To be a Sponsor for the Sacraments:

Parents seeking sponsors for the sacraments of their offspring should choose exemplary Catholics who practice their faith faithfully, a mentor who will serve as a role model, demonstrating time, talent and treasure, and be a support to the person they are sponsoring. Sponsors/Godparents:

Must be a Baptized member of the Catholic Church

- Be at least 16 years old
- Have received the Sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Confirmation
- IF married, be married in the Catholic Church; if not married, should not be living with someone as husband and wife
- Should attend mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and receive the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion at least once a year in the Easter Season.
- Understands and accepts these responsibilities. Will assist the parents in their Christian duty, and will help by example, word and action to live as a faithful Christian in communion with, and according to, the teachings of the Holy Catholic Church.

Parents MUST BE in communication with the Parish Office in the process of the completion of paperwork needed to complete sacraments. Paperwork must be completed 2 weeks before the sacraments are received. It is up to the parents to make sure that all the necessary paperwork is submitted, prior to baptisms or confirmations.

For any questions or more information, contact the Parish Office

Sunday Reflections:

Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ. If we attend Mass today, our Parish priest probably prepared excellent homilies for us. They usually put their heart and their very best efforts into their homilies. Hopefully, your parish priest gave an excellent homily about the Eucharist today. Even in the service of Christ and his holy church the priests do not often think of themselves though, they always direct our attention away from themselves and toward Jesus. This is something to make note of because the first reading, the psalm and the second reading today was about the priesthood. The first reading today says “And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine ; he was the Priest of God Most High.” The responsorial psalm today says “You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.” The second reading from the Book of Corinthians tells us how the Lord Jesus formed a new and eternal covenant with his people through the institution of the Eucharist:

“The Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said “This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me. “In the same way the cup also, after supper saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. “For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.”

Jesus formed this new covenant with his disciples and all of us shortly before he was arrested and it has remained with us for over 2,000 years and will indeed be with us until he comes again at the end of time. That is, if enough men hear Christ calling them to the priesthood and answer that call. Many are called but only a few actually answer the Lord’s call to dedicate their lives to serving him. The noise and lures of modern life distracts many from listening to the call that they have received from the Lord. It takes a genuine spiritual life, not a surface faith, to spend enough quality time in prayer to get to know the Lord on a deeper level and hear his voice speaking to their heart. This is true for all of us, laity included, but in a more profound way with those who are called to the Priesthood. The Lord Jesus chooses them but do they choose the Lord Jesus? The ones who do choose Jesus are more precious than gold in our church. They are the treasure of the church. Our priests bring Jesus to us in word and sacrament and serve not only the Lord, but all of us as well. We should never forget that we are their family, because they are never married and had families of their own. We should pray for our priests by name and as a group on a regular basis. The devil is on the prowl throughout the world and our priests need our prayers and support as members of the body of Christ.

A spiritual communion can be of value to anyone who desires a deeper union with Christ. It can be made at any time of the day or night. It is especially appropriate for those who find themselves unable to physically receive the Eucharist. For example, those who are not yet Catholic, those who have been away from the church for a long time and who have not yet made a good confession, those who are living in a state of serious sin, as well as those who are sick or homebound.

How does one make a spiritual Communion? Simply by desiring it. One formal prayer is “O Jesus, I turn toward the holy tabernacle where you live hidden for love of me. I Love You, O my God. I cannot receive you in Holy Communion. Come nevertheless and visit me with your grace. Come spiritually into my heart. Purify it. Sanctify it. Render it like unto your own.” One need not use a formal prayer, however. A simple “Lord Jesus. Come into my heart” is sufficient, as is imagining Jesus coming into ones heart. As with any other spiritual habit, the more one does it, the easier it will become. There is no limit to the number of times we can ask Jesus to meet us. He desires to be with us.

Receiving Holy Communion at the Altar:

Communion will be given by the Priest, Deacon or Acolyte at the altar. Please continue to follow the direction of the ushers to direct you from your pew (starting with row one). Once you receive Communion in your hand you will then lift your mask from the bottom up and reverently consume the Body of Christ, then proceed back to your seat. Please maintain social distancing of six feet throughout the distribution of Communion. Please remember that gloves may NOT be worn while receiving Communion. Also, due to COVID restrictions and the fact that not everyone has received a vaccination, Communion will NOT be received on the tongue.

This is my body and blood, do this in memory of me.

The Personal Question:

What are the three feasts we celebrate today?

Action for Today:

The feast and its objectives: Today, we celebrate the solemn feast of Corpus Christi. It is three feasts in one: the feast of the Eucharistic sacrifice, feast of the Sacrament of the Eucharist and the feast of the Real Presence of Jesus.
