ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Feast Day: Tuesday August 15

Mary is closely associated with all the mysteries of Jesus' life. The Holy Spirit has led the Church to believe in Mary's share in his glorification. So close was she to Jesus on earth, she must be with him body and soul in heaven. In the light of the Assumption of Mary, it is easy to pray her Magnificat with new meaning. In her glory she proclaims the greatness of the Lord and finds joy in God her savior. God has done marvels to her and she leads us to God's holiness.

REFLECTION ON THE NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

In today's gospel, Jesus uses the opportunity in the storm to strengthen the faith of his disciples. He is away praying on a mountain when the storm starts tossing them on the sea. He comes to their rescue, although they fail to recognize him at first. He responds to their inability to see him with the statement, "Take courage. It is I." But they still need proof. Even upon seeing this miraculous act, Peter's faith falters in the face of his fear. Jesus asks them why they doubt. But in the end, they recognize his divine presence: the Son of God.

The mission of the Church is to continue the work of Jesus. The family, the domestic church, participates in this mission too. Talk about how your family participates in the mission of the Church. Discuss ways in which you seek to reach out to your neighbors and people in need through acts of kindness, mercy, and justice. Then read together today's Gospel. Talk about how Peter wanted to be like Jesus, to walk on water like Jesus did. Note that Peter was successful for a time, but then he doubted Jesus, and he began to sink into the water. Talk about how your family's acts of mercy and justice are rooted in your faith in Jesus. Faith in Jesus will enable the disciples to do the work that Jesus has done. Peter teaches us that true Christian ministry emerges from the faith that Jesus is the Messiah, God's only Son. Pray that Jesus will continue to work through your family to prepare the kingdom of heaven.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9a,11-13a The Lord appears to Elijah in a whisper.

Responsorial Psalm: 85:9-14 The Lord is the source of salvation.

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5 Paul speaks of the blessings that have come to the Israelites.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 14:22-33 Jesus walks on water, and the disciples acknowledge him as the Son of God. Today's Gospel directly follows last week's account of Jesus feeding a crowd of more than 5,000 people with just five loaves of bread and two fish. For the sake of the crowds, Jesus had postponed his time of solitude. Now, at last, Jesus finds some time for quiet and prayer. He sends his disciples ahead of him by boat, dismisses the crowds, and then withdraws to the mountain to pray. The disciples do not fare well. They struggle to weather the wind and waves, making little progress in their journey. We are reminded of a previous story in Matthew's Gospel, when Jesus calms the seas. This time, however, Jesus does not calm the seas, and the disciples do not express fear until they see Jesus walking toward them on the water. In this story it is not the storm that is feared but the sight of Jesus before them, whom they mistake for a ghost. Clues like these suggest that this story is about the disciples' growing understanding of the identity of Jesus. Today's Gospel is also about what the disciples' faith in Jesus will enable them to do. In last week's Gospel, when the disciples see the crowds, they ask Jesus to send the crowds away. Jesus turns the situation around, telling the disciples to feed the crowd with provisions that they have. Both of these Gospels tell us much about ministry. Jesus calls to the disciple and calms their fears. He is not a ghost. The impulsive Peter seeks proof that the person is indeed Jesus. He asks Jesus to call him out onto the water, and Jesus grants this request. Peter's fear and doubt overtake him, however, once he is walking on the water. Jesus reaches out to Peter and saves him. When Jesus and Peter enter the boat, Matthew reports that the wind ceases, and the disciples confess that Jesus is the Son of God.
