirit we received is not a spirit of slavery but a Spirit assuring us that we are sons and daughters of God. It is a spirit that makes us call our heavenly Father, Abba.

Glory be to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

A spiritual communion can be of value to anyone who desires a deeper union with Christ. It can be made at any time of the day or night. It is especially appropriate for those who find themselves unable to physically receive the Eucharist. For example, those who are not yet Catholic, those who have been away from the church for a long time and who have not yet made a good confession, those who are living in a state of serious sin, as well as those who are sick or homebound.

How does one make a spiritual Communion? Simply by desiring it. One formal prayer is "O Jesus, I turn toward the holy tabernacle where you live hidden for love of me. I Love You, O my God. I cannot receive you in Holy Communion. Come nevertheless and visit me with your grace. Come spiritually into my heart. Purify it. Sanctify it. Render it like unto your own." One need not use a formal prayer, however. A simple "Lord Jesus. Come into my heart" is sufficient, as is imagining Jesus coming into ones heart. As with any other spiritual habit, the more one does it, the easier it will become. There is no limit to the number of times we can ask Jesus to meet us. He desires to be with us.

Receiving Holy Communion at the Altar:

Communion will be given by the Priest, Deacon or Acolyte at the altar. Please continue to follow the direction of the ushers to direct you from your pew (starting with row one). Once you receive Communion in your hand you will then lift your mask from the bottom up and reverently consume the Body of Christ, then proceed back to your seat. Please maintain social distancing of six feet throughout the distribution of Communion. Please remember that gloves may NOT be worn while receiving Communion. Also, due to COVID restrictions and the fact that not everyone has received a vaccination, Communion will NOT be received on the tongue.
