REFLECTION: SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

The readings for this Sunday focus on the law and commandments. The question being, why do we need rules in society and why should we follow them. We are reminded that God's wisdom is far greater than our own and Jesus tells us he has come to fulfill the law, not to abolish it. God so respects our freedom, that he will allow us to experience life or death, good or evil. He will give us what we choose and, more to it, we will become what we choose. Each day, every moment, choose the path of love, and you will become the kind of person fit to live in heaven.

EPHESIANS 4:29 Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.

Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your heart. We are called to love, to act in love, and to be loving. Anything outside of love is not of God.

THE SEVEN
HOLY FOUNDERS OF THE SERVITE ORDER

Feast Day: February 17

Names of the Founders: Bonfilius, Alexis, Manetitus, Amideus, Hugh, Sostene and Buonagiunta of Florence. They were seven Holy men who became bound to each other in a spiritual friendship that were eventually called by the Virgin Mother of God in a vision that they reportedly all shared in one and the same moment.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Families have rules. Without rules, family life would be chaos. As a Family, brainstorm a list of rules that you are all called to follow in your home in order for you all to get along together. Think about rules for playtime, rules for eating, rules for how to speak to one another, rules for going out with friends, and so on. Emphasize that families follow rules as a way of showing love and respect for one another. Explain that in the Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about following the Law. Say: God's Law of Love can be thought of as rules that we are to follow in order to show our love and respect for one another. Read aloud this Sunday's Gospel. Talk specifically with one another about how anger is to be dealt within your family. Conclude by praying for grace to overcome anger and to show respect for one another as a family by following God's Law of Love. Jesus teaches us that we fulfill the Law by going beyond the minimum requirements and by responding with love in all that we do.

ENVELOPE USAGE

By using your Church Offering Envelope OR a plain Envelope with your envelope number, you are indicating your presence at Mass. What you put in the envelope is between you and God. Parishioners are asked to include first name, last name, envelope number, and your mailing address on any envelope that is not provided by the Parish. Thank you for your continued support.

NSDG COVID-19 POLICIES

The Archdiocese has given the Parish Priest the discretion to mandate their own COVID-19 Policies. Masks will be Optional while attending Mass. However, they remain strongly recommended for those over 65, with medical conditions that make them more vulnerable to the virus and those that are unvaccinated. If you are serving at the Altar, (Deacon, Acolyte, Lector, Cantor, EM, or any Server) you MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES. All ministries who participate must be fully vaccinated with proof of card on file and have taken the Child Protection Training ages 18 and above. ASF Policy: Parish Staff must be fully vaccinated with proof of card on file or adhere to weekly testing. Spanish and English Videos are recorded so as to serve for the homebound who are ill or those with a serious reason. (Cf. CIC, c. 1245) Thank you for your continued cooperation.

UNLESS YOU ARE A SCHEDULED MINISTER FOR THE WEEKEND, Father Frank has asked that everyone stays out of the Sacristy. This is to protect Father, Monsignor and the Deacons or Ministers that may be present in the Sacristy before or after Mass.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-20 The eyes of God see all he has made.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 119:1-2,4-5,17-18,33-34 Happy are those who walk in the way of the Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10 God has revealed this wisdom to us through to us through the Spirit.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 5:17-37 I have not come to abolish the law and the prophets but to fulfill them. Matthew continues the Sermon on the Mount with a three part instruction by Jesus on the Way of Life in the kingdom of heaven. Today's reading is part one and deals with the Law. Part two deals with worship and religious practice and contains the Lord's Prayer. Part three deals with trusting God and deeds of loving service to our neighbor. When Matthew speaks of "the Law and the prophets" he means the whole Scripture. When the Messiah brings the fullness of the kingdom none of scripture will be done away with. Instead it will be fulfilled. Matthew's Jesus does not overturn the Law of Moses, nor does he set his followers free from the Law. He requires his followers to go beyond the Law by doing more than the Law requires. The Law condemned murder. Jesus condemns anger. The Law condemned adultery. Jesus condemns even lustful looks. As Jewish Christians who had always been faithful to the Law Matthew's community needs a way to understand the difference Jesus and the kingdom he brings have made. They affirmed that God has always been at work in history through "the Law and the prophets." But God's work goes beyond that to be embodied by the Messiah who reveals the definitive will of God. The written scriptures and their interpretation in tradition are surpassed by Jesus whose life and teaching, are the definitive revelation of the will of God. Jesus teaches us that obeying God's Law of Love is to be done not just to avoid punishment but to show love to others. Jesus tells us in this Sunday's Gospel that the best way to understand God's Law of Love, is to listen to Jesus and live like him. Jesus teaches us that as long the Law of Love will remain with us until heaven and earth pass away, forever.
