To be a Sponsor for the Sacraments:

Parents seeking sponsors for the sacraments of their offspring should choose exemplary Catholics who practice their faith faithfully, a mentor who will serve as a role model, demonstrating time, talent and treasure, and be a support to the person they are sponsoring. Sponsors/Godparents: Must be a Baptized member of the Catholic Church

- Be at least 16 years old
- Have received the Sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Confirmation
- IF married, be married in the Catholic Church; if not married, should not be living with someone as husband and wife
- Should attend mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and receive the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion at least once a year in the Easter Season.
- Understands and accepts these responsibilities. Will assist the parents in their Christian duty, and will help by example, word and action to live as a faithful Christian in communion with, and according to, the teachings of the Holy Catholic Church.

Parents MUST BE in communication with the Parish Office in the process of the completion of paperwork needed to complete sacraments. Paperwork must be completed 2 weeks before the sacraments are received. It is up to the parents to make sure that all the necessary paperwork is submitted, prior to baptisms or confirmations.

For any questions or more information, contact the Parish Office

Gospel Meditation & Liturgical Life:

Death is Not God's Doing:

"Death was not God's Doing, he takes no pleasure in the 'extinction of the living (Wis.)'" The untimely death of Jesuit theologian and friend, Peter Arokiadoss during Holy Week 2008 shocked us all. Arokiadoss-Dean of the Faculty of Theology at Pune- had a persistent cough, which was later diagnosed as a result of metastases in the bile duct. Within days, he breathed his last. However, on the eve of his death, when asked by a relative why God gave him, a priest, such sickness, he replied: "no, God didn't give me the sickness. All of us have cancer cells which are under control. Most likely because of my lifestyle or sleeping habits, I might've given cause for these cells to grow and destroy the good cells. God doesn't cause sickness, we got it ourselves." The opening words of today's readings declare: "death was not God's doing."

Today's readings speak about death with Jesus as the victor over death. However, the Book of Wisdom provides the pre-suppositions for this victory. In sum, God has created the world as essentially good. Human beings, in particular, were created to be immortal reading reiterates, we're created "in God's image."

The death spoken of here is not necessarily biological; but, more specifically moral and spiritual. In other words, one dies to the extent that one lives an immoral or unspiritual life. Indeed, Christ not only conquers biological death by his resurrection, but he saves us from sin teaching us how to overcome evil.

The responsorial psalm links the first reading and the gospel: "Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead and restored me to life." The original context is the 'death' that the Israelites experienced in the desecration of the temple by Antiochus Epiphanes and the subsequent restoration of the temple in the time of the Maccabees. It is thus a psalm of national thanksgiving. Here, however, it celebrates Christ's victory over death.

IN today's Gospel, Mark sandwiches the story of the woman with the hemorrhage in-between two parts of the narrative of the raising of Jairus's daughter. This insertion can be understood either as: a device to explain Jesus' late arrival at Jairus's house- a delay that meant that the little girl had already died; or that the miracle in the insertion explains the other, greater miracle. Interpreted either way, both miracles prefigure Jesus as the one who saves from sickness and death.

We often feel that God is the cause of all births/deaths. Commenting about Jesus' life, the great Archbishop Fulton Sheen wrote: "All men come into this world to live, but this man, Jesus, came to die." Beautiful as these sound, we must remember that Jesus said "I have come that you might have life, and have it in abundance" Indeed, God is a God of Life and "death is not God's doing." It is, rather, we, who cause death in myriad forms- through our sin, selfishness, pride, power play, greed and godlessness. Nonetheless, the Lord of Life bids us touch people and heal them.

Are we ready to hold people's hands and cry out with the power of the Spirit: "Talitha kum!"- little girl, sick man, addicted youth, sorrowing widow, frustrated priest, failed student, arise, arise, arise!?" With the wisdom of persons like Fr. Arokiadass, let's cooperate with God to fight death & promote life.

Why do we celebrate Saints Peter and Paul on the Same Day?

On June 29th the Church celebrates the feast day of Saints Peter & Paul. As early as the year 258, there is evidence of an already lengthy tradition of celebrating the solemnities of both Saint Peter and Saint Paul on the same day. Together, the two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

Catholic Life Explained:Why do we do that?:

Question: If it isn't only for people who are dying, when should someone receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

Answer: One of the unfortunate realities in the Church today is that so few people understand the meaning and value of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, largely because so many people still mistakenly think of this sacrament as "Last Rites" or "Extreme Unction." IN his life and ministry, Jesus healed the sick. In this sacrament, the Church continues the healing mission of Jesus and, in hope, prays that God will grant heal-ing to the person who is suffering. But even if there is no physical healing, the sacrament also offers spiritual healing through the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage. And so, anyone who is living with serious illness (including emotional or psychological) and the elderly are encouraged to celebrate this sacrament when it is needed. The ritual for Anointing of the Sick does also include special prayers and blessings for those who are facing death, including vaticum (communion given to the dying, trusting that the Lord Jesus will be their companion along the way, as they make their final journey).

Prayer of Thanks

By: Lenora McWhorter

We give thanks to you , oh God, for the gift of the Lord Jesus Christ. We give thanks for the price he paid so that we could have eternal life.

We thank you for the sun by day and the stars that light the night. For the seasons that never fail to change and the darkness gives way to light.

We thank you, Lord, for daily bread and for your mercy and your grace. We thank you for the air we breathe and the blessings You send by faith.

We thank you, Lord, for joy and sorrow, for our tear and our smiles. We thank you for family and friends and all those who are part of our lives.

We thank you for what you protect us from and for the things you bring us through, even the dangers we cannot see or when we don't know what to do.

We give you praise, oh Lord, our God, and we give thanks for everything. For life and health and well-being and all the good the year is to bring.

Amen.
