REFLECTION ON THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

In today's gospel, Jesus uses the opportunity in the storm to strengthen the faith of his disciples. He is away praying on a mountain when the storm starts tossing them on the sea. He comes to their rescue, although they fail to recognize him at first. He responds to their inability to see him with the statement, "Take courage. It is I." But they still need proof. Peter asks him to walk on the water. Even upon seeing this miraculous act, Peter's faith falters in the face of his fear. Jesus asks them why they doubt. But in the end, they recognize his divine presence: the Son of God.

SAINT ROSE OF LIMA, VIRGIN
Feast Day: Wednesday August 23

She had a special devotion to the Infant Jesus and His Blessed Mother. Her role model was St. Catherine, she began by fasting three times a week, adding severe penances, by cutting off her beautiful hair, wearing coarse clothing and roughening her hands with toil. Her many hours were spent before the Blessed Sacrament. She took the vow of virginity and received the habit of St. Dominic. Our Lord revealed Himself to her frequently. Many miracles followed her death.

Even when spurned by Jesus, the faith of the Canaanite woman makes her bold enough to argue and ask again for what she needs. Her persistence and great confidence that Jesus could heal her daughter reminds us of the confidence with which our children bring to us their own needs. In their faith and trust we can find modern examples of how we might approach God in prayer. As a family recall some times when a request for something was presented by one family member to another with confidence and persistence. If the request was denied, talk about why that was so. If the request was eventually granted, talk about what led to the change of heart. Was anyone surprised by Jesus' response to the Canaanite woman? Why or why not? What makes Jesus change his mind and heal the woman's daughter? When we pray God wants us to be confident in his mercy.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 56:1,6-7 The Lord reveals his salvation to all.

Responsorial Psalm: 67:2-3,5-6,8 All the nations will praise God.

Second Reading: Romans 11:13-15,29-32 God's favor to Israel is irrevocable.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 15:21-28 Jesus heals the daughter of the Canaanite woman because of her great faith. Today we move ahead in our reading of Matthew's Gospel. Last week we read about Jesus walking on the water and the disciples' confession of faith that Jesus is the Son of God. If we were reading Matthew's entire Gospel, we would have read about Jesus' debate with Pharisees about Jewish purity laws. Jesus argues that it is not what goes into us that makes us unclean; he is referring to the strict Jewish dietary rules. Instead our words and our actions; what comes out of us; make us unclean because they emerge from a heart that is unclean. Knowing about Jesus' debate with the Pharisees helps us to understand today's Gospel. In fact the story heightens the surprise and shock we feel as we hear Jesus' exchange with the Canaanite woman. The woman, who is not Jewish, approaches Jesus, requesting that he heal her demon possessed daughter. At first Jesus ignores her; he says nothing. The disciples ask Jesus to send her away, and Jesus agrees, remarking that he was sent to minister to the Jews alone. The woman persists, paying homage to Jesus, and yet Jesus denies her request again. He even insults her, using Jewish word of derision for Gentiles, "dog." But the woman cleverly turns Jesus' insult into an affirmation of faith. Only then does Jesus grant her request and heal her daughter. Jesus' unresponsiveness to this woman may strike us as uncharacteristic or shocking. Yet in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is directed primarily to the people of Israel. In today's Gospel, we find Jesus anticipating the later Christian ministry to the rest of the world. The faith that the Canaanite woman expresses is an affirmation of and confidence in God's abundant mercy. Yes, salvation comes through Israel, but it overflows for the benefit of all.
