But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
Feast Day: Friday September 8
The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary refers to the birthday of the Blessed Virgin Mary by her parents St. Anne and St. Joachim. The Catholic Church celebrates Mary's birthday on September 8th, nine months after the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, celebrated on December 8th. We as Catholics, celebrate the birth of Mary, as this is truly the "Birth of Salvation". We know that Mary went on to give birth to Jesus, Our Savior.

REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: The readings for the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on our natural longing for God. In the first reading Jeremiah realizes he cannot escape his burning desire for God. The second reading tells us that we must allow ourselves to be transformed to be one with Christ. In the Gospel Jesus explains that following him means making sacrifices. Are we willing to do what it takes to be a disciple? We are born to think of our own needs. God tells us to think not about ourselves but about others. This way of thinking is different, it's the way God would think.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: It is not too early to Register for classes, they begin September 17th, and registration deadline is September 10th. Please call our new Director of Religious Education, Zenda Vargas at (505)455-2267 or email her at nsdgzvargas@gmail.com. Her office hours are from 10-4 p.m. and she is available to meet with you for further guidance.

Saving Faith Follows the Lord

MATTHEW 16:21-27FAMILY CONNECTION

Peter was expecting a Messiah that would carry out a different plan than the one Jesus had explained. Jesus was indeed the Messiah, but his life and death would show a different understanding of what it means to be the Messiah. We too have expectations of God and our own ideas about what we think God ought to be doing in our world. Like Peter we may risk limiting our image of God by thinking only in human ways. God's plan is always more than we can ever imagine. Why do you think Peter was so upset by what Jesus was saying? Notice how Jesus reprimands Peter. Do we sometimes forget to let God be God for us? That is do we sometimes get discouraged because God doesn't act in our world in the ways that we expect? Pray that your family will remember that God is always working for the world's salvation in ways that are beyond our human imaginings.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9 Jeremiah laments but cannot fail to speak in God's name.

Responsorial Psalm: 63:2-6,8-9 Our souls yearn for God.

Second Reading: Romans 12:1-2 Paul encourages the Romans to stay faithful to God.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 16:21-27 Jesus speaks of his Passion and rebukes Peter for his objection.

Today's Gospel continues the story that began in last week's Gospel. Simon Peter was called the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church, and yet Peter continues to show the limitations of his understanding of Jesus' identity. Now that the disciples have acknowledged that Jesus is the Messiah, Jesus confides in them the outcome of his ministry: he must suffer and die in Jerusalem to be raised on the third day. Peter rejects this prediction, and Jesus rebukes him severely, calling him "Satan." In opposing this aspect of Jesus' mission, Peter shows that he is no longer speaking based on the revelation from God but as a human being. Jesus then teaches all of the disciples about the difficult path of discipleship: to be Christ's disciple is to follow in his way of the cross. Peter could not yet understand what it meant to call Jesus the Messiah. It is unlikely that the other disciples understood any better. Messianic expectations were a common aspect of first-century Judaism. Under Roman occupation, many in Israel hoped and prayed that God would send a Messiah to free the Jews from Roman oppression. The common view was that the Messiah would be a political figure, a king that would free Israel from Roman rule. This is perhaps what Peter envisioned when he was led to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. In this passage, however, Jesus is beginning to teach his disciples that he would be the Messiah in a different way. Jesus would be more like the suffering servant described by the prophet Isaiah than the political liberator. Those who would be Jesus' disciples would be called to a similar life of service. Perhaps this is what Peter feared most in Jesus' prediction of his Passion. He whom Jesus had called "rock" would also be called upon to offer himself in sacrifice and service to others.
