REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

The readings for the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time remind us that God's wisdom is not the same as our own wisdom. In the first reading we hear that God has the power to remove the mighty from their positions of leadership. In the second reading Paul tells us that we cannot know the mind of God, as his wisdom and knowledge are beyond us. And in the Gospel's that Jesus is the Christ, and Jesus declares that this is a revelation from the Father. This signifies the beginning of the community of believers that will grow from Christ's teachings.

World Day
of Prayer

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF CREATION

Feast Day: Friday September 1

Message from Pope Francis: Dear brothers and sisters! "Let Justice and Peace Flow" is the theme of this year's ecumenical Season of Creation, by the prophet Amos: "Let justice flow on like a river, righteousness like a never-falling stream. (Prayer) All powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures. You embrace with your tenderness all that exists. Pour out upon us the power of your love that we may protect life and beauty.

Today's Gospel reminds us that the Church is built on the foundation of faith in Jesus Christ. Peter announces the core of our faith, that Jesus is God's only Son. The family, as the domestic church, has this same faith as its foundation. As you gather together as a family, talk about people whose faith has helped you to be a member of the Church and talk about what you have learned from leaders in our Church today. Jesus believed that his Father gave Simon the insight to recognize Jesus' true identity. So, he renamed Simon, "Peter," which means "rock." Why do you think Jesus chose that name? Read together today's Gospel, Matthew 16:13-20. Talk about what you know about Peter and his importance to the early Christian community. Talk about what we can learn from Peter and his profession of faith about Jesus. Conclude in prayer together by praying today's Psalm or and Act of Faith.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 22:19-23 God will remove Shebna from his office as master of the palace.

Responsorial Psalm: 138:1-8 God's kindness is forever.

Second Reading: Romans 11:33-36 Paul sings praise to God.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 16:13-20 Simon Peter acknowledges Jesus as the Christ and is given the key to the Kingdom of Heaven. It is important to read today's Gospel and next week's Gospel as two parts of a single story. These readings are a turning point in Matthew's Gospel. This week we hear Jesus name Simon Peter as the rock upon which he will build his Church. Next week we will hear Jesus call this same Simon Peter "Satan" when he reacts negatively to Jesus' prediction about his passion and death. In today's Gospel, Jesus asks his disciples what people are saying about his identity. The disciples indicate that most people believe that Jesus is a prophet of Israel. Then Jesus asks his disciples who they believe that he is. Simon Peter answers, identifying Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of God. Jesus commends Simon Peter for this profession of faith, indicating that this insight has come from God. Because of Simon Peter's response, Jesus calls him the "rock" upon which Jesus will build the Church. This is a word play on the name Peter, which is the Greek word for "rock." Peter is then given special authority by Jesus, a symbolic key to the Kingdom of Heaven. Peter will play an important role in the early Christian community as a spokesperson and a leader. In today's Gospel, Peter's recognition of Jesus' identity is credited to a revelation by God. This will contrast sharply with Jesus' rebuke of Peter in next week's Gospel. When Peter rejects Jesus' prediction of his passion and death, Peter is said to no longer be thinking as God does but as humans do. The use of the term church in today's Gospel is one of only three such occurrences in Matthew's Gospel. Peter in this Gospel is being credited as the foundation for the Church, a privilege granted to him because of his recognition of Jesus' identity. The Church continues to be grounded in the faith that Jesus Christ is Lord. Like Peter, we are reminded that Jesus is God's Son.
