Gospel Reflection:

Our gospel tells us today do not let anyone intimidate you. Do not be afraid of anything. Sounds wonderful, but what is the reality? Just take a look at our world, sometimes you just do not want to listen to the news or read the paper. The protests, riots and new COVID numbers and mandates we see on the evening news are filled with tragedies, disappointments and losses. Even in our families some have left the church, switched religions, or just dropped out. It seems sometimes that we are inundated with bad news as a daily diet. Our newscasts and our papers fill us with endless images of infidelity, war, torture and moral mayhem. Our movies and TV can desensitize us to violence and suffering. So much of our time it feels like we are forced to concentrate on life's horrors. We may want to repeat the question we find in scripture and ask Jesus what happened to all the good things you promised. Are you the one who is to come or should we look for another? Didn't you tell us that we should fear nothing that we are worth more than an entire flock of sparrows? Jesus might reply, you are the victims of too much bad news. Take time to look at the good news, then you will perceive the Kingdom. So where is the good news? Well, right now churches are opened with limited capacity, as we sit here there are countless Catechists in countless parishes letting in the light of the Gospel to our young. Although schools are currently closed our catholic schools endured great hardship in our big cities in educating hundreds of thousands of underprivileged children, many of them non-Catholic. For the most part, these schools are staffed by dedicated, hardworking, and underpaid staff and teachers who have now shifted to online learning. New churches are being built, but we only read about parish closings. As the world returns to normal, we find churches open again in limited capacities. People recover from addictions, accidents, illness and depression in so many catholic institutions. Catholic relief services are one of the largest single private charitable services in the world. Every day the corporal and spiritual works of mercy are being carried out in hundreds of ways but they never make the news. Look around at this parish, the great kids, the wonderful parents, how you all simply care about each other. We take all of these things for granted. For example, I have always maintained that all parents are guaranteed heaven. Remember there is only one place in the gospel where Jesus gives the credence of who gets to heaven. In Matthew 25-When I was hungry, you gave me to eat, when I was thirsty, you gave me to drink, when I was ill you visited me. As long as you did it to one of the least of my brothers or sisters, you did it to me, enter into the joy of the Lord. The corporal and spiritual works of mercy are built into family life by nature. That is why I say that all parents are guaranteed heaven. Mom, what will I wear? Counseling the doubtful. Dad, will you help with my math homework? Instructing the ignorant. The 2 am bottle, giving drink to the thirsty. Changing diapers, clothing the naked. Preparing meals, feeding the hungry. The cat died, burying the dead. Are you still in the bathroom? Visiting the imprisoned. And being good parents you will say, I have to do these things; it is my job and my duty. As if that made it less wonderful, less meritorious. Less the fulfillment of Jesus' criteria for heaven. My point is these things go on all the time. The Kingdom of Jesus is here, goodness abounds. Love is given and received. People are faithful, caring, courtesy and good deeds are commonplace. Do not let the daily diet of bad news trip you up. When we look around the world out of control, we all have doubts at times. I guess that is one good reason why we come to church every week. To recover our sense of vision, to celebrate the God we bumped into all week without knowing it. To handle the word and the bread and to see this very congregation with the new realization. That such ordinary stuff as the word, the bread and wine, the people all harbor the very presence of God and that is good news.

To be a Sponsor for the Sacraments:

Parents seeking sponsors for the sacraments of their offspring should choose exemplary Catholics who practice their faith faithfully, a mentor who will serve as a role model, demonstrating time, talent and treasure, and be a support to the person they are sponsoring. Sponsors/Godparents: Must be a Baptized member of the Catholic Church

- Be at least 16 years old
- Have received the Sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Confirmation
- IF married, be married in the Catholic Church; if not married, should not be living with someone as husband and wife
- Should attend mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and receive the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion at least once a year in the Easter Season.
- Understands and accepts these responsibilities. Will assist the parents in their Christian duty, and will help by example, word and action to live as a faithful Christian in communion with, and according to, the teachings of the Holy Catholic Church.

Parents MUST BE in communication with the Parish Office in the process of the completion of paperwork needed to complete sacraments. Paperwork must be completed 2 weeks before the sacraments are received. It is up to the parents to make sure that all the necessary paperwork is submitted, prior to baptisms or confirmations.

A spiritual communion can be of value to anyone who desires a deeper union with Christ. It can be made at any time of the day or night. It is especially appropriate for those who find themselves unable to physically receive the Eucharist. For example, those who are not yet Catholic, those who have been away from the church for a long time and who have not yet made a good confession, those who are living in a state of serious sin, as well as those who are sick or homebound.

How does one make a spiritual Communion? Simply by desiring it. One formal prayer is “O Jesus, I turn toward the holy tabernacle where you live hidden for love of me. I Love You, O my God. I cannot receive you in Holy Communion. Come nevertheless and visit me with your grace. Come spiritually into my heart. Purify it. Sanctify it. Render it like unto your own.” One need not use a formal prayer, however. A simple “Lord Jesus. Come into my heart” is sufficient, as is imagining Jesus coming into ones heart. As with any other spiritual habit, the more one does it, the easier it will become. There is no limit to the number of times we can ask Jesus to meet us. He desires to be with us.

Receiving Holy Communion at the Altar:

Communion will be given by the Priest, Deacon or Acolyte at the altar. Please continue to follow the direction of the ushers to direct you from your pew (starting with row one). Once you receive Communion in your hand you will then lift your mask from the bottom up and reverently consume the Body of Christ, then proceed back to your seat. Please maintain social distancing of six feet throughout the distribution of Communion. Please remember that gloves may NOT be worn while receiving Communion. Also, due to COVID restrictions and the fact that not everyone has received a vaccination, Communion will NOT be received on the tongue.
