REFLECTION: FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME: The Beatitudes, Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven, Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted, Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land, Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied, Blessed are the merciful for they will be shown mercy, Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God, Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God, Blessed are those that are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

EPHESIANS 4:29 Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your heart. We are called to love, to act in love, and to be loving. Anything outside of love is not of God.

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Feast Day: February 2

On February 2, we observe the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, honoring Jesus Christ's presentation in the Temple when he was a young child. There are simple ways to Celebrate the Presentation of the Lord, one is to go to daily mass and get your candles blessed that day. Developing awareness of the presence of God is very important and simply means recognizing this, keeping it in your thoughts, and living like we really mean it. This is a huge factor in the spiritual life. Imagine how different life would be if you were always aware of being in God's loving presence.

REALIZE HOW BLESSED YOU ARE

FAMILY CONNECTION

Today's Gospel offers a contrast to many of the messages we hear in our society today. If we were to accept uncritically the "get ahead" messages of our culture, we would think that happiness means having money, being successful, having many possessions, and so on. When we think this way, we are not unlike the people who heard Jesus teach on the day that he taught the Beatitudes. The crowd that day also associated happiness with material possessions and status. Talk as a family about what it means to be happy or to be blessed. Make a list of traits that you would associate with a happy person. Reflect on Jesus' description of happiness. Think about what each of the Beatitudes might have in common and write a family summary of the Beatitudes. We pray that we will be peacemakers who seek to get along with other people even when this is difficult.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

NSDG COVID-19 POLICIES

The Archdiocese has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own COVID-19 Policies. Masks will be Optional while attending Mass. However, they remain strongly recommended for those over 65, with medical conditions that make them more vulnerable to the virus and those that are unvaccinated. If you are serving at the Altar, (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server) you MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES. All ministries who participate must be fully vaccinated with proof of card on file and have taken the Child Protection Training ages 18 and above. ASF Policy: Parish Staff must be fully vaccinated with proof of card on file or adhere to weekly testing. Spanish and English Videos are recorded so as to serve for the homebound who are ill or those with a serious reason. (Cf. CIC, c. 1245) Thank you for your continued cooperation.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stays out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that may be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13 There will be a people who remain sheltered from God's anger.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 146:6-10 The Lord is Faithful forever.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:26-31 God chooses the weak to show his power.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 5:1-12a Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.

Today's reading is the beginning of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which is found in Matthew's Gospel. The form of the Beatitudes found here is not unique to Jesus. Beatitudes are found in the Old Testament, in the psalms, and in wisdom literature, for example. They are a way to teach about who will find favor with God. We quickly note in this reading that the people whom Jesus calls "blessed" and "happy" are not people we think of as blessed or happy...the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. This Gospel is one of reversals. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness. "Blessed" is sometimes translated as happy, fortunate, or favored. In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, those who mourn, those who are persecuted. This news might have been welcome—and surprising—to the crowds who heard Jesus that day. The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God. By referring to the good things that the faithful will experience, Matthew reminds us that those who act in the manner described in the Beatitudes will find their reward with God. If we take the time to listen to Jesus, He will teach us what it means to be truly happy. Jesus tells us that we are happy, or blessed, when we are kind to others, forgive them, and live peacefully with them. He says that we are happy when we put our faith in God and do the right thing, even when it's hard. Jesus offers us an alternative prescription for happiness, one that promises lasting happiness to those who live by his teachings. What can you do to be a peacemaker?
