SAINT JOACHIM AND ANNE,
Parents of The Blessed Virgin Mary
Feast Day: Friday July 26

The Roman Catholic Church commemorates the parents of the Virgin Mary, Saints Joachim and Anne. The couple's perseverance and faith brought them through the sorrow of childlessness, to the joy of conceiving and raising the immaculate and sinless woman who would give birth to Christ. The couple became devoted to rigorous prayer and fasting. They were blessed when an Angel revealed to Anne that all generations would honor their future child.

REFLECTION ON THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

The readings for the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time tell of how our relationship with God helps us grow, which in turn allows our lives to bear fruit. The first reading explains that God's Word is like the rain, which falls on the earth and makes it fertile. The second reading reminds us that a new creation is going to emerge. In the gospel Jesus tells the parable, or story. He talks about a farmer planting seeds to teach us a lesson about how we grow in faith. He explains that our hearts must be ready to receive the Word of God.

EPHESIANS 4:29 Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your heart. We are called to love, to act in love, and to be loving. Anything outside of love is not of God.

Today's Gospel reminds us that in order for God's Word to take root in us and produce abundant fruit, we must endeavor to be like good soil. Families, in particular, hold the responsibility for "preparing the soil" so that the seeds of God's Word can grow strong. There are many ways in which families do this: family traditions in which faith is celebrated; prayer and reading of Scripture; and instruction on the faith. In these ways, parents fulfill the promises they made at their child's Baptism. Gather together as a family and reflect together on the Sacrament of Baptism. Tell the story of the Baptism of each child, showing any pictures that were taken. If you have your child's Baptism candle or gown, share these as well. Recall together that one of the promises that parents make at their child's Baptism is to bring them up in the practice of our faith.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11 The Word of the Lord shall achieve its purpose.

Responsorial Psalm: 65:10-14 A prayer of praise to God for his abundance.

Second Reading: Romans 8:18-23 Together with all of creation, we await God's redemption.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 13:1-23 Jesus teaches that the kingdom of heaven is like seed that has been sown on good soil.

Today's Gospel marks the beginning of the third long discourse given by Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew. Over the next few weeks, the Gospel readings will consist of the entire 13th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel, a lengthy teaching discourse. Throughout this discourse, Jesus will offer several parables to illustrate for his listeners what he means by the kingdom of heaven. He begins with the parable of the sower, which appears rather straight forward, of course seeds grow best in good soil. Seeds that miss the soil, are sown on rocky ground, or are sown among other plants will not grow. The surprise in the parable is the enormous yield of the seed that is sown on good soil. Jesus then explains his use of parables. Jesus seems to suggest that he uses parables to teach because the meanings of parables are not self evident. The hearer must engage in some degree of reflection in order to comprehend the message of a parable. In this way, the medium-the parable models the point of the parable of the sower. Those who are willing to engage themselves in the effort to understand will be rewarded by the discovery of the message and will bear fruit. To bring home the point, Jesus interprets the parable of the sower to his disciples. The different types of soil in which the seeds are sown are metaphors for the disposition with which each individual hears the teaching about the kingdom of heaven. Some will be easily swayed away from the kingdom of heaven. Some will receive it for a time but will lose it when faced with difficulties. Some will hear the word but will then permit other cares to choke it out. Yet some will receive it well, and the seed will produce abundant fruit.
